John's gospel is a powerful spiritual reflection of Jesus taking on the will of his Father in heaven. Jesus brings to Earth the power of his Father from on high. I have always enjoyed John's gospel because it cannot be read unless you go underneath the words. John's writing calls us to contemplate his actions, words, and relationships. The wedding at Cana is a great example of this.

At the Wedding Feast of Cana, we encounter Mary for the first time in John's gospel. I am immediately drawn to the fact that she is never called by her first name. Jesus is at the same feast and Mary is the one who notices they have no wine left and goes to Jesus because of this situation. Jesus addresses her as, "Woman, how does your concern affect me?" That is quite a response and almost bordering on disrespect. No one could get away with that kind of address to their mother today.

This way Jesus speaks to his mother has absolutely no effect on her. As she looks at the servers, Mary offers the last words she speaks in John's gospel, "Do whatever he tells you!" Mary in a powerful way tells the world Jesus' ministry is to begin. The water into wine is the beginning of the signs Jesus will use to reveal who he is. His first miracle is one that will keep the celebration of this wedding going. It also reveals on a deeper level that these words are enough for Mary and in reality, these words are also enough for us.

"Do whatever he tells you." For the servers at the wedding feast this would mean lining up large water jars and filling them to the brim. They provided everything necessary to allow this miracle to happen. I am just wondering if we could ever hear the words of Mary and apply them to ourselves. Mary speaks to us about the relationship of Jesus in our own life, "Do whatever he tells you!" This would mean giving up personal control of our lives and placing it in the hands of Jesus. Mary's words on the deepest level are for us to surrender ourselves completely to Jesus.

We are now into Ordinary Time and will be here until Ash Wednesday (March 2nd). The next seven weeks will prepare us for the proper reflection and presence of Jesus' public ministry. Since Lent starts at a later date this year, we will have several readings from Luke's gospel that we do not often hear at this time of the year. As we go deeper into the Luke's story of Jesus' life in ministry, we will have a greater sense of his mission as we enter the season of Lent.

We begin the Alpha Program on Monday, January 24th with dinner at 6:30PM in Hanson Hall and Presentation at 7:00 PM. This program is designed to offer knowledge and insight into the Christian Faith. The Alpha Program has a good track record. It has reinforced faith and helped people gain more knowledge about our beliefs. This Program can provide greater access to understanding our faith. Although this session is full, you can call the Parish Office to be added to the waitlist.

You might want to clear these dates on your calendar: Sunday, March 20th, Monday, March 21st, and Tuesday, March 22nd for our Lenten Parish Mission. Fr. James Sichko from Lexington, Kentucky will offer the Parish Mission this year. He has been given great reviews for his work and is a great storyteller who engages the faith of people. I look forward to seeing this event take place in our parish.

This past week our response for the Synod Listening Sessions was very low. We have been given an extension until the end of March to offer these sessions. The hope is that we have more participation if we push these sessions into February. Please know you can participate in the Synod Listening Session through the writing of your own reflections and input. This can be turned in to the parish office and we will include your feedback with the other feedback we send to the diocese.

I hope and pray that all in your family are staying healthy. This has been the mantra the last two years. My hope is we see this new variant of the virus losing its power in the next couple of weeks. Stay positive through it all and if you can, seek some warmer weather. The days of winter will pass us by quickly!

Have a great week!

Fr. Dave

ALPHA PROGRAM AT DIVINE WORD

Our first round of Alpha is full to capacity. We are eager to begin this program on Monday, January 24th at 6:30 PM in Hanson Hall. If you are interested in joining our next session, please contact Gina Rensi, Director of Religious Education at 440-256-1412.

CAREGIVER SUPPORT GROUP

Beginning February 18th, 11:00AM

A new support group for those caring for a loved one with ongoing physical or mental health needs (young or elderly) are invited to join the newly formed Caregiver Support Group beginning Friday, February 18th at 11:00 AM in the Upper Room (in the Office/ Rectory building). The group will meet every third Friday of the month at 11:00 AM. Please join us as we share with one another and collectively determine ways to keep ourselves healthy and fulfilled, while meeting the care needs of others in our family. To sign up, contact the Parish Office or email Shari Allwood at sallwood@divinewordkirtland.org.

MISSIONARY ACTION FORMS

You might recall the Missionary Action Form that was included in the bulletin the weekend of January 9th. Just a reminder that you can use those forms to record your thoughts or experiences with the Church. You can also use this form to record the responses of people you wish to reach out to and hear their experiences or thoughts. Remember, the Synod Process is for everyone, not just practicing Catholics. You are encouraged to reach out to someone who is away from the Church, or is feeling disconnected. Please consider giving a voice to someone who might not otherwise participate in this process. Please drop off or mail the forms (no later than March 7th) addressed to Debbie Lokar at the Parish Office (8100 Eagle Rd., Kirtland, OH 44094). Extra forms are available in the Gathering Area or at the Parish Office. Please contact Debbie Lokar with additional questions.

ALTAR SERVER MEETING

For those who may have missed the first Altar Server training, there will be another on Sunday, January 23rd after the 11:00 AM Mass. This is for those interested in becoming an Altar Server or those who need a refresher. Parents, please attend with your child. Any adults wishing to join this ministry are welcome too!

ARE YOU PLANNING A BAPTISM?

