17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

Fr. Marlon's Reflections - 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time (John 6:1-15)

In the gospel two Sundays ago, Jesus summoned the twelve apostles and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits (Mk. 6:7). This resulted in a huge crowd swarming around Jesus and them. Seeing all 5,000 of them hungry, Jesus had compassion on them and fed them by multiplying a boy's lunch of five loaves of bread and two fish. Now, may I invite you to take a closer look at three people who played minor but important roles before the miracle happened if only to draw out some important lessons.

First, there was Philip. When Jesus asked him where they could buy food for the crowd, Philip answered that 200 days' wages worth of food would not be enough. Obviously, Philip saw the problem but was overpowered by it. Thus, he was unable to provide a solution.

Then there was Andrew. He looked for a solution but what he found seemed very insignificant – a boy's offer of his lunch. Nonetheless, he told Jesus about it but was quick to add, What good are these for so many?

Finally, there was the boy who offered his lunch which was really insignificant considering the number of hungry people there. But what gift offered to God is not? It was all Jesus needed to work the miracle. For what mattered to him was not the size or value of the gift but the spontaneity with which it was given.

Just as Jesus was concerned for the poor and hungry, so should we. In our day, we do not have to look far to discover them – many just “one day, one eat” people – right in our neighborhood. Yet we do not bother with them or we make all kinds of rationalizations in not helping them. We must remember that when Jesus gave the criteria as to how his followers would be judged at the end-time, he put at the head of the list, I was hungry and you gave me food (Mt. 25:35). Yet very often, we act like the calculating Philip and Andrew. When the odds seem insurmountable, we give up; like the two apostles, we say, dismiss them. But did Jesus say? Feed them. In short, Jesus is telling us: “Do something to appease the poor's hunger, their needs!”

I don't believe that in such a multitude of people following Jesus through a journey of nine miles, not one or two or even three brought food. It was the Paschal Feast, and the people were celebrating. But each one was holding on to his food. After all, if they were to bring out their provisions, others might want a part of it, or take it away. So there was food on that hill. The owners simply didn't want to share it except for a young child. He brought out his provisions – five loaves of bread and two fish. Jesus took the bread and fish, he offered thanks for them, broke these into small pieces and shared the food with everyone there. And that was what the other people did – they took out their food, gave thanks, broke it into portions, and shared the food they brought. The people opened their hearts, their hands – and they experienced a miracle! The miracle wasn't in the multiplication of the bread, but in the multiplication of people who had opened their hearts.

We easily forget that even if we are not rich, like the boy, we also have our “five loaves and two fish.” Thus we too can help others in need with the little we have. If we are financially unstable we may still be able to help someone by sharing our time and talent with them. Or we utter a kind word or do a good deed to them, lend a listening ear to their problems, offer them sincere advice, or give them the assurance of our prayers. Indeed, no one is really so poor as to have nothing to give. If all of us do share in our own little ways, then we are really multiplying the bread of kindness in this uncaring world.

WORDS OF GRATITUDE! I want to thank you all from the bottom of my heart. My birthday can never be the ‘best’ without your wishes. It would be incomplete without your prayers and blessings. Blessed to have you as my parishioners and friends in my life. Lots of love to you all. – Fr. Marlon

OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Saint Francis of Assisi Parish is a Eucharistically-centered faith community whose life is formed by our baptismal commitment to Christ; is nourished by Scripture, Church teachings and the Sacraments; and is supported by membership in the worldwide church around us. It is a community made up of the former faith communities of All Saints, Holy Rosary, Madonna, Saint Mary, Saint Procopius and Saint Thomas. There is a long and rich history here where all are welcome, trust is present, risks for the kingdom of God are taken and the gifts of everyone are called forth. Under the patronage of Saint Francis of Assisi, we strive to be an instrument of peace and all that God calls us to be.

ONE LORD, ONE FAITH

Do you suppose the authors of the four Gospels were aware of today's first reading from the second book of Kings? Of course they were. The prophet Elisha fed a hundred men with twenty barley loaves in order to prove God's power. This same miracle, now multiplied by more people fed by fewer loaves, is attributed to Jesus in all four Gospels. In today's passage from John we even have the detail that the loaves were barley, reminding every pious Jew of that miracle that Elisha worked. Yet Jesus went into hiding when they wanted to make him king. It is the passage from Paul's Letter to the Ephesians that gives us the reason for this.

The power of Jesus comes from God. It is not meant merely to feed us or to provide one group with a king. There is one Lord, one faith, one God and Father of all who works through Jesus Christ and through us all.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God shows up in unexpected ways! Just when we think we have God's agenda figured out, another surprise comes. Expecting to find God only in some places hinders us from finding Him everywhere. Who would have thought that a young boy's few loaves and fishes would feed thousands of people? The disciples were probably just as amazed as everyone else when this feast appeared before them. Sometimes we find it difficult to believe that God can do amazing things with something small and simple. Yet, grasping this truth is really at the heart of understanding the power of the Eucharist. Having the Body and Blood of Christ made present for us is one amazing wonder. Actually being fed and nourished by that gift is another. Now being able to become what we have eaten, God can do tremendous things with the simple, humble gifts of our lives. All we have to do is realize that God dwells within us. When we do, then everyone we encounter and everything we do has the power to become a sacramental moment. When done with great love, even the smallest gesture can be multiplied exponentially. Now, that's amazing!

