MISSION STATEMENT

We are an open and welcoming Catholic community celebrating God's gift of diversity. We are grateful for the Irish and other immigrants who built our parish and for those who continue to renew it.

We are a family, bringing God's love to one another and supporting one another in responding to the challenge of living the Gospel. We strive to deepen the participation and ownership of all parishioners in the whole life of the church, including worship, community life, the building of a just society, and service to all God's people.

Reflection Baptism of the Lord,

Our salvation is not achieved by our own meritorious deeds, but by the grace of God. Christ died for our sins (1 Cor 15:3) and the objective salvation thus achieved for all humanity is realized at a personal level through our union with Christ. It is in baptism that we are united with Christ and participate in his death and resurrection. Baptism is an act of radical conversion, turning away from sin and turning towards God. In baptism, one dies to sin and begins a new life participating in the life of the risen Christ. Jesus, who was not in need of conversion (Mt. 3:14), receives baptism from John to identify himself with his people. He shows his followers the way to salvation. We do well to renew our baptism promises and to try to be faithful to the Lord who continues to nourish us every day by his own body and blood.

Fr. Caroli Shao, AJ

Yes, our new-to-us Yamaha baby grand piano is visible to the assembly once again. We had just had it delivered in March of 2020, about one week before the Covid-19 shut down. It has been "caged" since then, but we have decided it is time to allow its beauty to be seen as well as heard! Because the finish is high gloss ebony, we ask that you refrain from leaning on it's top, refrain from placing anything on it - such as hymnals, purses, found articles, water bottles, etc. Please refrain from playing it also. We are hoping to get the piano dolly and custom piano cover in the near future. If you are interested in making- a- donation toward these items, please contact Stella Wagner, Director of Music at the parish office 216-651-0550. Thank you.
