As we embark upon our Lenten season during a pandemic, I am pleased that St. Aloysius parish is forging ahead with many activities to help us enrich this season as we prepare for the celebration of the Lord's Passion and Resurrection. Several of these opportunities are suitable for family participation and are great ways to begin annual traditions. All of these have been adapted to be safe for participants during the pandemic.

Eucharistic Adoration: For the Fridays of Lent, Adoration will be in the church so that more people can participate. The Eucharist will be exposed at the end of daily Mass and remain exposed until 7PM. On Monday, March 15, at 6:30, Mrs. Valerie French will be speaking about Adoration. For over 20 years, she has participated in making a weekly holy hour St. Paul's in Norwalk . She has also taught theology in St. Paul's High School.

Confession: Besides maintaining the regular confession schedule of M-F 8:00-8:30AM and Saturdays from 4:00-5:00PM, we will have visiting priests for a parish Reconcilation Service on March 4th at 7:00PM. The communal service is kept short so that participants can make their confession in a timely manner. Our Day of Grace with confessions on the top of every hour from 8:00AM to 8:00PM will be on Wednesday, March 31st. To help all of us prepare to make a good confession, Fr. Joseph Poggemeyer, Pastor of Fostoria St. Wendelin, will be speaking on Monday, March 1st at 6:30PM on 'How to make a good confession.'

Stations of the Cross will be celebrated every Friday of Lent at 7:00PM in the church.

30-Minute Prayer Crash Course will be held in the church every Thursday of Lent at 7:00PM. Michael Ginnetti will present on the history of traditional prayers and then lead us in praying them. Among the prayers are the Rosary, Chaplet of Mercy, Litanies, and many more.

Fasting and Abstinence: The Knights of Columbus will hold carryout only fish fries on three Fridays of Lent, Feb 19, Mar 5, and Mar 19. They will be serving from 4:30 to 7:00PM in Hartmann Hall.

SAY Cheese Pizza with Meet: Parish teens can take advantage of Lenten social activities while enjoying cheese pizza and friendship on three Fridays of Lent, Feb 26, Mar 12 and Mar 26 beginning at 7:30PM in the narthex following Stations of the Cross.

Almsgiving: Our St. Aloysius school and Religious Education students will once again be offering their alms to the Madzibembulu Well project in Zimbabwe. Already over $5000 has been raised for the project. To complete it with pumps and solar power, the total cost will be $13,000. If you would like to join our students, you may give to the project through WeShare online via our website www.stalbe.org or write 'Well Project' in the memo line of your check.

Hope to see you at these activities as you are comfortable. Consider an hour of Adoration before picking up fish dinners to take home or eat your fish dinner and then attend Stations of the Cross as a family. The Being Catholic presentations on Eucharistic Adoration and Making a Good Confession can also be viewed and discussed as a family via or Youtube channel following their live presentation dates.

Madzibembulu Village Well – Joint Lenten Project

For the past several years the children of our School and Religious Education programs have participated in a joint Lenten project. The project is always an authentic need that allows them to act purposefully while aligned with the three pillars of Lenten observance – prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Last year we asked the children of the parish to help drill the hole for a needed well in the village of Madzibembulu, Zimbabwe. The cost to drill the hole was estimated to cost $4200 and that became our first goal. As a parish, we exceeded that goal by approximately $1000, which was quite encouraging.

There remains a little over $8300 needed to fully construct a well for this community. We've set this year's goal at $4200 again and ask all parish families to pray for the village of Madzibembulu and the many like it around the world. Pray for generous giving toward our goal. Fast from extravagances during Lent. Use the money saved to give generously to the needy and to move closer in heart and spirit to Jesus. Give weekly, or collect throughout Lent and then give all at once. You may electronically via WeShare on the parish website, or send cash/check in a marked envelope to the parish office directly or through the collection box. Please make sure the envelope marked Lenten Well Project, or similar.

You can watch our progress on charts on the kiosk in the narthex.

Feed the 5000

Campaign to stock the food pantries and feed those in need.

With the arrival of Lent, it is the perfect time for prayer, fasting and almsgiving. That almsgiving can be in the form of donations to the St. Al's Food Pantry.

The Feed the 5000 Campaign is a regional effort by church communities to collect food pantry items and get them to the organizations that help people with food insecurity. Usually at the end of the campaign during Holy Week, all the donations are taken to a central location and divided among the food pantries. Because of COVID restrictions, the organizers are following different procedures this year. All the donations that St. Al's collects this Lent will go directly into our own food pantry.

Items that our pantry needs are as follows (although ALL donations are appreciated):

Soup
Canned pasta (SpaghettiOs, etc.)
Boxed macaroni and cheese
Canned tomato products
Rice
Pasta sauce

Donations can be placed in the "Feed the 5000" box in the narthex during Lent.

If you have questions about the pantry or are interested in volunteering, please call Jenny Swope at 419/806-4202.

Keep This Covenant Going

By Tom Konecny

The three-week lockdown last year was rough.

But imagine doing it today in the hot, dry desert for a full six weeks. You're among wild beasts. Being tempted by Satan. And you were brought there – not by your worst enemy – but by the Holy Spirit!

That's kind of like 2021 telling 2020, "Hold my beer."

Never fear. This First Sunday of Lent may seem like lightyears away from Easter, but we'll get through this. God told us so. Today's readings give us a plan.

The First Reading and Responsorial Psalm speak of a covenant which God made with us. A covenant is an agreement between two people who both make a promise to each other. It's different than a contract, which is legally binding and usually an exchange of something.

A covenant is also different from a promise. With a promise only one person provides assurance. For example, if someone promises they'll call you tonight, you remain passive and don't have to do a thing. When two people make a promise to each other (e.g., marriage) – that's special. That's a covenant.

So, notice in the First Reading whereby God establishes a covenant with Noah. God promised to never flood the Earth again. Noah and his people promised they would not kill anyone, nor drink the blood of animals. The rainbow, of course, is a sign of that covenant.

In the Psalm and Second Reading, we get some much-needed, present-day inspiration to keep our covenant with God:

Your ways are love and truth.

Guide me in your truth and teach me.

He shows sinners the way, He guides the humble to justice, He teaches the humble His way.

Christ suffered that He might lead us to God.

God knows we'll sin again, but if we put our trust in Christ we will be saved.

Knowing our covenant with God remains fully in effect, today's Gospel reminds us that Lent is our desert. We're summoned to retreat there and spend 40 days with Christ. He asks us to confront – head-on – our temptations and wild beasts. He calls us to repent and believe in the Gospel.

However, this 40-day lockdown is different. We're not alone and isolated, but we have to do our part – and Jesus will minister to us. Seems like a pretty good deal to me.

Then at the end of our journey, we'll celebrate Christ's victory over sin and death. What a celebration it will be.

And the only one holding a beer will be the devil – crying in it.
