Jesús dijo a los discípulos: “Amad a vuestros enemigos, haced el bien a los que os maldicen y orad por los que os difaman. Haced el bien y prestad sin esperar nada a cambio. Así seréis hijos del Altísimo.”

Lucas. 6:28

Jesus said to his disciples “Love your enemy. Do good to those that hate you. Bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. Do good and lend expecting nothing back and you will be children of the Most High.”

Luke. 6:28

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Sometimes, Jesus' teachings don't seem to make practical sense. When we hear things like love your enemies and do good to them, turn the other cheek when struck, give to anyone who asks, do to others as you would have them do to you, be merciful, stop judging, forgive, and give to others, we get a bit unsettled. After all, it's okay for God to do all of these things, but does He really want us to do them, too? Many good-hearted Christians really draw the line with some of these ideals and say, "No way!" They even remark that if someone did something hurtful to someone they loved, they would have no reservations seeking severe retribution. There is still this persistent thinking, even among those who consider themselves Christian, that a violent action deserves a violent response. Somehow, we continue to justify this.

Yet, it is most clearly against the very grain of the Gospel. Part of our difficulty has more to do with understanding God's love. We wrongly think that sinful or hurtful actions and evil people somehow are seen as lesser in God's eyes. They are not. God loves the sinner as much as He does the saint. And, both of these inclinations exist in every human being, even those who consider themselves holy. Both the capacity for good and the disposition toward evil exist in every one of us. Viktor Frankl has this to say when reflecting on the Holocaust: "Our generation is a realistic generation because we have learned what a human being really is. When all is said and done, man is that same creature who invented the gas-chambers of Auschwitz; but he is also that being who walked upright into those chambers with the prayer 'Shema Yisrael' on his lips."

If we believe in God, we have to act like God. Whether we like that idea is another issue. If we don't then perhaps, we need to reconsider our faith and whether we really believe in Jesus Christ. We are made in the image of God, not the image of ourselves. The Christian must, at all costs, leave resentment and the need for retaliation behind, lose defensiveness and bring into the mind and heart the realization of who we represent in this world.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA

Después de resumir las cuatro bienaventuranzas del domingo pasado, san Lucas nos ayuda a profundizar en la doctrina de Jesús y en sus palabras. Alerta con frases sabias a todos los cristianos, que de alguna manera se acercan al Evangelio: "Yo les digo a ustedes que me escuchan" (Lucas 6,27). Se trata de una colección de principios que versan así: "Amen a sus enemigos, hagan el bien a los que los odian, bendigan a los que los maldicen, y rueguen por los que los maltratan" (Lucas 6, 27-28). Cada uno de estos principios o reglas invitan a una seria reflexión. Deben penetrar en el corazón y en la mente para que produzcan mucho fruto.

Además, se nos dan pautas para caminar el camino de Jesús. Realidades increíbles que dice el Maestro, muchas veces imposibles de llevar a cabo. Poner la otra mejilla al ser golpeados, al que arrebató el manto darle también el vestido, dar al que pide, y al que te quita no reclamarle. ¿Cómo se hace esto? Son ejemplos concretos de conducta cristiana que no fallan al ponerlos en práctica. Jesús nos enseña que lo que importa es la persona y que debemos dejar a un lado los prejuicios y diferencias sociales. Si mi prójimo me necesita, ahí debo estar sin fijarme en la raza o el color. Por esa razón existe la regla de oro: "Traten a los demás como quieren que ellos les traten a ustedes" (Lucas 6,31).

Our children's future is our responsibility. Creating an endowment in your will for Catholic education is a great way to pass on your Catholic Faith and create a long-lasting legacy. To learn how you can start an endowment fund toward Catholic education, contact the Office of Planned Giving today. (305) 762-1112.

“But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back...” (LUKE 6:35)

If we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily frustrations that we experience, the unkind words or hateful glance we receive. Instead of retaliation, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Praying for our enemies doesn't change them, it changes us. Mercy and compassion will keep us on the path to holiness.

El futuro de nuestros hijos es nuestra responsabilidad. Crear una dotación en su testamento para la educación católica es una excelente manera de transmitir su fe católica y crear un legado duradero. Para saber cómo puede iniciar un fondo de dotación para la educación católica, comuníquese hoy con la Oficina de Donaciones Planificadas. (305) 762-1112.

“Ustedes, en cambio, amen a sus enemigos, hagan el bien y presten sin esperar recompensa.” (LUCAS 6:35)

Si vamos a imitar a Cristo, la mayoría de nosotros necesitamos practicar la misericordia y la compasión con más frecuencia. Comience con las pequeñas frustraciones diarias que experimentamos, las palabras desagradables o la mirada de odio que recibimos. En lugar de revanchas, trate de decir una oración rápida por esa persona. Orar por nuestros enemigos no los va a cambiar, nos cambia a nosotros. La misericordia y la compasión nos mantendrán en el camino hacia la santidad.
