Weekly Message

Live the Liturgy Inspiration for the Week

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God, and they realized what they were missing.

Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught.

Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit.

We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means beloved of God, a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

Diocese of Richmond Responds to Social Media Comments Concerning Father Patrick Kofi Boadu

Shortly before Christmas, the Diocese of Richmond became aware of comments posted on the Facebook page of Saint Michael the Archangel parish, Glen Allen, concerning Father Patrick Kofi Boadu. The recent comments posted on the Saint Michael Facebook page alleged inappropriate behavior that occurred in his home archdiocese. Likewise, the posts appear to have originated from Ghana.

Father Boadu is a priest in good standing from the Archdiocese of Kumasi in Ghana. He is currently serving in the Diocese of Richmond through an agreement between Bishop Knestout and Archbishop Gabriel J. Anokye of Kumasi. Following his arrival on Nov. 23, 2021, Father Boadu was assigned as parochial vicar of Saint Michael's.

Once notified of the posted comments, the Diocese of Richmond began an immediate inquiry.

Based on the information the diocese has received, and in cooperation with the leadership of the Archdiocese of Kumasi, the diocese learned that Father Boadu is the victim of false information posted on the internet about him. This is currently being investigated by Ghanaian authorities. The diocese has been notified that some, but not all, perpetrators have been arrested. The allegations made against him have been deemed untrue.

As an international priest working in the Diocese of Richmond, Father Boadu underwent an international background screening which included a criminal background check. Consistent with diocesan policy, he also completed a VIRTUS safe-environment training and complied with all screening required by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) to obtain the appropriate visa required for a religious worker in the U.S.

Bishop Barry C. Knestout has received confirmation that Father Boadu remains in good standing and has the full confidence of his archbishop. However, Bishop Knestout has determined, in the best interest of Father Boadu and due to the matter remaining an open investigation by Ghanaian authorities, Father Boadu should return to the archdiocese so the matter can be addressed locally and as needed.

We appreciate the work of Father Boadu during his time in the diocese.

Benefit Dinner

Saint Francis Home

Thursday | January 27

For 45 years, an annual Benefit Dinner was held to raise funds to support the care of elderly residents of the Little Sisters of the Poor. Since the Little Sister's departure from Richmond, Saint Francis Home is the only remaining faith-based assisted living community in the area that is dedicated to exclusively serving older adults of limited means. As a result, past members of this annual event encouraged Saint Francis Home to continue this longstanding tradition. Saint Francis Home will be hosting a benefit dinner on January 27 to raise funds that provide support for Richmond's low-income elderly.
