Easter Greetings Everyone!

We have spent this past Lent praying, fasting, and focusing on works of charity. For 40 Days we sought to empty ourselves, to make more room in our lives for our Lord. Throughout Holy Week we not only remembered what Jesus did for us, but walked that very path with him through our liturgies that bring the past to the present in order that we can become participants in Christ's saving work.

Today as a Church we celebrate and proclaim that the infant who was born in a manger truly is God living and reigning. It is one thing to believe that a historical person named Jesus was born, taught, and brought healing to many. If only everyone truly believed the incredible fact that Creator of the universe conquered death, our world would be a wholly different place with everyone worshipping in exultation. Our faith teaches us this was a lot for the early Church to process as it remains for us today "Even when faced with the reality of the risen Jesus the disciples are still doubtful, so impossible did the thing seem: they thought they were seeing a ghost. 'In their joy they were still disbelieving and still wondering.' Thomas will also experience the test of doubt and St. Matthew relates that during the risen Lord's last appearance in Galilee 'some doubted.' Therefore the hypothesis that the Resurrection was produced by the apostles' faith (or credulity) will not hold up. On the contrary their faith in the Resurrection was born, under the action of divine grace, from their direct experience of the reality of the risen Jesus."

Today we celebrate a living God who wants to be an intimate part of our lives, most especially in Holy Communion the very means by which we are saved and transformed. What is it that we are looking for? Stability in a constantly changing world, renewal that starts from within, a peace that we just can't seem to find, a sense of purpose, a hope that the best is yet to come, or the feeling and knowledge that we are loved unconditionally, let us open our hearts to Christ for truly this is the Good News of the Gospel! Saint Paul tells us, "If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you." Jesus come and dwell in our hearts, we offer you are lives, help us to rise to new life! Have a joyous, blessed, and faith-filled Easter!

Christ is Risen, He Has Risen Indeed!!

Fr. Cole

Liturgical Adjustments

The onset of Holy Week, Spring, vaccinations, and declining COVID-19 cases has allowed the amending of some of the liturgical restrictions at the pastor/parish administrator's discretion. That is to say, worship may look slightly different from parish to parish as the unique needs of each community is discerned. Having consulted with our Pastoral Council President, Joseph Conti, parish musicians Brad Wingert and Alexis Marie, and appropriate liturgical ministers, consensus is that we believe it is time to take a small step toward returning to our customary form of worship.

We are pleased to announce the following modifications:

- ◆ A processional will be reintroduced, accompanied by a hymn to begin and end Mass.
- ◆ Altar servers will resume their ministry with safety precautions pertaining to their ministry remaining in place. Two will be the weekend norm at this time.
- ◆ The invitation to exchange a Sign of Peace will be reintroduced. Please maintain social distancing and refrain from touching. A nod, wave, or offering of the peace sign are presently most appropriate.
- ◆ The use of music ministry has been left to the discretion of our musicians at each worship site. However and whenever vocalists or instrumentalists are used, proper safety precautions will be followed.

What will be NOT be changing:

- ◇ Masks are required for all persons over the age of 2 and are to be worn throughout the whole of the liturgy. Hand sanitizer and disinfecting wipes will remain available.
- ◇ Seating will be every other pew. Family units may sit together and social distancing between all others must be observed. Seating is not permitted in the Ushers or Crying Rooms.
- ◇ The Offertory Procession will remain omitted to facilitate social distancing and reduce the touching of vessels.
- ◇ Communion will continue to be distributed only in the hand and without Precious Blood.

If you are vulnerable, feel ill, or uncomfortable coming to Mass please consider your safety and the safety of others above all else. Catholics in the Diocese of Buffalo continue to be dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays.

If you have any questions, please contact Fr. Cole at the rectory.
716-754-4118

A Message from our Principal

Blessings and good wishes to all of our St. Peter and St. Bernard friends on this most blessed and holy days of the year...
HAPPY EASTER

I am sure you are filled to the brim with MY messages each week, and so I thought I would let this week's article be filled with the thoughts, feelings and activities of our students...the most wonderfully awesome group of children on the planet. Are they excited about the Easter bunny and jelly beans, vacations and time off from school???? Yes...but make sure you read though all of these comments and you will see a common thread that holds us all together and what makes our CATHOLIC school stand apart from other schools. I visited each class, after giving them a heads up that I wanted to come to their rooms this past week and talk a bit about Easter...here are some of the things I learned:

From the time little voices in PreK as they colored Easter eggs with crosses on them... they said that Jesus died so we could have the Easter bunny :)

In Kindergarten, stained glass Easter egg decorations reminded them of the stained glass windows in Church, and from their they "got to" the story of Jesus dying on the cross for us because He loved us so much. :)

Grade 1 and I had a very interesting conversation one day about the difference between a "cross" and a "crucifix." We started looking around the classroom and identifying which was which and why...I shared the crucifix I wear each day which triggered quite a conversation...and later I saw them "checking out" these differences as they passed crosses and crucifixes throughout our building! Hmmm...that was definitely not a "planned" lesson, but a heartfelt one just the same.

Preparing for First Penance next month, second graders talked about Jesus on the cross dying to forgive us for our sins...that is Good Friday, they reminded me, and Easter is when He rose from the dead so we could go to heaven. "There are a lot of those holy days, Mrs. Ingham, when it was close to the day Jesus was dying! (Holy Week in a nutshell) :) :)

A deeper understanding begins in Grade 3 as these students get ready to receive the body and blood of Jesus in the sacrament of Holy Eucharist. The bulletin board outside their classroom door tells the story..."Seasons change, but the love of Jesus is the same...now, forever and always." :) :)

Grade 4...was pretty exceptional as the children wrote their description of each station and illustrated it, and then videotaped and shared them with their families...WOW...what a deep message as one boy said..."doing the stations this way really helped us feel what Jesus felt." I have to admit...watching these presentations via ZOOM touched me in a most special way as well... :) :)

Grade 5 is pretty amazing as they shared so many different facts they have learned about Easter. This year they lived each day of Holy Week as they walked the path with Jesus, with the apostles, with Mary and shared how they felt each of these people was feeling all those years ago. They then moved to how it made them feel as they read and viewed the path to Calvary with Jesus...hurt, anger, gratefulness, fear, pain...are just a few of their emotional responses...
they Get IT! :) :)

Doing for others is the message of Easter most relevant to students in Grade 6. They made cards and signs for the residents at OLP and felt that was something Jesus would be happy they were doing. This entire class also earned a "Gem for Jesus" just for being themselves...good and kind and thoughtful to one another...all the time...and once again making Jesus smile! :) :)

As the smallest class in our school, these preteens in Grade 7 had much to say and truly showed the depth of their understanding of the true meaning of Easter. They wondered about things like...how did we get the jelly beans and bunny traditions when this was really a day about Jesus, and that quickly became an assignment to determine the "facts." Another student painted Easter eggs with crosses instead of squiggles and stripes...a real understanding and representation of the "holy day and the "holi" day!

Did you see the shadow stations performed by Grade 8? If not, take 20 minutes and visit our website where they are posted. As these students leave our SPS family at their graduation this June, they will have lived the true tradition and the foundation of their Catholic faith. They walked and talked and felt the Passion of Jesus and the overwhelming love He has for all of us. What greater message can we give our children than the gift of Jesus love for each of us????
In my book...NONE! :) :)

HAPPY EASTER TO ALL FROM OUR SAINT PETER SCHOOL FAMILY
MAY GOD BLESS YOU AND YOUR FAMILIES ALWAYS AND MAY YOU NEVER EVER FORGET JUST HOW MUCH HE LOVES YOU!
