Partner Parish of St. John the Baptist and St. Joseph Mission Statement

The Living Faith Community of Saint John the Baptist, Scottdale, PA and Saint Joseph, Everson, PA are bridged by our common Baptism, while maintaining our respective ethnic heritages. We are called by Jesus Christ to be a nurturing community through worship and service.

We are committed to preserve our Catholic Beliefs centered on the Eucharist as we become better disciples while continuing to develop strong lay leadership.

Guided by the Holy Spirit, we share a vision for the future. We will become a vibrant Partner Parish where all feel loved and welcome.

We are Saved to Serve

Today we live in a time when we have the most sophisticated and most advanced instruments of health care, more than at any other time in the history of our country. Ironically though, we also have a crisis in the delivery of and accessibility to health care. There must be something wrong. But this is not the point of today's reflection.

Healing the sick and the possessed is a central part of Jesus' earthly ministry. His gift of physical and spiritual healing restores human beings to full participation in their communities. And indeed, it is a foundational image of the work we share as his followers. Not surprisingly, people think that Jesus had power even as he becomes popular. Many people follow him wherever he goes.

But this story is not about power and popularity. It is about service. It is about seeing what needs to be done and doing it. Notice that this miracle happens inside Peter's home. There is no one there to see it, no one there to impress. It occurs even privately because there is a human need that Jesus sees and responds to.

Miracles are not just the great demonstrations of divine power performed to stir up crowds of the curious. Miracles are the moments when one human being sees the need of another and quietly responds to that need with the gifts that he/ she has. Supernatural miracles do not entirely prove the divinity or the power of Christ nearly as much as it points to what can happen when one person does what one can to ease the suffering of another human being. Such is miraculous, and it is a sure sign of the coming of the Kingdom of God.

But then again, today's Gospel is not in any way here to amaze us, impress us, or excite us. Rather, it reveals and teaches us a message of service, sacrifice, forgiveness, and love.

Jesus takes us by the hand and lifts us, but that's not the end of the story. It continues: "The fever left her, and she began to serve them." So it is also with us. When Jesus heals us and lifts us from our downfall in life, we are then pressed into service.

We may not know her name, but the mother of Simon's wife is a model for our own servant ministry. Touched and healed by Jesus, she becomes minister of healing herself. She gets up from her bed and presumably begins to feed people, as any good Jewish housewife of the day would do for her son-in-law and his honored guests.

Indeed, Jesus does not call us, nor do we answer, merely to stand still. Jesus does not call us, nor do we respond, so that we could stay the same. The call of Jesus is a call to serve. Indeed, he himself once said that he came not to be served but to serve.

When Jesus lifts us up from low places, he always also sets us free to serve those around us. This is the true purpose of healing that Jesus offers then and now: that you and I, and all persons would find a place to serve freely and with gratitude, restored to the community, and focused upon a world larger than self alone.

As one friend puts it, we are saved to serve. We are made whole in Christ to be agents of healing in the name of Christ, proclaiming good news by the way we live with others and for others.

With this, we can continue to serve and do the work of love. No matter what the cost. No matter how tired or afraid we may become. No matter what dangers or doubts may stand in our way. The love of Christ urges us onward.

Preschool is currently looking for substitute teachers to be available in the event of personal or sick days, as needed. This is ideal for someone looking to make a little extra money or to just be out of the house. Must have current State & Diocesan clearances. Please contact Chris Whoric for more information.

This year, World Marriage Week is celebrated Sunday, February 7th and is concluded on World Marriage Day, Sunday, February 14th. The theme that the USCCB has announced this year is “To Have, To Hold, To Honor”

Our Parish would like to honor all who have received this beautiful Sacrament within our faith, in the same fashion we have started to embrace over the last year, we would like to collect copies of your wedding day pictures to put together to create a video blessing for you. With these pictures of your wedding day, we will be able to celebrate and honor your commitment to your spouse and God.

Be sure to include with the pictures your names and date of marriage with the picture and if you'd like to add a special memory or words of advice for other married couple, we'll gladly include that! We look forward to seeing all of your beautiful celebrations and honoring your sacrifice and love. Please send your pictures to Caroline, by February 8th, cnhernandez@dioceseofgreensburg.org or by text to 724-689-2885 and if you are not able to do it that way, you can call the office and we can make arrangements to get a copy.

