Reflection; The Epiphany of the Lord
The wise men from the east are seeking the new born king of the Jews so that they may pay homage to him. Herod is seeking the new born king so that he can destroy him, whom he considers to be a threat to his position. The former tries to acknowledge and honor God's plan, while the latter fights against it as it goes against his own egotistic motive. God reveals himself to those who seek him with a sincere heart. The Epiphany is the feast of God's self-manifestation; the visit of the magi, the baptism of our Lord, and the first miracle at Cana. God does not exclude anybody from his divine plan of salvation. The call of Israel was a special call to fulfill a special role, but it was not a rejection of others. (In the second reading), St. Paul speaks of a mystery made know to him by revelation, which was not made known to human beings in other generations, that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and co-partners in Christ Jesus. Let us all work together, as coheirs, to build the Kingdom of God here on earth.

Reflection

Epiphany strikes different people differently. For the humble (shepherds, Mary, Joseph) it is comforting and uplifting. For the seekers (the wise men) it is fulfilling. For the comfortable (King Herod) it is troubling. We can reflect on how we fit in here and what Epiphany means to us.

Yes, our new-to-us Yamaha baby grand piano is visible to the assembly once again. We had just had it delivered in March of 2020, about one week before the Covid-19 shut down. It has been "caged" since then, but we have decided it is time to allow its beauty to be seen as well as heard! Because the finish is high gloss ebony, we ask that you refrain from leaning on it's top, refrain from placing anything on it - such as hymnals, purses, found articles, water bottles, etc. Please refrain from playing it also. We are hoping to get the piano dolly and custom piano cover in the near future. If you are interested in making- a- donation toward these items, please contact Stella Wagner, Director of Music at the parish office 216-651-0550. Thank you.