PRACTICE OF CHARITY

Many cities and towns offer a food pantry, sometimes with a place where free hot meals are served. Volunteering to help at a community soup kitchen can be a humbling learning experience for people who have never worried about their next meal. Working at these centers of hope can also help us become more aware of the challenges of the working poor and to apply the principles of Catholic Social Teaching and justice. This week, set aside time to examine ways in which you live out humility and gentleness. How can you grow in those virtues?

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

Welcome back to in-person Faith Formation! Enrollment is currently available for the 2021-2022 Faith Formation Classes which begin Sunday, September 12, 10:30 to 11:45 am, in Footedale.

Classes begin with pre-school and go through 7th grade (Confirmation Preparation Class). By enrolling each one of your children early, we will have a better idea of how many textbooks and supplies will be needed.

Enrollment packets are available at the entrances of both sites. You can mail or drop off the enrollment forms at the Parish Office or place them in the collection basket in an envelope marked "Enrollment."

The more children pre-enrolled will save us time on the first day of class. Please contact Kim Stavish, Faith Formation Coordinator, with questions or concerns: kimm70ee@yahoo.com or 724-366-8901.

Thursday is the Feast of Saint Martha, remembered as the bustling woman chided by Christ for "being busy with many things," while her more contemplative sister "took the better part;" however, the Gospel accounts also recorded Martha's remarkable profession of faith in Jesus as "the Christ, the Son of God," placing her in the company of Peter as the only follower of Jesus to recognize His divinity before His resurrection.

Friday is the Feast of Saint Peter Chrysologus, a fourth century bishop whose preaching earned him the name, the golden-worded. His homilies explained doctrines like the Trinity eloquently, clearly and concisely.

Saturday is the Feast of Saint Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits religious order. His Spiritual Exercises have become a model of Christian discernment and discipline.

Pope Francis has established throughout the church the celebration of World Day for Grandparents and Elderly beginning in 2021 on the fourth Sunday of July near the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus.

“How important grandparents are for family life, for passing on the human religious heritage which is so essential for each and every society! How important it is to have intergenerational exchanges and dialogues, especially within the context of the family.”

- Pope Francis

Ministry of Cantor 🎵

We will be expanding our parish Cantor program to all five Masses at both worship sites. The role of Cantor is to lead and facilitate the sung prayer of the assembly.

In addition, the Cantor acts as the Psalmist in proclaiming God's Word in the Responsorial Psalm.

We have arranged for professional Cantor/Psalmist training to be conducted for all current and new cantors for both locations Wednesday, August 18, 6:30 to 8:30 pm at the Footedale Worship Site.

Our clinician will be Mr. Daniel F. Kovacic, MM Director of Music Ministry, Resurrection Parish, Bethel Park. Daniel holds a Bachelor Degree in Vocal Performance from Seton Hill University as well as a Masters Degree in Choral Conducting from West Virginia University. He will guide us through important training in technique and procedures.

Cantors must be parishioners age 16 and above with a pleasant singing voice and the ability to engage and lead the congregation in sung prayer.

Interested persons are kindly asked to contact Carletta Fronczek (cfronczek@dioceseofgreensburg.org) or Eric Blanda (eblanda@dioceseofgreensburg.org) so that sufficient handouts can be prepared.

Only those attending the training will be eligible to serve in the ministry of Cantor.

The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days begins on Sunday, August 15, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

This obligation, as is always the case, does not apply to those who are seriously ill, have a serious health risk, as well as those who have serious anxiety of being a part of large groups at this time. Likewise, the obligation does not apply to those who care for those who cannot attend Mass in person.

Faith requires that we trust in the Lord, even when logic and reason seem to dictate otherwise.

In today's first reading, Elisha ignores the logic of his servant who complains that twenty barley loaves will never be enough to feed one hundred men, but his trust in the Lord is rewarded - there is not only enough but some left over "as the Lord said." Saint Paul also pleads for our trust to "live in a manner worthy of the call you have received." This is all the more powerful because Paul is writing while imprisoned, yet trusting that the Lord will be his salvation. Jesus shows His trust in God by blessing the five loaves and two fishes and then feeding the multitude much to the astonishment of logical Philip. May these examples of trust inspire us to continue to live our lives worthy of the call we have received.

Prayer of the Week - 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, protector of those who hope in You, without whom nothing has firm foundation, nothing is holy; bestow, in abundance, Your mercy upon us and grant that, with You as our ruler and guide, we may use the good things that pass in such a way as to hold fast even now to those that ever endure. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.
