Spiritual Reflection

“The Lord is my light and my salvation”, Isn’t He?

This psalm simply reaffirms that God should be the guide and the goal for our salvation, shouldn’t He? Nothing should block our vision or take us away from such clarity. Jesus’ ministry in today’s gospel is to proclaim that “the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen.” They are not abandoned or left out in God’s salvation. The light from God’s goodness and love should dispel the darkness of ignorance or misunderstanding. Our role, according to the reading of prophet Isaiah, is also to bring such great light to those living in shadow of misery or desperation. May we, the Faith Community of St. Maria Goretti and Our Lady of the Angels, be firmly inspired and guided by the direction from this psalm. All hardship, challenges or activities we have been facing should never blind us from the light of God’s salvation.

CATHOLICISM IN LAWRENCEVILLE
We extend a thank you to Jim Wudarczyk for sharing his knowledge last Sunday on the beginnings of Catholicism in Lawrenceville. Over 20 attended this presentation. In light of that interest Jim will be offering a second presentation on Sunday of Feb. 16th after the 9:30 a.m. Mass in the Lower Room of Our Lady of the Angels. The topic will be "Catholicism in the Golden Age of Lawrenceville, 1868-1940." During this period, both Saint Mary's and Saint Augustine witnessed phenomenal growth, which necessitated the need for larger churches. The area also saw the birth of four new Catholic parishes: Saint John the Baptist, Saint Kieran's, Saint Mary Assumption, and Holy Family. The talk will also address the evolution of the community from a struggling rural borough to a metropolitan area. There will also be a brief look at other Catholic organizations and institutions during this period. Mark your calendar and plan to come to this interesting historical presentation.

It’s Time To Listen

Kiana Booth — Saint Maria Goretti School, 8th Grade

I’m not sure if Dr. King gave his “I Have a Dream” speech to hear himself talk, or to start making people open up their eyes. Why would he even waste his time and energy on it? He quotes “Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about the things that matter most.”

Why is it that we don’t stick up for one another? We can’t fight the battle alone. Racism is so strong, but yet so unnecessary! “We may have all come from different ships, but we’re all in the same boat now.” Everyone being equal should not have to be determined by the color of our skin. If God wanted us all to be the same He would have done so.

The struggle continues day after day. When will people realize that African Americans, Mexicans, Indians, etc., are people too! They are not just going to vanish and go away. They’re going to be here forever, so everyone might as well get used to each other now. The problem is so relevant, but at the same time it’s irrelevant because being white or being black in the same place at the same time just doesn’t matter. We’re all equal, no matter what!

Racism is so evident, and powerful in some places. To some people it’s like a second language! People act like the color of your skin defeats your capabilities and purposes. You shouldn’t have to worry about being afraid to do your daily activities, or to live a normal life in public because of others. Why are people so scared? Are you scared because your skin is a different color than his, or that you don’t look the same as her?

Everyone is unique in their own ways for multiple reasons. Do you know how boring life would be if everyone was the same race, had the same hair, and spoke the same language? “Only in darkness can you see the stars.” It’s our time to shine. We need to bring color back to this world and get rid of all the darkness for good!
Find your new heart during Lent

The root of the word “convert” means to “change,” or “transform.” Think of turning from sin and evil toward grace, virtue, goodness, and God. It is the transformation of the human heart, by an act of God’s grace.

“A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit. I will put within you; and I will take out of your flesh the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh” (Ezekiel 36:26).

A new heart.
God desires our conversion more than we ever could. With the perfect heart of a Father, he pursues and draws us to himself. Conversion begins by offering him our whole heart so he can remake it as his own.

Break the heart of stone. There can be no healing or conversion when we harbor unconfessed sin. Make a full Confession to a priest in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Don’t worry if you have been away for a while. The priest will be happy to guide you and to welcome you back to God’s friendship.

A new spirit.
When we have a soft and tender heart of flesh, we are able to receive God’s holy will. Our new spirit requires renewal every day. Daily prayer, frequent Confession, and regular reception of the Holy Eucharist will keep our hearts filled with God’s love.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics call Fat Tuesday “Shrove” Tuesday?

