

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 16, 2022

*Jesus, in response to His Mother's request, provides wine that the wedding feast might continue ... reportedly the best wine of the day.
This was the first public miracle Jesus performed in the presence of His disciples.*

FROM FR. IRELAND

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our second reading for Sunday’s Mass reminds us of the different gifts that are manifested in the Church:

*“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts
but the same Spirit;
there are different forms of service
but the same Lord;
there are different workings
but the same God who produces all of them
in everyone.*

*To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit
is given for some benefit.*

*To one is given through the Spirit
the expression of wisdom;*

*to another,
the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit;*

to another, faith by the same Spirit;

to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit;

to another, mighty deeds;

to another, prophecy;

to another, discernment of spirits;

to another, varieties of tongues;

to another, interpretation of tongues.

But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as He wishes.”

As we reflect upon these words of St. Paul, perhaps we can think about the spiritual gifts that God has given to each and every one of us. As he says, “To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” Perhaps we could ask ourselves, what gifts have I received? A further question could be, how am I going to use the gifts that I have been given for the benefit of others?

As we continue our One Hundredth Anniversary, please think about how you might share your gifts and talents with others.

*May God’s blessings be yours this week,
Father Ireland*

These books are in place in each pew in the Church and are available to you if you would like to remember a deceased loved one or have your family remembered in prayer each time the book is used.

Memorial cards will be available for placement in one of the new hymnals for a donation of $25. If you would like to have your loved one or your family memorialized in one of these books, please

- Hand write or type the intention as you would like it to read,
- Include $25 in cash or a check payable to Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish,
