FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

We had yet another Infant Baptism last Sunday!
That's 6 already this year ...
and many more coming
in the months ahead.
We are witnessing before our eyes
... the abundant love of God!

Moved to comment on the beauty of the baby Sunday
I said to the mother, "Oh, you did a good job!"

And some of the family members knew exactly where that line came from ... the movie Rocky II ...
as Rocky and Adrian are together in the hospital room
getting to see their newborn baby for the first time.

Well, Rocky is beside himself in amazement
and as he gazes upon his tiny son, he exclaims,
"Oh, Adrian, you've done so good!"
I can't believe what a good job you've done!

She replies, "We did it."
But Rocky comes right back declaring:
"Oh no, Adrian, you done all the work!"

Yes, I know that God is really the one who creates and we humans simply work with Him in the act of pro-creation.

And I know the father has an integral part in this process.
But it's the mother who plays a most special role ...
carrying & nourishing the child in her body for 9 months.

So all of us should be happy to affirm our Mom with the words, "I can't believe what a good job you've done!"

Yes, from the moment of conception in the womb
and especially during our formative years as children,
our Mom has molded us ... not just physically,
but mentally, emotionally and spiritually too!

Today is Mother's Day, the day marked out to pause and acknowledge in a special way
the goodness of all Mothers, living and dead.

There's no one this side of Heaven
who will love us more than our Mother.
She's the best friend we'll ever have on earth.

Mothers demonstrate what it means to love
by giving of themselves to their children.

Moms will go without things
to insure their kids have what they need.
Moms would rather be sick themselves
than to see their children sick or hurting.

Moms are the ones who handed on so much of what we know and believe.

They teach us how to live in this life, and they teach us how to prepare ourselves for Eternal Life.

Let's give thanks to God, today and everyday ...
for ... the gift of our Mother.

Never cease to pray for them
and to tell them how much you appreciate them and love them.

And during this month of May,
continue to thank and honor Blessed Mother Mary
whom Jesus gave as Mother to us all.

By living under her powerful protection and motherly care,
we will have no problem staying united with her Son.

Thanks be to God for our Mothers, and for the witness they are to the abundant love of God!

Happy Mother's Day! Love, Father Deering
