Reflection

God revealed through the Prophet Jeremiah His plan to establish a New Covenant of reconciliation with His people. In the appropriate time God sent His only Son to be the Sacrificial Victim of the Redemptive Plan. Jesus knew very well that the only way to bring this Victory is through a voluntary sacrifice on the cross. By His Holy Death, human slavery to sin is put to an end and Glorious Life is revealed. He illustrated this fact by saying “unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit.” The sacrifice of Jesus opened the Door of Grace for us to be in union with God for ever. We are called to live according to the spirit of the NEW and ETERNAL COVENANT which Christ sealed by His Precious Blood. By the virtue of our baptism, we are called to serve Jesus and be ready to participate in sacrificial services that benefit the sick, the hungry, the homeless, the refugees, etc. both near and far. Remember the words of Jesus, “The Father will honor whoever serves me.” In wisdom, choose to serve the one who Died for us on the Cross.

Reflection

Today's scriptures point toward Holy Week and Easter, when humiliation becomes triumph, sorrow brings joy, death gives birth to life, and God writes a new covenant in our hearts. On the surface this doesn't make sense, but when we walk this path with Jesus in prayer, we experience its profound truth
