From the Pastor

I would like to use my memo today to give you an update on the Beacons of Light strategic process. As you know, at the end of September the Archdiocese published the proposed plan. During the month of October people were allowed to submit their input to the proposed plan. There were 7,800 sources of input provided by parishioners from the Archdiocese. At the end of November the final plan was published. We are now in what I call the “Personnel” stage of the process. Archbishop Schnurr and his Personnel Office have been making phone calls to all the priests trying to find the best person for the various positions. I can tell you that I have received my phone call from the Archbishop. I can at least tell you that because of my age (74 next month) and because I probably cannot commit to the necessary six years to be a pastor of a Family of Parishes, I probably will not be the Pastor of this Family of Parishes. I can also tell you that I will probably not be retiring. The rest I will leave to the public announcement by the Archdiocese at the beginning of February. I would ask for your prayers. As the Holy Spirit has been guiding us this far, we believe that the Holy Spirit will guide us the rest of the way.

Fr. Jim

Ponder is a Bible study that explores the Sunday readings in the Roman Catholic Lectionary cycle. It is a contemplative study, which means the goal of Ponder is to unite the heart and mind.

Ponder is designed to help individuals and groups pray with the readings first, to absorb and ground the Sunday readings in the heart or personal experience. Participants learn the process of lectio divina and Ignatian contemplation as tools for praying with Scripture. Brief commentary is provided by the study author to help participants fully understand each passage. Each Sunday includes two reflection points for ongoing contemplation (or pondering).

This study will resume virtually on Friday mornings at 9:00 AM through the Lenten season. Please check our website for more information and registration:

Synod on Synodality Local Meeting

Did you know that when you were baptized you were called to a priestly, prophetic, and kingly mission to bring the good news of salvation and discipleship to all? How is the Church journeying together today in living and advancing its mission? What steps is the Holy Spirit inviting us to take to better journey together going forward? The Holy Father, in seeking to hear from all the People of God on how to better bring the Mission of the Church to the world, is calling for a synod focused around these foundational questions. This synod is starting from the ground up at local dioceses. The Holy Father recognizes that the Holy Spirit dwells within His people, so this synod is to bring us together to discuss how to better further the mission of the Church where the Holy Spirit can work powerfully.

Please consult the Archdiocesan website www.catholicaoc.org Scroll down and click on the “Synod on Synodality” tab to learn more and to sign up for a meeting near you. The meeting for our deanery area is at 10:00am on Saturday, January 22nd at Queen of Peace Church 2550 Millville Ave, Hamilton, OH 45013. Please sign up and we hope to see you there!

“Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.”