If you are expecting, or have recently welcomed your first child, plan on joining us at Baptism Class on Thursday, February 17th at 6:30 PM in the Gathering Area with Deacon John Grazia. This class is a requirement before your first child's Baptism. Please call the Parish Office to let us know you will be attending.

CANCER SUPPORT GROUP

Our Cancer Support Group will meet on Monday, January 17th at 7:00 PM in the Gathering Area. We meet for ninety minutes and we simply share our story and offer support to one another. Feel free to invite a friend for your own personal support.

"TAYLOR MADE" NEWS

This past Saturday I had the privilege of attending and taking six teens to the Cleveland Youth Conference, CLE 21:6. We had the opportunity to learn what it means to be a disciple, hear different talks, attend Mass and adoration, and just rest and rejuvenate ourselves in the presence of Jesus. Thank you, Maya, Kara, Emily, Mia, Kasia, and Moira for having the courage to say yes to God's call and come!

CCA GRIEF SUPPORT - JANUARY

Sunday, January 16th

Catholic Cemeteries Association provides free monthly grief support groups in two formats: In-Office (3:00 PM) at six cemetery offices and Virtually (5:00 PM) via Zoom. We meet the 3rd Sunday of every month; 4th Sunday if the third falls on a holiday. Meetings are open discussion, surrounding a monthly topic or whatever is in your heart. The January 16th topic is "Facing the New Year with Hope and Love." We offer a comfortable, private and safe environment where you are free to explore your grief. Come and be in the presence of those who understand. Your RSVP for both In-Person and Virtual Grief Support is appreciated, but not required to attend. For more information, please contact Rhonda at 216-930-4866. To sign up for the Virtual session go to <http://bit.ly/ccavirtualgriefsupportgroup> to receive login information and to download the handout materials.

PLANNING FOR YOUR LEGACY

You need not redo your entire Will to make a provision for a charitable bequest to our parish. See your attorney about preparing a Codicil (a written change or addition), have it witnessed and attached to your Will. To begin planning for your legacy, or to become a member of the Divine Word Legacy Society, please contact Fr. Dave or Shari at the Parish Office, 440-256-1412.

AM 1260 THE ROCK CONTINUES THE MASS OF THE MONTH IN 2022

AM 1260 The Rock is continuing our monthly Mass intentions for YOU - our listeners and benefactors. Each month we have an opportunity to pray for and with one another at parishes around the diocese. Our February Mass is at St. Ignatius of Antioch on Saturday, February 5th at 5:00 PM (Eucharistic Adoration and Confession 3:30-4:30PM). Our Masses of the Month for the rest of 2022 can be found at am1260therock.com or call us at 216-227-1260.

HUMOR FROM THE CADDYSHACK

Father O'Malley answers his cell phone. "Hello, is this Father O'Malley?" someone asks. "It is indeed." "This is the IRS, can you help us?" "I will do my best." "Do you know Ted Houlahan?" "I do." "Is he a member of your congregation?" "He is." "Did he contribute $10,000 to your church?" "He will."

SISTERS OF NOTRE DAME IS HIRING!

Come work where you will be appreciated. Sisters of Notre Dame, Chardon Ohio (SND) have full and part time positions available in Health Care and Food Services. If you are a Nurse, Nurse's Aide, or food prep/server interested in learning more about full/part-time/PRN positions, send an email and resume to hr@sndusa.org or visit <https://careers.sndusa.org> SND offers a generous compensation package including Medical, dental, 401k, Paid Time Off and paid holidays for full time individuals. Nurse Aides can earn a sign-on bonus of up to $3,000. Come join us and find out why "Kindness is Contagious!"

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today, at the Wedding Feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him. Every day, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust. Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

MEN ON A JOURNEY RETREAT

Please join the Men on a Journey parish group from St. Mary's Chardon for a men's retreat on Saturday, February 19th from 8:00 AM to 2:30 PM. The retreat is open to all men, adults and teens. It will include a light breakfast and lunch. The theme of the retreat is "Peter... do you love me?" This is a great way to prepare for Lent and focus on the love in our lives. A $10 free-will offering is suggested. To register email Gary Burling at garywburling@gmail.com.

KOMIC KORNER

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE NUMBERS

After COVID struck, I began sharing some written musings to accompany the stewardship numbers. I was hoping to help us to collectively feel connected when we were unable to gather, and when everything in life seemed so disconnected. At first, I began with some scriptures about the importance of giving, then I moved on to general reflections each week. I think it's time to return to a brief review of the numbers again (without a prod for you to continue your generosity, so please read on)!

For my first two years as business manager, I budgeted weekly collections by month, based on the prior year's revenues for each month. That tends to fluctuate based on summer vacations, people wintering in Florida, etc. The Finance Council and other business managers in Lake and Geauga counties indicated that the norm is to take the full general offertory and divide it by 51, then add Easter Sunday and Christmas collections separately. So that's how I approached the budget this year.

You'll note that our Christmas donations are well below budget (based on last year's giving) while our general collection is well ahead of plan. One could ask why Christmas collections were so much lower this year than last? If one has a good answer, kindly let me know! I think that what we need to focus on is the health and financial wellbeing of our parish. And, having given the annual report to the parish in November, you have seen that we enjoy an enviable financial standing. We have lots of expenses coming up this year, but the Lord has blessed us with the funds to meet those needs, as well. Both our parishioners and the Lord have been so faithful!

Shari
