From the Desk of Deacon Dave

I heard a funny story and it goes like this: Johnny had been misbehaving and was sent to his room. After a while he came out and informed his mother that he had thought it over and then said a prayer. His mother was so pleased! She said to him, "If you ask God to help you not misbehave, He will help you." "Oh, said little Johnny, I didn't ask Him to help me not misbehave," "I asked Him to help you put up with me."

That is funny! And the fact is, a child might think that way. At least until an adult told them that is not how it works – that others should not have to “put up with them” but that we should be pleasant and easy to put up with. But don't we see adults thinking like this little child all the time? And, isn't it true that that adult is sometimes us?

In our Gospel this weekend, Jesus is pouring his heart out to his apostles, telling them of how he must die. And the apostles, instead of listening to him, are arguing with each other about who is the greatest! Jesus sure had a lot to put up with!

This week, may each of us listen carefully to what Jesus is telling us in our lives. And Let's not miss an important message from him because of our chatter about things that matter a whole lot less. Let our hearts be softened and enlightened by his wise and loving teachings.

Last weekend we began our youth religious education program. It is good to see so many young people learning together about Jesus and our need to have him present in our lives and in our world. If you know of someone who may want to attend, please let their parents know that it is not too late. Call the rectory and we will sign them up!

God's Peace,
Deacon Dave

Please join us on Sunday, October 10th at noon as St. Andrew Parish welcomes a member of the Holy Family. St. Joseph impersonator, Mike Sacilowski, will be sharing the life story of Joseph in a live theatrical presentation entitled "God's son...my son". Accompany St. Joseph as he fulfills his call to be the human father to Jesus. From a turbulent and exciting beginning with Mary and Jesus, to living a simple life; hear how Joseph strived to protect his family and how he raised Jesus during the hidden years. See how this righteous man put his trust in God's plan for him and lived a life of obedience and action. Witness how he participated in the work of God and trusted in God to faithfully carry out the mission that God gave him. Listen to the Patron Saint of Workers share his words of wisdom and insights into the purpose of work and how work can be a path to holiness. This presentation is free and open to all ages. Lunch will be served. Please sign the sheet at the front entrance of the Church or call the rectory during business hours so we can properly prepare for lunch.
