After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove.

This Sunday, we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. It is the end of the Christmas season, and 'ordinary' time begins. With his baptism, our Lord begins his public ministry of calling all to conversion and repentance and announcing that the Kingdom of God is at hand. His begins his vocation, his way of life that will lead to the cross.

St. Hippolytus from the 3rd century wrote beautifully of the Lord's baptism: "That Jesus should come and be baptized by John is surely cause for amazement. To think of the infinite river that gladdens the city of God being bathed in a poor little stream of the eternal; the unfathomable fountainhead that gives life to all men being immersed in the shallow waters of this transient world! He who fills all creation, leaving no place devoid of his presence, he who is incomprehensible to the angels and hidden from the sight of man, came to be baptized because it was his will. And behold, the heavens opened and a voice said: "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased."

The date of our baptism is a great day for every baptized person. Hopefully, we know when we were baptized. It is reason to celebrate a very important date in your life, a day that we became a son or daughter of God, a brother or sister of Jesus Christ, with the promise of eternal life given to us. May we grow each day as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Today, we celebrate that our Lord modeled for us the sacrament of baptism, by allowing himself to be baptized by John the Baptist. Christ is baptized, not to be made holy by the water, but to make water holy, and by his cleansing to purify the waters which he touched. Christ is the first to be baptized so that Christians will follow after him with confidence.

This being the end of the Christmas seasons, I want to thank all who took their time and effort to set up Christmas decorations and water the flowers. Each sanctuary looked heavenly. We invite parishioners to take flowers home after the last Mass this Sunday. Any that are left will be cared for and remain in the sanctuary until February 2nd. Thanks to all who will help put all our Christmas decorations in storage.

God bless you,
Fr. Michael Cordier

You may know that Pope Francis has called for a synod, in October 2023. The Holy Father wants to hear the Holy Spirit led input from all the baptized as we journey together as Church. All the dioceses throughout the world are to convene “consultative” meetings in which all will have the opportunity to offer input. The various parishes in the Saint Andrew Deanery, of which we are a part, will meet on Thursday, January 13 th , at Good Shepherd Parish from 7:00-9:00pm.

Please consider attending. Registration is required. Go to the Archdiocesan website to register.

Thank you.
