THEME: FEAST AND MIRACLE

January is not a common month for weddings in this country. Nevertheless, a wedding is at the center of today's Gospel. It is at this wedding feast that Jesus performs his first miracle, changing water into wine. Though we are not here today to celebrate a wedding, today's celebration includes both feast and miracle, ones we often take for granted. Let us consider the miracle that takes place in our presence today—the bread and wine becoming Christ's Body and Blood—and give thanks for the invitation we have been given to this Eucharistic feast.

Isaiah 62:1-5 All shall behold your vindication.
1 Corinthians 12:4-11 The Spirit distributes gifts to each person.
John 2:1-11 Jesus transforms water into wine.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him. Everyday, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

CHESTERTON SOCIETY MOVIE EVENT

The Southtowns Chesterton Society invites you to its monthly gathering for food and fellowship. This month, at ICC on January 29th at 6:30 PM, we will be having a special showing of the EWTN original two-part play entitled "Chesterton Station: The Golden Key."

"Known as the 'prince of paradox' English writer, philosopher and lay theologian, G. K. Chesterton, is the perfect foil for an intellectual adventure through space and time. Arriving early to a deserted train station, Chesterton reflects on his life, the saints, and his wonder and gratitude for God's many gifts. As mysterious events unfold while waiting, his spiritual observations set the stage for a journey through history to encounter some of the most fascinating individuals the world has ever seen."

As always, dinner and drinks will be provided at no charge. Those 21 and older may attend. Please RSVP and dinner will be ready when you arrive! Questions and RSVP's may be sent to Brady Webb at: stchestertonsociety@gmail.com
