After the Lord was baptized, the heavens were opened,
and the Spirit descended upon him like a dove,
and the voice of the Father thundered:
This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.

Campus Safety

Please do not leave your purse or any valuables visible on the seats or floor of your car. Place all of your valuables in the trunk of your vehicle in order to avoid anyone who might be tempted to something the Lord would not want them to do. It is recommended that you do not give cash to anyone soliciting money. This only encourages repeat behavior and is somewhat fearful to those in the Adoration Chapel and the elderly. If you want to support the needy, then give to the St. Vincent de Paul Society where your generosity will surely help the poor, hungry, and cold.

MAGNIFYING THE FAITHFUL

MS. GWEN GILLIS

Lighting candles as a form of prayer is an age-old tradition among Catholics and a popular practice at Our Lady of Mercy. EVERY SINGLE DAY, a team member from our Candle Ministry loads a cart with new candles and walks the perimeter of our church replacing old candles with new ones. They clean glass candle holders, they refresh the sand used to extinguish the flame, and they tidy up the areas around the candles. Their dedication to these duties is the reason that people from throughout the parish and the city stop in at Mercy to light a candle and pray at the feet of the saints. Distinguished Mercy parishioner, Mrs. Gwen Gillis, has served on this committee for the past 26 years, seven of those years serving as the leader of the committee.

Gwen started with the Candle Ministry in 1995 because there was a need to fill a Saturday position. After some discerning and lots of prayer, Gwen accepted the volunteer role and was trained by Mercy greats, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Sagona. Gwen felt particularly called to this ministry because she was drawn to giving back to the saints. By refreshing and replenishing the candles at the feet of the saints at Mercy, she felt it was the least she could do in return for answered prayers.

If you haven't witnessed her dedication through the Candle Ministry, you have certainly seen Mrs. Gillis around campus in her service as a Sunday Sacristan, or as a Committed Adorer, or through her very active role with Magnificat, A Catholic Women's Ministry.

Gwen and her husband John have been Mercy parishioners since 1992. She states, "Mercy has offered so much to me and my husband. Be it through Daily Mass; Confession; Adoration; Bible study; or any of the active ministries, those services have helped me feel like I belong here, have helped me to grow in my faith, and allowed me to have a deeper relationship with our Lord."

Her advice to new and seasoned parishioners, the young and the young at heart - "if you feel a nudge in your heart to get involved and join a ministry, do it! When the timing is right, the Lord will make it easy for you and the joy in giving back is the greatest reward."

Our Lady of Mercy parish extends heartfelt gratitude for Mrs. Gwen Gillis and her tireless dedication to our parish as she retires from this position and passes the candle to Ms. Astrid Wood.

You are a bright light at Our Lady of Mercy!

OUR LADY OF PROMPT SUCCOR

HASTEN TO HELP US!
FEAST DAY ~ JANUARY 8TH

The story of Our Lady of Prompt Succor (OLPS) begins when the French Ursuline Nuns were asked to join Jean-Baptiste LeMoynes, Sieur de Bienville (founder of New Orleans) in establishing a new colony near the Mississippi River. The Ursuline sisters endured a long and difficult six month voyage aboard the Gironde and arrived in New Orleans on August 6, 1727 from Rouen, France. Reverend Mother Marie St. Augustin Tranchepain and the other sisters immediately helped the new colony by setting up a convent, school, and orphanage.

During a period of crisis after a large group of nuns left New Orleans for Cuba in 1803, Mother St. Andre Madier, one of the seven who remained, appealed to her cousin, Mother St. Michel Gensoul, an Ursuline in France who was forced to leave her monastery during the reign of terror of the French Revolution. Because Mother St. Michel had opened a flourishing school in the area, her bishop refused her plea to leave saying that only Pope Pius VII (a prisoner of Napoleon) could grant her request. Mother St. Michel prayed for the Intercession of the Blessed Mother for a "quick and favorable" answer, promising to have a statue made honoring Mary under the title of Our Lady of Prompt Succor if her prayer was answered quickly. Her letter miraculously reached the imprisoned pontiff and she was granted permission within five weeks of the request. Upon the good news, Mother St. Michel had a special wooden statue of Mary carved and covered in gold that she and the other sisters would bring to New Orleans in 1810. Her flowing robes were carefully carved so that she would appear to be moving quickly.

A smaller statue of the Blessed Mother named "Sweetheart" (about 12 inches high) that was brought over from the monastery in France was destined for disposal until Sr. Felicite found it in her convent attic. When a terrible fire threatened to burn the City of New Orleans in 1812, this statue of Our Lady was placed toward the fire in the convent window and miraculously the wind changed direction and the convent was spared. The second miracle attributed to OLPS was during the Battle of New Orleans when the City was under attack and the American soldiers led by General Andrew Jackson were greatly outnumbered. During a Mass on the morning of January 8, 1815, news arrived that the British had been defeated and the Americans had suffered very few casualties.

The name "Sweetheart" comes from Mother St. Benoit's response to Ursuline students and other devotees who prayed for Our Lady's help. When told of her intercession on their behalf, Mother St. Benoit would respond, "Oh, she's a Sweetheart!"

A National Votive Shrine dedicated to Our Lady of Prompt Succor, is situated on the same property as the current convent and Ursuline Academy. It was constructed during the 1920s and consecrated on January 6, 1928. It continues to fulfill the promise made in 1810 by Mother St. Michel to honor the Mother of God under this title. The Shrine serves the faithful in their devotion and in their confidence in God's unconditional love for them and in Our Lady's prompt help.

The Shrine and its mission are the privilege and responsibility of the Ursuline Sisters of the Roman Union, Central Province. The Ursulines and their generous lay collaborators strive to make the Shrine a place of welcome for all whose faith and devotion lead them to seek a place of worship, quiet prayer or pilgrimage.
