Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

To My Spiritual Family of Holy Redeemer and St. Anthony,

Extraordinary "Ordinary" Time: We have returned to the liturgical season known as "Ordinary Time," named as such because the weeks are numbered (or to be precise – "ordered"). To be clear, though, every moment of our lives is a moment meant to be pregnant with the extraordinary. God is with us always. His grace is available. Like Mary at the Annunciation, we need only say "yes" to discover the extraordinary opportunities that lie hidden before us. The poet Gerard Manley Hopkins said it beautifully: The world is charged with the grandeur of God. As Christians, we have the privilege and the responsibility to bring Christ into every moment. Let's make those moments extraordinary!

St. Anthony of the Desert: In the 3rd century, Christians seeking a more profound experience of prayer and asceticism began to leave the cities and move into the desert. This was especially true in Egypt. Known as the Desert Fathers, such men as St. Anthony of Egypt paved the way for the manner of life we now call "monasticism." Anthony's feast day is tomorrow, January 17. Many of the "sayings" of the Desert Fathers have been preserved for our edification. Here is an example from St. Anthony: The devil is afraid of us when we pray and make sacrifices. He is also afraid when we are humble and good. He is especially afraid when we love Jesus very much. He runs away when we make the Sign of the Cross.

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children: So many of you share the hope that this will be the year when we see the Supreme Court strike down the Roe v. Wade decision of 1973 and thus return the question of abortion to the states. If that does indeed occur, it will be the answer to five decades of intense prayer, and it will give unborn children an increased chance of survival in America. Hearts and minds still need to be changed, though. The culture of death holds a tight grip on many, and we cannot rest until even the idea of abortion is unthinkable. Since the Day for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children falls on a Saturday this year (January 22), I invite you to Mass and Adoration at Holy Redeemer Church. Mass (with "an end to abortion" as our intention) will begin at 10:00 am. Adoration with the opportunity for confession will follow. Benediction will be at 12:15. Please join us.

Flocknote, please: Finally, I want to make another pitch to have everyone sign up for Flocknote, our parish communication/text network. Currently, well over 200 of you are subscribed. Thank you! But I'd like to see all of you receiving these daily texts! Not only does this give me a quick way to contact you, update you, and notify you, but on most days, I try to send out a message that offers inspiration or a challenge to grow in faith. Pretty much all you have to do to enroll is text the word "BEHOLD" to 84576. You can reply privately to me if you like, or you can simply receive and read. And if you grow tired of hearing from me, you can simply stop. Let's see if we can reach 300 subscribers!

Mary, Mother of the Redeemer – Pray for us!

St. Anthony – Pray for us!

St. Joseph – Pray for us!

Fr. Steve

Coffee and Donuts

The Knights of Columbus #964 will be serving coffee and donuts after 8:15 am Mass at Holy Redeemer on January 30th. Come and enjoy fellowship as our parish families celebrate the beginning of a new year.

Marriage Moment

Martin Luther King talked a lot about racial equality. What about equality in Marriage? Are both of you equally good at cooking, mechanical things, sewing, small talk? Probably not. Even though your spouse may have a natural talent for a particular task, try trading chores for a day, just for fun.

Family Perspective

At Cana we get a good insight into Mary's parenting style. She did not plead, argue, demand or manipulate. She merely pointed out the situation and trusted her son would make the best decision.

Earthly possessions dazzle our eyes and delude us into thinking that they can provide security and freedom from anxiety. Yet all the time they are the very source of anxiety.
 Prayer is not asking. Prayer is putting oneself in the hands of God, at His disposition, and listening to His voice in the depths of our hearts
