Easter Greetings!

What a busy and wonderful celebration last Sunday! We were so blessed to be able to have Bishop Michael Fisher join us at the 10:00am Mass to install me as pastor, bless our mothers on their special day, and lead us in our May Crowning. A very special THANK YOU to all of our youngsters who participated in the crowning of our Blessed Mother by bringing up a flower, what a truly remarkable way to honor the woman who bore our Savior! After a very nice albeit brief lunch, I gave Bishop Mike a tour of our area. Upon his arrival to Lewiston, he remarked that, "This is the furthest north I have been so far." We drove past Stella Niagara, our St. Bernard site, and stopped for a quick tour of Old Fort Niagara. As a history buff, the bishop enjoyed himself taking numerous pictures to remember the occasion. After celebrating a beautiful Mass for the Sisters of the Sacred Heart during which he heard the Final Profession of Sr. Maryann and Sr. Emilia, we were treated to a scrumptious dinner by the sisters at their convent and school. All in all, a very busy day but Bishop Mike certainly left having experienced some of the highlights of our Lewiston and Youngstown region.

As we approach Pentecost next week, let us surround all our youth and adults who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on Monday, May 24 conferred by our Vicar General, Rev. Peter Karalus. May the Holy Spirit fill them, draw them ever closer to Christ, and empower them to be active witnesses in the world by directing their unique gifts and talents for God's glory!

Lastly, this past Monday the Pastoral Council met for the final time this year. However, we ended by breaking into working groups who have been tasked to put together reports detailing some ways we can reengage those who have not yet returned to worship. While our parish has many exciting things planned for summer, we need to be looking and planning into the future. Currently, our Sunday attendance is about half of that prior to the pandemic. As is often said, the best tool for evangelization is simply word of mouth. Do you feel safe meeting Christ in the sacraments? If you do, please tell others of your experience. A simple invitation goes a long way!

Christ is Risen! He is Risen, Indeed!
Fr. Cole

Religious Orders

Question: What is the meaning of the letters that professed religious have after their names?

Answer:

The Catholic Church includes hundreds of religious communities. The priests, religious brothers, religious sisters, and nuns of these communities (which are often referred to as "religious orders") are committed to particular spiritual traditions and often to a particular charism (such as teaching, healthcare, social work, or pastoral care).

To help identify a person as a member of a particular religious community, the custom developed of including post-nominal letters that provide a sort of shorthand for the name of the community that the priest, brother, sister or nun is part of. So, for example OSB after a person's name would indicate that they are a member of the Order of St. Benedict (the Benedictines), just as SJ would indicate that a priest or brother is a member of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) or RSM would show that a woman is a Sister of Mercy.

Other common examples include:

DC = Daughters of Charity

FSC = The Brothers of the Christian Schools/Christian Brothers

OCist = The Order of Cistercians

OCD = Order of Discalced Carmelites

OFM = The Order of Friars Minor (the Franciscans)

OFM Cap = The Capuchin Franciscans

OP = The Order of Preachers (Dominicans)

OSF=Franciscan Sisters

SC = Sisters of Charity

SDS = Society of the Divine Savior (Salvatorian Priests and Brothers and Salvatorian Sisters)

SSND = School Sisters of Notre Dame

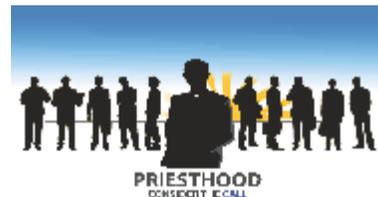

SVD = Society of the Divine Word (Divine Word Missionaries)

Come on in!

With more people coming back to Mass on the weekend (which is a wonderful thing to see) we need to be aware of our space restrictions due to the Covid19 pandemic. Many times, at both worship sites, one person sits at one end of a pew and another person sits at the other end, leaving the middle unused which could fit additional people safely. Please take a moment to look around and be considerate of our fellow parishioners and friends looking for somewhere to sit. Either move to the center of the pew or step out so they can go into the middle of the pew and then you can sit back on the end. We are a welcoming community of believers! Let us live out our faith in everything we say and do! All Are Welcome!!

