A NOTE FROM FR. IVAN

As I write this note today I am reminded of how much has changed in our parish life throughout the past year. Although we are still using our masks and social distancing, I am so grateful we are able to celebrate Masses regularly in our own churches. I am also grateful that we are able to share our Masses on social media with those who are unable to join us.

I am happy to let you know we will, once again, be holding all of our usual Christmas Masses at both of our churches. Masses will be Christmas Eve 4:00pm at St. Joseph's and 4:00pm at St. Mary's; Midnight at St. Mary's; and Christmas Day 9am at St. Joseph's. Our Midnight Mass will be preceded by a Christmas Concert which is always extraordinary. I look forward to celebrating this wonderful time of the year with everyone.

On behalf of Fr. Bob, Deacon Tom, Deacon Henry and our Parish Staff, I wish everyone a Blessed Christmas and a safe and Happy New Year.

Fr. Ivan

Catholic Charities

“When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.” (Matthew 2:10). As we celebrate Christ's entrance into the world, we reflect on what it has brought us all: Faith, hope, love, light, exceeding joy. We wish you all of these and more, today and every day. Merry Christmas from all of us at Catholic Charities.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

In coordination with the Office of Worship of the Diocese of Buffalo, there will be a training session for individuals who would like to become Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion on Saturday, January 15 at 9:00 AM at Annunciation (Selbert Hall), 7580 Clinton St. Elma. Please discuss the possibility with your pastor. Once he approves, complete an application form (available from your parish or the Office of Worship) and present it to your parish office for final approval, pastor's signature and parish seal. Forms should be sent to the Office of Worship, 795 Main St, Buffalo NY 14203 no less than seven days prior to training. When attending, please bring your personal Bible and means of taking notes. You may bring a snack or brown bag lunch. For more information call 716-828-5455 or email:
