MISSION STATEMENT

We are an open and welcoming Catholic community celebrating God's gift of diversity. We are grateful for the Irish and other immigrants who built our parish and for those who continue to renew it.

We are a family, bringing God's love to one another and supporting one another in responding to the challenge of living the Gospel. We strive to deepen the participation and ownership of all parishioners in the whole life of the church, including worship, community life, the building of a just society, and service to all God's people.

Please pray for all those who have died especially Masende Kizungu and Julia Ryan.

We also pray for those who are sick, including the following:

Reflection.

Jesus, in the Gospel of this Sunday, revealed His Divine glory at the wedding feast in Cana. He changed the natural water into a wine of high quality. In amazement, the steward said to the bridegroom, "Every man serves the good wine first..... then the poor wine, but you kept the best wine until now." The Lord decided to provide this qualitative wine in an event which celebrates the formation of a new family to underline the importance of the family Institution. His timely intervention was a big relief not only for the couple, but also for the participants. This miracle helps us to understand that Jesus cares, and intervenes in family and individual crises. The Lord came not only to change natural water into good wine, but to change the corrupt or sinful world to a better world, and more so, to change sinners to Saints. We need to imitate the couple to invite Jesus and Blessed Mary to be present in our lives, families, business activities, etc. The quick response of Jesus and His Blessed Mother to problems should encourage us to turn to God for better solutions as we attend to the needs of our fellow brothers and sisters who lack faith, wine, peace, joy, food, clothes, friends, job, etc. Amen.

Fr. Ben Koka, AJ

Reflection

On one level the wedding at Cana is a familiar domestic story: Mom says "There's an issue with the wine," and her son says "Leave me alone, it's not my problem." But Mom knows he'll do what she wants. It's the stuff of every parent-child relationship. On another level it shows that Jesus knew that his ministry was first and foremost to respond with generosity and love to the needs of those around him.

Parish School of Religion Classes

†PSR Classes Ages 6-12 will meet in the Parish Hall.

†Confirmation Classes will meet in the Parish Rectory.

Due to increase in Covid numbers masking will be required!

Yes, our new-to-us Yamaha baby grand piano is visible to the assembly once again. We had just had it delivered in March of 2020, about one week before the Covid-19 shut down. It has been "caged" since then, but we have decided it is time to allow its beauty to be seen as well as heard! Because the finish is high gloss ebony, we ask that you refrain from leaning on it's top, refrain from placing anything on it - such as hymnals, purses, found articles, water bottles, etc. Please refrain from playing it also. We are hoping to get the piano dolly and custom piano cover in the near future. If you are interested in making- a - donation toward these items, please contact Stella Wagner, Director of Music at the parish office 216-651-0550. Thank you.

Tax Deductible Contributions

If you are financially able, and if possible, please consider a year-end financial donation, a 2021 year-end Tax-Deductible Contribution, to our beloved St. Colman Parish. Thank you, always, for your selflessness, and for your generosity of heart and spirit, as we share our spiritual life and journey together. Truly, it is an honor to be a small part of this very large loving and giving parish.

Fr. Caroli Shao, AJ
Pastor

2021 Contributions Statements for monetary donations to the Parish, Outreach, and Capital Campaigns and all other donations will be mailed upon request. Please call the office.