To learn more, call Fr. Dennis Baker at 716-847-5535 or visit buffalovocations.org

The Bereavement Committee of St. Peter & St. Bernard is available to help when a family loses a loved one. Members are available to help in planning and assisting with the funeral service, presence at the wake and funeral, telephone assistance, house sitting, transportation, child care and/or pet care. If we are able to help in any of these areas, please call the rectory office at 754-4118.

The Respect Life Committee will be collecting baby items for Summit Life Outreach Center in Niagara Falls during the month of May. Items may be dropped off in the pack n plays at both churches. Items in need include: diapers size 4, 5, 6; baby hooded towels; Enfamil formula; and baby hygiene supplies.

To read more about the wonderful work being done at Summit Life Outreach, please visit www.summitlifecenter.com.

Thank you for your support!

A Message from Mrs. Ingham

Well... our first week of co-principaling went very well on all fronts, I would say. Mrs. Eadie and I have been meeting with each other, meeting with teachers, visiting classrooms, and asking and answering a million questions a day...faster than you can imagine. I have moved into the outer part of the office and have set up a large card table where I am working...(and whenever the teachers come in they want to know where I keep my deck of cards!!!) Slowly, but surely, I am emptying drawers, sorting through files and packing memories of so many wonderful years at my home away from home. Thank goodness Mrs. Eadie is patient with me as this task is a tough one, at best! It is a great opportunity that Mrs. Eadie and I have given to ourselves to spend this time working together. It allows me to show her lots of the inner workings of our school, and it allows her to travel back to Our Lady of Black Rock, as needed, to do some of the same administrative and end of the year activities as OLBR merges with Catholic Academy of West Buffalo.

But while the principals are meeting and learning and packing and sharing, the children and their lives at school, continue, pretty much undisturbed!

- ◆ The students in Grade 2 will be visited by Assemblyman Morinello who will read a story to them over ZOOM, followed by the delivery of an ice cream making kit for each student
- ◆ Grade 3 has lined the second floor hallway with their detailed and educational eco-systems...each one different from the next and all outstanding
- ◆ Ducaín Neal, a fifth grader, won our annual Geo-Bee, out-answering all students in Grades 5,6,7 and 8. Way to go, Duke!
- ◆ Middle School students have begun several after school on-line academic clubs with their teachers and are anxious for next year, when hopefully, they can host these meetings face to face.
- ◆ Not one class misses a warm weather moment to travel outside for a walk around the block or some much needed playground time.
- ◆ We welcomed Mrs. Eadie and celebrated Father Cole as our new Pastor as the students presented each with some SPS apparel at our Mass on May 7.
- ◆ Speaking of Mass, we have included more classes at Mass each week, maintaining social distance and wearing masks...and I cannot tell you how many of the children said that they like going to "Church" for Mass, way better than going to Mass "on their smartboard." AHHHHHHH...the gift of a Catholic School!

As we enter the midway point of May, we are readying ourselves for all of the typical end of the year activities. We are excited that this year we can return to some of the traditional practices, with safety precautions in place, and we will keep you posted with stories and pictures as this great school completes an absolutely awesome year!

Please keep all of us in your prayers each day...just as we keep you in ours.
God bless Saint Peter's... God bless us all!

Inviting all Homeschoolers!

- ◆ Have you been looking for other families in the area that homeschool?
- ◆ Are your kids interested in finding other homeschooling kids to socialize with?
- ◆ Would your kids like to have clubs to participate in?
- ◆ Are you thinking about homeschooling, but don't know where to start?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, call Donna Seaman at 545-2294 or email donna.seaman@gmail.com. Our St Peter parish has a small group of homeschooling kids that meets regularly. We are interested in building a local community and would like to extend an invitation to other homeschooling families to join. For those considering homeschooling, we are available to answer questions.
