Q
A Our Catholic grade school is doing a penance service this Lent. Do young children really need to go to Confession? How much sin can they really have?

Ask any mom about her children, and see how many would say she has a brood of perfect angels! Parents know that kids do things that are wrong ... and they often know they're doing it! Even toddlers have a sense of right and wrong. The Church recognizes that their minds and consciences are not yet fully developed, however, and typically waits until age seven to offer the sacrament of Confession. Around that age and beyond, most young people, when asked, can easily explain why something is wrong.

Confession for children is an excellent way to help them reflect on their actions and accept responsibility for their behavior. It helps them to grow in their understanding of sin and how it affects others. This helps them to form their consciences and make better choices in the future. Most importantly, they learn the value of forgiveness, both given and received. Rather than singling out what's wrong, Confession offers hope and a new start! Children can grow in understanding God's unconditional love and develop a sense of inner dignity that transcends their failings. Not bad for five minutes and an "Our Father" or two!

This week's message from Fr. Dave....

Having talked to several priests and pastors this past week all of us remarked that lifting the restrictions from COVID and seeing more people in Church has created a greater joy. I concur with their assessment. From my perspective, I have seen it in the way people come into Church and the way they are leaving Mass. I hope that this joy I sense among us will remain for a long time. This expression of joy has been accompanied by the thought that many missed receiving the Eucharist. I am praying we can come to a deeper appreciation in what we have in the Eucharist and in our parish community. Let the joy of Christ fill our hearts in all he has given to us!

Today we celebrate 245 years of independence as a nation. That's a long time, but not when you compare our years as a nation in relation to other nations of the world. We live in a great country. We have so many freedoms that many people in the world do not enjoy. Yet, the divisiveness in our country in many areas is apparent to us all. I am convinced amid social, political, and spiritual divides we must stick to our faith. Prayer, which was important to our founding fathers, serves as the foundation of who we are as a people and nation. Just like many say the Holy Spirit and prayer are responsible for keeping the Church together through many dark moments of its history, so to is the prayers of so many that will help guide our nations through the many dark moments we have and will face together. Never stop praying for our nation!

Our RCIA program begins in September. The call is out there for any person to step forward to become Catholic. We are searching for those who have never been baptized (catechumens) or those who have been baptized in any faith and now desire to be fully initiated by receiving Holy Communion and Confirmation (candidates). The RCIA process will meet once a week from September through the Easter Vigil of 2022 (Saturday April 16th). We have a team of parishioners who help guide those involved in the process. Time is well spent on learning the Catholic faith and answering questions about our Catholic practices and life. If you are interested or know someone who is a good candidate for the RCIA process let us know.

I am not sure you have noticed but we have had an uptick in baptisms and funerals. I am glad that people are calling on us so that we can offer the sacraments and pray with the family of those when they die. July will be filled with baptisms every weekend. Seeing our young people with extended family is a good sign that our Faith will continue.

What strikes me about Jesus' entry into the synagogue of his hometown of Nazareth is the reaction of the people. At first the people are astonished with his words and quickly turn on him as they become suspicious and angry. They cannot reconcile that this grown man of wisdom was once a young child from an ordinary household. The people in his hometown cannot accept Jesus as the Divine Savior. What we have seen the last two weeks is Jesus calming the sea and healing by his touch. These events displaying his power over creation and the infirmities people deal with in life.

One gets the sense that the people in the synagogue had in mind who and what kind of person Jesus should be. Jesus to them is just an ordinary person who could not have the kind of wisdom he is displaying. Jesus is more than what he appears to be. He is both human and divine. The people of Nazareth cannot fathom what he does or what he can do for others.

You might want to jot down and remember these dates of parish upcoming events. Our Parish Picnic is Sunday, August 22nd after the 11AM Mass here at Hanson Hall and the lower parking lot. Catechetical Sunday is Sunday, September 19th. New Parishioners Brunch is Sunday, September 26th in Hanson Hall at 9:30AM. Our Fall Clambake is Saturday, October 23rd after the 4:30PM Mass. Our Divine Word Reverse Raffle is Friday, November 5th at LaMalfa's in Mentor at 5:30PM.

There are more events coming between now and the end of the year – we will keep you posted!

Finally, prepare yourselves for Alpha, a program about learning your faith and becoming more at ease in sharing your faith. We have a team of people going through training and understanding the process called Alpha. Our hope is to begin this project at the beginning of 2022. Can you imagine we are preparing ourselves for the next calendar year?!

As we move into the beginning of the new fiscal year. I offer my appreciation and gratitude for your overwhelming generosity with our parish's financial status and with the continued support to the Heart of a Shepherd Campaign for the renovation of the Seminaries in Wickliffe. My words fall far short of your continued financial support, and I can only say "Thank you" for all you have done for us.

"I Had a Wonderful Day Today!"

As I headed down the hallway to bed one-night last week, I said to Rod "I had a wonderful day today!" And it truly was. That morning, Rod and I had gone for a walk at Erie Bluffs, followed by buying fresh strawberries at a farm stand. Came home and had a visit from the husband of my Mom's roommate at the memory-care center, and it was nice to catch up. Then I hulled a box of strawberries and headed to the memory-care center where I now have four new moms who were assigned to me because they don't have visitors. Armed with a big bowl of strawberries, I gathered them around a table (joined by others who walked or wheeled by and were invited in). Came home and made dinner on the grill and read a book on the deck. From my standpoint, life doesn't get much better. And when I hit the bed, I told God how very grateful I was for that wonderful day.

I feel that every day we live should be considered a precious gift from God. There's nothing that says we're going to live to be 90 (or 103 as my Grandma did). We have three beautiful people in our cancer support group and another parishioner who are no longer taking treatments and are preparing for end-of-life. I imagine that causes a lot of reflection -- gratitude for a wonderful life coupled with sadness at leaving it. (The good news in their case is they are each headed to be with Jesus and will meet their loved ones again. I often wonder how people without faith handle life.)

I want to live as if I might die tomorrow or next week. I want to make myself ready to be welcomed into heaven with a "well done, my good and faithful servant". At the same time, I want to remember to express gratitude to the Lord for every day, be they as wonderful as the one last week, or less so. Each day gives us an opportunity to improve our relationship with God. I want to be able to speak like Paul who said, "For me, to live is Christ, and to die is
