PRAY FOR…
the Sick and Homebound of our parishes and those recently hospitalized.

AT HOME WITH THE LORD…
Ruth A. Marshall
May all the deceased rest in the peace of Christ and may God bring comfort to their families.
Trans-figure, Trans-form During Trans-ition.

The prefix “trans” means “across,” “beyond,” “through,” “carefully” or “thoroughly”. The mountain of Transfiguration becomes a high ground where Jesus was able to see through, beyond and across all situations of life. Looking back, Jesus was comforted by many nice things done for the people in Galilee: He had performed many miracles, healed the sick, restored life to the dead, fed the five thousand, and changed water into wine… Yet, looking ahead, Jesus was confronted with hardship, loneliness, misunderstanding, betrayal, abandonment and even the risking of his life in Jerusalem. He was frightened, wasn’t he? Thus, the mountain becomes the watershed in his public ministry between the happy past and the fearful future. It is on the holy mountain that Jesus was trans-figured in His physical appearance. His face became bright like the sun and His clothes became dazzling white. In addition, He was also trans-formed by the voice of God the Father from the cloud: “You are my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased, listen to Him!”

The Transfiguration of Jesus has been trans-formed! The transitional Jesus has been transcended both inside and outside, both physically and “chemically”. Nothing can hold Him back or keep Him down! By being affirmed by the irrevocable promise of the Father that “You are my beloved Son” Jesus became strong and gained courage to go down from the mountain, walk through the dark valley of Gethsemane, journey to Jerusalem and climb up the Mountain of Golgotha to die for our sins. As nothing can prevent God from loving sinners, so nothing can stop Jesus from carrying out God’s mission to save us!

God’s Love transcends, transfigures and transforms the transitional Jesus!

Can we, the parish grouping in transition, stand with Jesus on the mountain, not only to see through, across and beyond current situations, but also to be empowered and guided by the abiding presence of God in our parish life and activities? Without standing up tall on the high mountain, our views can easily be limited or short-sighted! Our sacrifice can even become bitter or negative! We may feel frustrated, abandoned, misunderstood or even betrayed. The road to unity in our parish can be rough and the future can be tough. Yet as Jesus became stronger and more courageous by experiencing God’s abiding love, so may each of us be uplifted by hearing clearly in our own ears that God loves us, His sons and daughters.
