HOUSEHOLD OF GOD

Where do eulogies belong? (Part 3 of 3)
Dear fellow mountain-climbers of the Lord:
This is the last in a series of reflections from Fr. Czeslaw Krysa, Former Director of Worship of the Diocese of Buffalo, and Rector of St. Casimir Church in Buffalo.

Did you know the purpose of a Roman Catholic funeral is to lead the person (their mortal remains, as Temples of the Holy Spirit) to burial, and their soul to paradise?

The Catholic Funeral is one heaven-ward procession with three steps: (1) the Funeral Home, (in past times it was the place of death), (2) the Lord's Eucharistic altar in Church, (3) the final resting place or grave. The Mass distinguishes the Catholic funeral from the Protestant funeral or secular memorial services. St. Augustine understood the Funeral Mass as true, eternal "refreshment" in "the breaking of the Bread" for the deceased. The primary focus is Jesus, not the dead person.

Burial is a time to come face-to-face with earthly death (literally) and to begin the memorializing of your beloved deceased. Making memorial of a deceased person flows from the funeral Mass. It is not its content. Holy remembrance, according to Catholic spirituality, take places annually with an anniversary Mass and family meal.

The first memorial follows the Funeral Mass at the cemetery. It may continue at the funeral luncheon and it is followed by life-long mementos, or "good words" (the original meaning of eulogy) about the deceased. Catholic remembrance, therefore, is not limited to one-time words or a speech at a funeral.

While eulogies are not part of a funeral Mass (the quote from the Rite of Catholic Funerals), remembering deceased friends and relatives is not at all limited to the funeral. It usually starts at table during the funeral luncheon, and hopefully is repeated at least annually on the anniversary of a death. For the baptized, relationships do not end at death.

Celebrate living thanksgiving for those who loved you, whom you dearly miss. Don't be afraid of tears. Tears of love release toxins from your body and purify your blood. They chemically differ from tears of despair and anxiety.

Get healthier, stronger, and more resilient; not through belly-button regrets over what you've lost or through self-pity. Celebrate Jesus' life-restoring Resurrection first; and then discuss, share, and remember all that is good. That's the living (not dead) eulogy of a misunderstood funeral Mass.

Make it a good week,
Father David, Priest & Sinner

FEAST OF CANDLEMAS

The Feast of Candlemas is being celebrated this Tuesday, February 1, at 6 PM at St. Jude Church. This is the day that candles are blessed that will be used in our churches throughout the year. This is an anticipated celebration of the Feast, which is actually on Wednesday, but I have class at the seminary, so we will celebrate it at our regular 6 o'clock Mass on Tuesday evening. Please bring candles to be blessed. Also a blessed candle will be available for you to take home for a small donation.

STJ KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS CHILI COOK-OFF

St. Jude Knights of Columbus are looking for the best Chili in our area for their 3rd Annual Chili Cook-Off coming up on Sat., February 19, 6-8 PM in the Activity Center. A $5 entrance fee with 15 spots available. Rules and entry forms can be found in the Nook, or contact Bill Flesse at 330-482-0991 or bflesse@gmail.com. All proceeds will go to support the tornado victims in Kentucky.

ST JUDE GIFT SHOP

Stop by the Gift Shop for religious goods located in the entryway of the Activity Center. There are numerous gift items such as key chains, magnets, mugs, visor clips, coasters, calendars, etc. With First Communion just around the corner, you may want to see if there's something special for the children. Also, if you feel you might like to help out in some way with the Gift Shop, just let me know!

—Blessings, Lou DeNiro

P.S. Christmas calendars & boxed cards are half off.

SINCEREST THANKS

A special thank you to all those who participated in the 12 hour Eucharistic Adoration in support of the 49th March for Life in Washington on Friday. There were 54 hours of adoration logged in on the sign in sheet. Our prayers will make a difference for sure! Continue to pray in support of life, and especially that the Supreme Court judges' final decision will be to overturn Roe v. Wade.

WORDS OF GRATITUDE

Words cannot express the gratitude we have for your kindness, generosity, support and especially for your prayers throughout Nate's recovery. God has been so merciful! Nate is doing well and working hard to get back his strength. Thank you so much!!!

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Dear Parishioners:

Please know that I am available to anoint parishioners when there is a special need for anointing, like if someone is homebound and needs to see a priest. Please do not call last minute, because sometimes I may not be available. A parishioner from St. Jude died last week without receiving the Sacrament of the Sick. (We no longer call this Sacrament LAST RITES!) There is more confusion over this sacrament than Confirmation. Anointing of the Sick is NOT a "get out of jail free card." Grandpa hasn't been to church in 45 years, so let's dab his head with oil "just in case"! No, it doesn't work that way. Unfortunately people will die without being anointed. As our numbers in the priesthood decline, this will happen. However, I am your priest, and it doesn't have to happen. If a loved one is sick, please call us at the office so arrangements can be made. This is also one reason why I have begun anointings at Mass periodically.

WELCOME, MSGR. CONNELL!

Please welcome Msgr. William Connell, Pastor Emeritus of Holy Family Church, Poland, and retired priest of our Diocese who is celebrating the Masses this weekend for me while I am away on retreat. Welcome Msgr. Bill & Thank You!

FEAST OF ST. BLAISE

The Blessing of Throats is a sacramental of the Roman Catholic Church, ordinarily celebrated around February 3, the feast of Saint Blaise, Bishop and Martyr. Fr. David will be blessing the throats of all the faithful next Sunday, Feb 5/6, at all weekend Masses.

VIANNEY ROSARY CENACLE

The Vianney Cenacle meets on Fridays at 10:15 AM in the Conference Room at St. Jude. Please bring your Rosary and join us to pray for priests and vocations. All are welcome!
