A Reflection on the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

As I write this people are making their final preparations to travel to Washington, DC, for the annual March for Life. A number of our sister and brother parishioners will be joining the thousands who will gather at our nation's capital, while many others (due to the Covid pandemic) will be travelling on their own to the Second Annual Bridgeville March for Life and associated prayer services. A great many others who could not attend the marches began a Pro-Life Novena last Wednesday.

Many people and a number of news outlets are predicting that this might be the last year for pro-life marches and the like as they expect Roe vs. Wade to be overturned in the coming year. While that may or may not happen this year I believe our prayers are effective and we are slowly working toward having the laws in our great nation protecting life at all stages. One of the biggest steps forward when it comes to the unborn is that "following the science" has become a common phrase and people are finally realizing that science really does align with what the Catholic Church has taught from the beginning.

Having said all that, no matter when protecting the unborn from being killed in the womb becomes a reality, all of us must be prepared to follow it up quickly by supporting laws and programs that promote the family, take care of children, and look after the health of mothers-to-be. This will be one of the foundation walls of people to not even consider abortion as an option.

But the biggest and most difficult challenge when Roe vs. Wade is finally overturned will be changing our own attitudes and responses toward pregnancies that don't fit our personal "standards." That's not to say that we shouldn't continue to teach chastity and monogamy - that is a must. But when that doesn't happen and a pregnancy is the result, a response that is loving and forgiving, combined with the laws and programs mentioned above will go a long way toward protecting the new life we've all been praying for.

You can find more information about the 9 Days for Life Novena at www.usccb.org/resources/9-days-life-novena.

FIRST READING: NEH 8:2-4A, 5-6, 8-10

Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, which consisted of men, women, and those children old enough to understand. Standing at one end of the open place that was before the Water Gate, he read out of the book from daybreak till midday, in the presence of the men, the women, and those children old enough to understand; and all the people listened attentively to the book of the law. Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the occasion. He opened the scroll so that all the people might see it — for he was standing higher up than any of the people — and, as he opened it, all the people rose. Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people, their hands raised high, answered, “Amen, amen!” Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves before the LORD, their faces to the ground.

Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so that all could understand what was read. Then Nehemiah, that is, His Excellency, and Ezra the priest-scribe and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people: “Today is holy to the LORD your God. Do not be sad, and do not weep”— for all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law. He said further: “Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared; for today is holy to our LORD. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!”

The law of the LORD is perfect;
it revives the soul.

The decrees of the LORD are steadfast;
they give wisdom to the simple. R.

The precepts of the LORD are right;
they gladden the heart.

The command of the LORD is clear;
it gives light to the eyes. R.

The fear of the LORD is pure, abiding forever.

The judgments of the LORD are true;
they are, all of them, just. R.

May the spoken words of my mouth,
the thoughts of my heart,

win favor in your sight, O LORD,
my rock and my redeemer! R.

SECOND READING — 1 CORINTHIAN 12:12-30

Brothers and sisters: As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. Now the body is not a single part, but many. If a foot should say, "Because I am not a hand I do not belong to the body," it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. Or if an ear should say, "Because I am not an eye I do not belong to the body," it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended.

If they were all one part, where would the body be? But as it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I do not need you," nor again the head to the feet, "I do not need you. Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary, and those parts of the body that we consider less honorable we surround with greater honor, and our less presentable parts are treated with greater propriety, whereas our more presentable parts do not need this. But God has so constructed the body as to give greater honor to a part that is without it, so that there may be no division in the body, but that the parts may have the same concern for one another. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy.

Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it. Some people God has designated in the church to be, first, apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then, mighty deeds; then gifts of healing, assistance, administration, and varieties of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work mighty deeds? Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Verse: The Lord sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, and to proclaim liberty to captives.

GOSPEL — LUKE 1:1-4; 4:14-21

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received.

Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all. He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written:

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.”

Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.”

RCIA Ministry

RCIA is currently underway. The the focus for January is the sacramental life of the church. This month the parish will also celebrate the Rite of Welcoming for RCIA Candidates (baptized) and the Rite of Acceptance for RCIA Catechumens (unbaptized). These rites are important steps in welcoming those in RCIA into the life of the parish. We will also resume gathering at the 10:00 AM Mass at Holy Trinity, where these rites will take place.

Please pray for those in RCIA and our adult Confirmation Candidates, and if you are interested in becoming Catholic, please contact Patty Sampogna at psampogna@archangelgabrielparish.org for more information.

The Sanctuary Course

An estimated one in five adults in the U.S. experience mental health issues, and the pandemic has exacerbated the situation. In these times of heightened anxiety, those struggling with mental health need understanding and support more than ever.

Sanctuary is a nine-part course that explores the realities of mental health with the goal of filling the vital need for faith-based conversations about these topics. The sessions are accompanied by compelling films that feature Catholics living with mental health challenges.

Father Al Morris and Mary Stevens will facilitate a session of the Sanctuary Course at Archangel Gabriel Parish via Zoom on Thursday nights, beginning February 17, from 7:00 - 8:30 PM.

Whether you are personally experiencing mental health issues, know or care for someone who does, or simply want to grow in your own knowledge of mental health issues, this course has something for you.

If you'd like to register for the next AGP Offering of Sanctuary or learn more about the program, please fill out the interest form at ArchangelGabrielParish.org/sanctuary.

MENTAL HEALTH BY THE NUMBERS YOU ARE NOT ALONE

Millions of people across the U.S. are impacted by mental illness.

1 in 5 U.S. adults experience mental illness.

17% of youth (6-17 years) experience a mental health disorder.

At least 8.4 million Americans provide care to an adult with an emotional or mental illness.