Commonly known as Fat Tuesday or Mardi Gras, the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday has been traditionally spent feasting (especially on pancakes). It is also called “Shrove Tuesday,” recalling the tradition of going to Confession. The word “shrove” comes from “shrive” — the English word for confessing one’s sins and receiving absolution. In fact, there was a custom of churches ringing the “shriving bell” on this day. The goal was to start Lent with a clean soul and a repentant spirit.
Choose Heaven over Earth

Life on Earth lasts but a moment compared to our eternal life, yet we often let earthly concerns take priority over preparing for Heaven. If we put Heaven first, however, God will take care of everything else.

What is important to you? Make a list of what you do each day, from morning to bedtime. The activities that absorb most of your time are your real priorities. If it isn’t in God’s service, you need a change.

How do you make decisions? Do you look to friends or coworkers for advice? Or do you turn to prayer and Scripture for guidance? Resolve to take your eyes off the world and place them on Christ. If we base all choices and decisions on God, we will never choose wrong.

Do you trust God to make you happy? “For I know the plans I have in mind for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope” (Jeremiah 29:11).

from Scripture

Matthew 5:38-48, Forgive and pray

The ancient concept of justice - “an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth” - is from Exodus 21:24, Leviticus 24:20 and Deuteronomy 19:21, and was originally meant to limit violence and prevent blood feuds. Instead, Jesus introduced a new approach, one that would bring about a different kind of justice.

Jesus directed his followers and us to “be perfect,” which includes being merciful. God requires our treatment of others – enemies included – to mirror his treatment of his enemies. As Christians, we are to imitate Christ, who forgave his executioners from the Cross: “Father, forgive them, they know not what they do” (Luke 23:34).

Forgiveness doesn’t mean letting the person get away with their offense. Forgiveness means letting go of our anger at the offender and entrusting the situation to God’s care. We can’t do this alone: we rely on God’s grace. We get this from the Holy Spirit and also from receiving the Eucharist at Mass. By receiving the Eucharist, we are nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ, who strengthens us to lead a more perfect life.

Q & A

How can I fit more prayer into my busy day?

“Pray constantly” sounds challenging but it doesn’t have to be. Actually, busy days offer many great opportunities for prayer if we know where to look.

Consider these suggestions:

Pray throughout the day. Consider praying the Rosary on the way to work, saying grace before lunch, offering a quick “I love you,” or praying for guidance for important decisions. Even job-related tasks can become “prayers in action.”

Fifteen minutes a day. Good friends know text messages can’t replace being together. It’s the same with God. He loves us and wants our company. Aim for 10-15 minutes of daily prayer. Thank God for your blessings, meditate on Scripture, offer him your day, or simply enjoy his company.

It’s the love that counts. For her love and humility, Jesus commended a poor but generous widow for her small donation (Mark 12:43-44). Sometimes, we have little time or energy for “good prayer.” Remember, what pleases God is not the elegance or number of our prayers, but the love with which we offer them.

Feasts & Celebrations

Feb. 2 – Presentation of the Lord.
In accordance with the Law of Moses, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the Temple forty days after his birth, and Simeon praised God for revealing the long-awaited Savior.

Feb. 2 – St. Catherine of Ricci (1590).
St. Catherine was born to a prominent banker. Against her father’s wishes, she joined the Dominicans when she was twelve. She is known for her visions of the Lord’s Passion, which she experienced every Friday.

Feb. 17 – The Seven Holy Founders
(13th century). Seven Italian noblemen who withdrew from the immorality of the times to live in prayer, simplicity and penance. Their order, the Servants of Mary, was later approved by the Holy See in 1304.

Feb. 26 – Ash Wednesday. First day of Lent. Ashes from burnt palms are placed on the forehead as a sign of penance. Ash Wednesday is a day of abstinence from meat and fasting – one regular meal and two smaller meals that together don’t equal a full meal.
