Good Sunday Morning,

A big thanks to everyone who came out to help with our Christmas giveaway! Your kindness and generosity made a difference in the lives of 24 families, who otherwise might not have had a Christmas.

Speaking of Christmas, we will be decorating the church after Mass on Sunday, December 19. Any help is appreciated!

I also wanted to share our schedule for Christmas Masses:

Christmas Eve:

5:00 pm Mass at St. Francis of Assisi, Pikeville
 10:00 pm Mass at St. George, Jenkins

Christmas Day:

10:30 am Mass at St. Francis of Assisi, Pikeville

Sunday, December 26:

8:30 am Mass at St. George, Jenkins
 10:30 am Mass at St. Francis of Assisi, Pikeville

Please note that both Christmas and the following Sunday are Masses of obligation. I know it's tough, but the Church expects us to be at Mass sometime on Christmas and also for the regular Sunday. Let's hang in there and give it our best for the Lord!

Fr. Rob

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

St. Augustine tells us that a "Christian is a mind through which Christ thinks, a heart through which Christ loves, a voice through which Christ speaks and a hand through which Christ helps." As we look around and out at the world, we do not have to search too far before we come face to face with inequity and injustice. There is so much unfairness, prejudice, anger, hatred, violence, and want. The stories of human heartache, people being hurt, deprived of life's necessities, loneliness, and sickness are far too commonplace. For many of the world's ills, the vices of greed, lust, pride, gluttony, and jealousy are clearly among the more significant root causes.

Why doesn't God just step in and fix this mess? After all, God created this world, and one would hope that he would step up and take some measure of responsibility for it! Once we sit with this thinking for a while, we can begin to realize just how flawed it really is. God did take responsibility and God did fix the problem! God sent us Jesus Christ as the divine solution to the world's ills. It is not God who has shirked responsibility, we have. We are the ones who continually fail to set our own personal needs, wants, and securities aside so that One more powerful than us can use us.

Mary had to set her needs aside in order for the Son of God to come into the world. Put simply, Mary listened and believed. Having opened herself to being an instrument of the Divine, God could use her as his mind, heart, voice, and hand. She became God's vessel so that God's greatness could reach the ends of the earth and peace could come upon the world. God's fix for the world's difficulties is you and me. We are the ones who confess that Jesus Christ came into the world as the Son of God, the Prince of Peace, and herald of justice. All we have to do is believe, as did Mary, that what has been spoken to us by the Lord will be fulfilled. Then, we can step aside and be the Christians we claim to be. What a difference it would make if every person who professed to be Christian truly understood that their one and only vocation is to be God's instrument. What a beautiful, equitable, and just world it would be. ©LPi

4TH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Luke 1:39-45

Blessed Advent!

Today we have two mothers meeting; they are related, and one carries in her womb John the Baptist and the other woman, Mary, carries in her womb Jesus.

The Gospel account says that John, who would cry out in the desert the message that everyone needs to "prepare the way of the Lord," leapt with joy in the womb of his mother upon hearing Mary's greeting.

John's message in the desert is the message that we all need to heed as we get closer to the Christmas celebration. May our faith leap with joy at the chance to proclaim our Lord and to prepare the way!

POOR BOX During the month of November, we collected $233 in the poor box to assist the ministry of Helping Hands. Thank you!

MESSAGE FROM THE DIOCESE OF LEXINGTON: "Our brothers and sisters in the Diocese of Owensboro could use our help as the western part of the state of Kentucky recovers from Friday's violent storms. The state of Kentucky experienced extreme weather events including a devastating tornado that resulted in a high number of fatalities and destruction in areas served by the Diocese of Owensboro including Mayfield and Bowling Green. A second collection will be taken today and next weekend for Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Owensboro to offer help and services for those displaced or who have immediate needs as a result of the storms. Please be generous to support the emergency needs in our state and pray of those affected especially for the many lives lost. Thank you for your kind support"
