Prayers Written by Saints whose Feasts are this Week.

Monday, November 15th, St. Albert the Great

We pray to you, O Lord, who are the supreme truth; all truth is from you. We beseech you, O Lord, who are the highest wisdom; all the wise depend on you for their wisdom. You are the supreme joy, and all who are happy owe it to you. You are the light of the minds, and all receive their understanding from you. We love you above all. We seek you, we follow you, and we are ready to serve you. We desire to dwell under your power, for you are the king of all. Amen.

"It is by the path of love, which is charity, that God draws near to man, and man to God. But where charity is not found, God cannot dwell. If, then, we possess charity, we possess God, for 'God is Charity.'" Amen.

Tuesday, November 16th, St. Gertrude The Great

O God, worthy of infinite love. I have nothing which can adequately measure your dignity, but such is my desire toward you, that if I had all that you have, I would gladly and thankfully give it all to you. O Love, O God, grant that with my whole heart, and with my whole soul, and with my whole strength, I may love you. Amen.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, fountain of eternal life, your heart is a glowing furnace of love. You are my refuge and my sanctuary. Consume my heart with the burning fire with which yours is inflamed. Pour down on my soul those graces that flow from your love. Let my heart be united with yours. Let my will be conformed to yours in all things. May your will be the rule of all my desires and actions. Amen.

Thursday, November 18th, St. Rose Philippine Duchesne

O eternal Father, we come to you through the heart of our Jesus, who is the way, the truth, and the life. Through his divine heart, we adore you for those who do not adore you, we love you for those who do not love you, and we gratefully acknowledge you to be our God. Amen.

Prayers taken from Living With Christ and Catholic Online.

for family, parishioners & friends who are ill or hospitalized, and all those suffering from the corona virus.

Family Perspectives

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time: Today's gospel speaks about the end of time. Our lives are filled with endings and they usually come before we are ready for them. All of these small endings are preparing us for the final ending of our life on earth. Let's be thankful for the present moment and embrace it. Yet we must also be ready to let go, for only when we do are we able to embrace the next. And give some thought and prayer to the final ending of our lives so we are ready for the Lord when He comes.

Intercessions: For families who confidently trust and generously love each other with their time, words and deeds.

Before you baptize your child, parish and diocesan policy require you to complete a Baptism Preparation Class. The next class will be Sunday, January 16, 2022, 11:30 am at St. John Nepomucene. If you plan to attend, call them at (216) 641-8444. There is NO class scheduled during December 2021.

The 2022 Mass Calendar is Open

Parishioners may schedule Mass Intentions for 2022. There is a limit of 2 Masses, each 6 months, for the Vigil and Sundays only. The Stipend is $10.00 per Mass.

No phone calls or walk ins will be accepted.

In order to accommodate everyone, on a first come first serve basis, we are asking that you:

A. Put your request(s) in writing and place it in the collection basket or mail it to the rectory.

B. Include your name, address and phone number on your request(s) so we can contact you if any adjustments are necessary.

We appreciate your cooperation!

There are no Masses available in 2021.

Madison Elizabeth Leda Ellis

Chasidy Chinwe Okeafor

Dear Parishioners, I would like to thank Fr. Leo Dechant, C.S.J. and Fr. O'Donnell for celebrating the Masses here on the weekend of October 30-31.
Fr. Andrzej Panek from Immaculate Heart Parish on Lansing substituted for me on Monday, November 1st.
I went away for the baptism of a baby of some friends from El Salvador who live in Florida. The mother of the baptized is a medical doctor and the grandmother was a pillar of the one of the parishes I served at in El Salvador. I was pleased to baptize the baby because little Santiago had been born prematurely after a difficult pregnancy and we had all been praying for him from before he was born.

