ATTENTION PARISHIONERS

Church Offices are open to visitors. We will again limit our visitors to one at a time and ask that you wear a mask. We appreciate your patience and cooperation during these unprecedented times. We encourage you to use email or telephone, whenever possible. And as always, visit our website often for changes and updates. Thank you.

Whether you are a parishioner with us or visiting for the first time, we are so glad you are here. If you are interested in becoming a registered parishioner or wish to participate in online giving, call the church office or visit us online at:

READINGS & REFLECTIONS

FIRST READING:
All from least to greatest, shall know me, says the LORD, for I will forgive their evildoing and remember their sin no more. (Jer 31:34)

PSALM:
Create a clean heart in me, O God. (Ps 51)

SECOND READING:
Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered; (Heb 5:8)

GOSPEL:
Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but it dies, it produces much fruit. (Jn 20:24)

FROM THE PASTOR :
These last two weeks of Lent are a period of final preparation for the Paschal Mystery called Passiontide. We see the stark reminder of the lack of celebration and solemnity with the covered statues and subdued music. This is a time of interior reflection on the coming betrayal and passion of our Savior. We are reminded of the the devastating effect of sin in its separation from the holiness of God and the loss of heaven. Our sins change history and increase darkness. Christ comes to take that burden on Himself so that the roots of sin may no longer penetrate the hearts of believers. May this time be full of grace so as to firmly reject sin and profess faith in the Victorious One.