Caleb, Waylon & Jason as they continue on their journey thru RCIA

Our Lenten Charity Outreach Project will be announced soon! If you would like to assist our program, please contact Jill for more information,

We are beyond blessed to announce that Mama Mary will be with our Parish for another year! If you are interested in hosting her in your house, please contact Kristin & Johnathan Gamon at 724-542-4449 or gamon@zoominternet.net or register using the following:

Every Tuesday, following Morning Mass, at St. Joseph, until 10am. Every First Friday at 6pm at St. John the Baptist.

DLA 2021 is fast approaching, join us as we “Be the Light” this year to many who are without.

Would you like to learn the process of reading, reflecting, responding, and resting in a piece of Scripture? Do you want to better engage God in a conversation and listen to His words to you? Join us every Thursday during Lent from 6:30 to 7:30 in St. John's Church. We will look at verses of Scripture, dive into it, soak in each work, and listen to what God wants us to hear.

We are always in need of volunteers within our Parish!

Please prayerfully consider volunteering your time & talent to help our Parish to become vibrant & ever growing. With our upcoming Fish Fries & various other events, we are always in need of Volunteers, in all of our Ministries. If you are interested, please contact Chris Whoric on how you can get started!

We wanted to give you an update on the boiler at St Joseph. We still need some help as we have not received the grant from Fayette County or Columbia Gas. Unfortunately because the system was so old we had to spend an additional $5600 to replace the traps. The total cost of the project was $44,050 and we received donations of $22,970 so at this point we are short by $21,080. We want to thank all that have helped with this cause to date and thank any of you that are willing to help with our additional need.

FISH FRY Is back!! Starting February 17th & then every Friday during Lent from February 19th thru March 26th, 11am to 6pm at St. John Social Hall!

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

First Reading:

Job spoke, saying:

Is not man's life on earth a drudgery?

Are not his days those of hirelings?

He is a slave who longs for the shade,
a hireling who waits for his wages.

So I have been assigned months of misery,
and troubled nights have been allotted to me.

If in bed I say, "When shall I arise?"

then the night drags on;

I am filled with restlessness until the dawn.

My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle;
they come to an end without hope.

Remember that my life is like the wind;

I shall not see happiness again.

Responsorial Psalm:

R. (cf. 3a) Praise the Lord, who heals the broken-hearted.

Second Reading:

Brothers and sisters:

If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast,
for an obligation has been imposed on me,
and woe to me if I do not preach it!

If I do so willingly, I have a recompense,
but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship.

What then is my recompense?

That, when I preach,

I offer the gospel free of charge

so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.

Although I am free in regard to all,

I have made myself a slave to all

so as to win over as many as possible.

To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak.

I have become all things to all, to save at least some.

All this I do for the sake of the gospel,

so that I too may have a share in it.

Gospel:

On leaving the synagogue
Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John.

Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever.

They immediately told him about her.

He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up.

Then the fever left her and she waited on them.

When it was evening, after sunset,

they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons.

The whole town was gathered at the door.

He cured many who were sick with various diseases,
and he drove out many demons,

not permitting them to speak because they knew him.

Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed.

Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you."

He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also.

For this purpose have I come."

So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

Nicene Creed:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Prayer of the Faithful:

R — Lord, hear our prayer

Ash Wednesday

The distribution of ashes will take place in a different fashion this year. Therefore a number of practical matters must be considered:
 Sprinkling with ashes is messy. These ashes will not remain on your head. They will fall onto your face, onto clothing, onto the pews and floor.
 When receiving this ritual sprinkling you may wish to close your eyes. These fine particles, unfortunately, will serve as an irritant.
 No extraordinary care is required when cleaning ashes from clothing, seating surfaces, etc. As a sacramental, these ashes remind us that everything God has fashioned is holy. However, they need not be treated with the same respect that we afford sacraments.

Please remember that the reception of ashes on Ash Wednesday is not required. Whether participating in this ritual or not, all the faithful are urged to undertake penitential practices during these Lenten days. Together with the whole Church throughout the world we journey with the one who will turn our sorrow to joy.

Ash Wednesday Services:
February 17th
Noon at St. John the Baptist
7pm at St. Joseph

Women's Group to start Monday, February 15th at 7pm at St. John Social Hall. ROOTED is a year-long study on seven topics of the Catechism of the Catholic Church by seven different authors.