At the luncheon after the baptism, the wife of another doctor said to me, you probably don't remember but you married my sister to her husband in a bilingual Mass in San Salvador years ago. I asked her if her brother-in-law was an identical twin and she said, "So you do remember." I did because I had left the sacristy to tell the man I thought was the groom not to be greeting people in church before the wedding. His brother said to me, "I'm only the best man." Identical twins in tuxes are hard to tell apart. The doctor's wife showed me a picture of the couple I married and their three children. It made me feel so blessed to make that connection with my past ministry. She got on the phone to her mother in El Salvador right at the table and the mother of the bride sent her greetings to me. Who would imagine that kind of serendipity?

This week we finished the new roof on the old "bus barn" garage at the end of the property. Roland Miller and Matt Zinn are to be thanked for their nice work at a very good price. I hope that by the time you read this you can see some other cleanup projects around the campus.

Which reminds me to thank Rich Rykala and his son Vince for the landscaping work they did on the south side of the church by the sidewalk to the rectory. Rich was able to get the topsoil, seed and other things necessary donated by two nurseries/landscapers and father and son did the work as a gift to the parish. We are blessed by the generosity of our people. May God repay all who are so good to Holy Name.

There is a problem about the candy sales I hope is resolved in the time this takes to go to print. In the meantime we have the Christmas Cards and the raffle of a beautiful basket of kitchen and cooking items donated to the parish by Delia Trevisani. Tickets are on sale in back of church. Thank you Delia! We still need people to cook turkeys for the Thanksgiving dinners we deliver to the neighborhood. We also take donations for the other items we need to buy. I thank Joe and Jan Cavanagh and Sarah Dodeci and Bill Guion for their help so far.

St. Joseph, pray for us. May Our Lady of Perpetual Help intercede for us and may God bless us all.

Msgr. Richard Antall

HOLY NAME NEWS

Readings for Sunday, November 21st, are from the Book of the Prophet Daniel 7:13-14 (161B), from the Book of Revelation 1:5-8 and the Gospel according to St. John 18:33b-37.

PLEASE NOTE: THE THURSDAY HOT MEAL PROGRAM HAS BEEN SUSPENDED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

Holy Name Elementary School is now enrolling students, K through 8th grade. We accept the Cleveland Scholarship, and EdChoice Voucher, offer free breakfast and lunch daily. If interested you can contact the school by calling (216) 341-0084. Visit: www.holynamecleveland.org.

Thanksgiving Meals: The Holidays are quickly approaching and Holy Name's Thanksgiving plans are in process. We are looking for people to cook and carve turkeys, also, monetary donations and volunteers (especially drivers). We have turkeys available to be picked up for cooking. If you can help or would like to donate, call the rectory (216) 271-4242, 9 am to 1 pm.

We are now accepting phone calls for Thanksgiving meals. Meal requests will be accepted through Wednesday, November 17th. If you or someone you know in zip codes 44105, 44125, or 44127, is homebound, elderly, or needy call the rectory at: (216) 271-4242.

Christmas Cards picturing Holy Name's Manger scene and the main altar are now being sold. They are 10 cards for $10 and are available after the Masses. Be sure to check them out.

Our Holiday Candy, Nut and Craft sale is on hold at this time. More information will be provided soon. Meanwhile, there is a Christmas Bakers Basket Raffle. Tickets are $1.00 or 6 for $5. Be sure to take a chance. Drawing will be Sunday, December 19th after the 11 am Mass.

Don't forget to dedicate your Mass, Eucharist and prayers this weekend for Bishop Malesic's intention to be included in a Spiritual Bouquet the Holy Name Society is preparing for him.

Dom DiPasqua from LPi, is our bulletin advertising representative. Please consider supporting the printing of our publication while promoting your business to our members. Several ad sizes are available with special rates for parishioners. You may contact Dom directly. Email: ddipasqua@4lpi.com or call (440) 821-5567. Great for help wanted ads as well!

Do you attend Mass weekly here at Holy Name but are not a registered parishioner, why not consider joining our parish? Registration is the official way to join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statement for taxes easily. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you. Registration forms can be found in the church. You can drop the form in the collection basket or bring it to the Rectory.
