FROM FR. IRELAND

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today we are celebrating the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

It is an event of great importance in the Gospels, for it is the beginning of the public life of Jesus. Although not in need of Baptism, our Blessed Lord undergoes this to show its importance. The early Fathers of the Church state that whereby the waters of Baptism sanctify us, our Blessed Lord sanctifies the water by His Baptism in the Jordan.

As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, perhaps we could renew the promises of our own Baptism. The collect from today's Mass reads:

“Almighty ever-living God, who, when Christ had been baptized in the River Jordan and as the Holy Spirit descended upon Him, solemnly declared Him your beloved Son, grant that your children by adoption, reborn of water and the Holy Spirit, may always be well pleasing to you.”

Let us look to this New Year as a time to renew and strengthen the commitments that our godparents made for us when we were just infants. As you reflect on these commitments, you might take an opportunity to visit and pray at the baptistery here in church.

*May God's blessings be yours
this Feast of the Baptism of the Lord...*

Fr. Ireland
