My dear friends,

Happy Easter! In light of this season of Resurrection, I wanted to take the opportunity to express my deepest gratitude for the many volunteers who have helped bring our sanctuary and vestibule to life through their many hours of service. When I announced the plan to try and be more intentional about the space we worship in by moving the tabernacle to the center and elevating our entryway through the use of St. Anthony's statues, I wasn't entirely sure how it would all come together. This parish has proven beyond a shadow of a doubt that when there is a need, people will step up and share their time, talent, and treasure in overcoming any obstacle for the sake of honoring our Lord in our community. Aside from the literal work of installing the subfloor and floor, everything else that you see was all accomplished through the generosity of parishioners. To be a pastor of such a giving parish is truly a blessing. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Easter Sunday

"When Jesus had risen, early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons." (Mark 16:9)

Popular Catholic piety sometimes posits that the newly risen Jesus appears first to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is a happy thought, but it's simply not what the scriptures report. We are told quite directly that he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, "out of whom he had driven seven demons."

Why would the gospel writer remind us of this unsavory detail of Mary's past? Historians tell us women were not qualified to give legal testimony. On top of that, to be possessed by not just one, but seven demons, is unsavory and terrifying. What damage had they done to her? What did she do to allow herself to be home to such evil? It doesn't seem to matter. Jesus chose Mary Magdalene to be the first one who saw him risen from the dead. He decided she was qualified.

Do you think that you are disqualified from seeing and announcing the risen Jesus because of your past demons? Maybe they are the demons of despair, confusion, self-hatred, pride, addiction, failure, boredom, laziness, or other sins. Well, don't. In the light of the Risen Jesus, all these past demons make our witness that much more believable — only if we allow ourselves to be touched by the liberating hand of Christ, just as Mary Magdalene did.
