Did you take a baby bottle home to fill with your extra change for Womankind's Baby Bottle Fundraiser ? If you did not remember to return your bottle by today, June 25th, bring it next week.

Next weekend, July 1st and 2nd we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous.

For family, friends, and parishioners who are ill or hospitalized, and all those suffering any hardship.

Prayers for the Week

Sunday, June 25th: Come Lord! Come with me: see with my eyes, hear with my ears, think with my mind, love with my heart-in all the situations of my life. Work with my hands, my strength. Take, cleanse, possess, inhabit my will, my understanding, my love. Take me where you will, to do what you will, in your way. For where you are, there would your servant be. Amen. Evelyn Underhill

Monday, June 26th: O my God, speak, your servant is listening and is ready to obey you in all things. My Savior, illumine the darkness of my heart. Guard, O Lord, my affections and my senses, that they may not lead me away from the light of your face. Receive all my thoughts, words, and deeds, interior and exterior, that I lay at the feet of your Divine Mercy. Amen. St. Angela Merici

Tuesday, June 27th: God, I wish from now on to be the first to become conscious of all that the world loves, pursues, and suffers. I want to be the first to seek, to sympathize, and to suffer; the first to unfold and sacrifice myself, to become more widely human and more nobly of the earth than of the world's servants. Amen. Pierre Teilhard De Chardin, S.J.

Wednesday, June 28th: In your nature, eternal Godhead, I shall come to know my nature. And what is my nature? It is fire, because you are a fire of love. Today, eternal God, let our cloud be dissipated so that we may perfectly know and follow your truth, with a free and simple heart. God, come to our assistance! Lord, make haste to help us! Amen. St. Catherine of Siena

Thursday, June 29th: Go with each of us to rest; if any awake, temper to them the dark hours of watching; and when the day returns, return to us, our sun and comforter, and call us up with morning faces and morning hearts, eager to labor, eager to be happy if happiness should be our portion, and if the day be marked for sorrow, strong to endure it. Amen. Robert Louis Stevenson

Friday, June 30th: O Lord, the helper of the helpless, the hope of those who are past hope, the savior of the tempest-tossed, the harbor of the voyagers, the physician of the sick. You know each soul and our prayer, each home and its need. Become to each one of us what we most dearly desire. Pour on us your peace and love. O Lord our God. Amen. Orthodox Liturgy of St. Basil

Saturday, July 1st: Lord of the Harvest, bless young people with the gift of courage to respond to your call. Inspire all of your disciples to mutual love and giving-for vocations blossom in the good soil of faithful people. Instill those in religious life, parish ministries, and families with the confidence and grace to invite others to embrace the bold and noble path of a life consecrated to you. Amen. Pope Francis (Adapted from the message on the 51st World Day of Prayer for Vocations). From Living with Christ.

Dear Parishioners, We began the Thursday evening Holy Hours last week. The attendance was sparce, but I said that Jesus started with only 12 men, so I hope more will begin coming to the hour of silent prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Eucharistic Adoration is a way to develop our personal relationship with Jesus. Our lives are hectic sometimes and our living spaces are not always conducive to a spirit of prayer. Coming to church, even if just for a brief moment of prayer with the Sacrament of Jesus' Body and Blood on the altar is a remedy for many of the difficulties we find ourselves in. A heart to heart talk with Jesus is easier in the context of Eucharistic Adoration even than in the Mass. It is an oasis of grace and prayer in the silence of our beautiful parish church is a rest and a fountain of strength spiritually.

If you cannot come to church, I ask that you remember the hour from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Thursday and pray as you can at home. Joining yourself to the prayer virtually will help all of us.

We are in the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. As you may recall if you have looked studiously at the stained glass window of the Sacred Heart with St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in our church, the revelation of the love of Christ in this devotion began during a time of Eucharistic Adoration. I have visited the chapel in which that occurred in Paray le Monial in France. The Sacred Heart of Jesus is intimately connected to the Lord's Real Presence in the Sacrament. That is something that is more obvious as you pray before the monstrance. Inevitably, Eucharistic Adoration will give a person more depth in the reception of Holy Communion. We need to focus our prayer in order to focus our lives on Jesus. Spending time with Jesus in loving contemplation is a necessity for a Catholic Christian, not something extra.

Thanks to our friend Daniel Stys, we have many pictures of the Sacred Heart of Jesus to give out during this time. In former periods, almost every Catholic home had an image of Jesus like that. It was a constant reminder of Our Loving Savior and a stimulus to faith and trust.

Our parish should be a community of prayer with Jesus as the Center. The litany of the Sacred Heart calls Jesus "King and Center of all hearts." We should ask ourselves if Jesus is our king and if our lives are centered in Him. Every time you dedicate to God, every Communion, every rosary, every visit to the Blessed Sacrament helps our parish. A rising tide lifts all boats is an expression economists (and President Kennedy) used to promote growth. Spiritual growth is a communal project, also. If you are more holy, all of us can be more holy. Holiness is what we are all about.

On a more pedestrian note, we have several projects going on this summer for repairs: the school gymnasium, the front porch of the rectory, and others to be announced. Recently our school received 150 desks from Archbishop Hoban High School in Akron. We'll never be done, but we're trying. May Our Lady of Perpetual Help intercede for us and may God bless us all. Msgr. Richard Antall
