ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH IN MCCARTYVILLE

9377 State Route 119 W
Anna, Ohio 45302

JANUARY 30, 2022 • FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading:

The word of the LORD came to me, saying: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. (Jer 1:4-5)

Psalm:

I will sing of your salvation. (Ps 71)

Second Reading:

So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

(1 Cor 13:13)

Gospel:

And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place." (Lk 4:24)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Jeremiah is one of many prophets who cringed at the thought of being the spokesperson for God. To be a prophet is not an easy task. In fact, they are usually persecuted and some are put to death. But notice the response that God gives Jeremiah that he is to be a 'prophet to the nations.'

"Be not crushed on their account...it is I this day who have made you a fortified city, a pillar of iron, a wall of brass..." When was the last time God called you a 'pillar of iron?' If God said it, then He meant it.

Jeremiah was 'flesh and blood' just like you and me, but God's Spirit filled his soul with the strength to be called.

If only we would take to heart that God is for us because He loves us beyond our imagination. If you knew in your heart that God was asking you to do something...would you do it? Though we come up with every kind of excuse to say 'no' like our prophet, we will never win the argument! God created us and He knows us better than we know ourselves.

God is the one that sends us forth, and He is also the One who gives us the strength to accomplish the task. When you know God has called you to a particular vocation, then know He will give you the way to live it with joy. Even when it seems that life is too tough. Ask Him for help and you will see.

This Gospel passage takes place in Nazareth. These people had known Jesus his whole life, and here he was proclaiming himself to be the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy, the "Anointed Bearer of Glad Tidings" (Isaiah 61:1-3). Notice that, at first, the crowd seemed to praise and accept him. But then they turned on him, concluding that he could not be who he said he was. They simply could not see past his familiar outward appearance.

Jesus spoke of how God sent Elijah and Elisha to perform miracles to other nations, not to Israel. Sidon was a city in northern Israel, but it was never subdued by the tribes of Israel. In fact, it was an oppressor of Israel (Judges 1:31; 10:12). Syria took Israel by siege, captured the people, and took them into exile (2 Kings 17:6). These people Jesus used as examples were bitter enemies of his listeners, which gives us some context as to why they became hateful at the mention of their oppressors having a share in God's goodness and mercy.

In truth, the Gospel message is for all people in all places. It is the duty of the Church to witness to Christ to the nations. The crowd here had preconceived notions that the Messiah would free Israel from its oppressors. Now, here was Jesus, the true Messiah, flipping that idea on its head. Jesus did so much more than secure political freedom for one set of people; he secured salvation, redemption, and freedom from the claims of sin for the whole world!

God chose Israel to be a holy example for the nations around them, to bless the whole world. But because of their disobedience, they could not bless others. Jesus fulfilled the role Israel was destined to complete but could not: "I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth" (Isaiah 49:6). God desires the salvation of all people, not just those who have the blessing of religious culture or upbringing: God "desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth" (1 Timothy 2:4). How does this Scripture challenge you to consider more deeply your preconceived notions about God?

PASTORAL PLANNING PATHWAY
Each Family of Parishes will follow the Pastoral Planning Pathway to guide its future. This Pathway will assist each Family in creating a pastoral plan for the parishes in the Family, articulating how they will live out the six Beacons principles and abide by each of the parameters, all aimed towards vital, mission-driven parish life within the Family of Parishes and ultimately, as one canonical parish.

Phase 1 of pastoral planning will begin in July 2022. In the meantime, we invite you to pray for the pastors, priests, staff, and parish leaders

Mary, Mother of the Church and our Mother, present our prayer of thanksgiving to your Son. Beg from Him the graces we need to be faithful disciples who follow Him with enthusiasm and joy. May our witness to the love of God bear fruit in our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts. Teach us to be God's joyful witnesses, to radiate Christ in all we do, so that all people might know, love and follow your Son through this life and into the next. Amen.

Caleb Gaier, 2nd Year College Seminarian is celebrating his birthday on February 2nd. If you would like to send him a card his address is Pontifical College Josephinum 7625 North High St., Columbus, OH 45235
