Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

To My Spiritual Family of Holy Redeemer and St. Anthony,

Donut Ya Know: We are so grateful to the men of the Knights of Columbus Council #964 for hosting a coffee and donut social after the 8:15 am Mass this Sunday. One of the devastating side effects of the coronavirus pandemic has been loneliness. As people have isolated in an attempt to stave off the virus, normal social interactions have been disrupted. But we need each other! The scriptures tell us “we are one body in Christ.” We are made for communion with one another. We are created to reflect the communion of the Blessed Trinity itself. When we are cut off from other human beings, when we aren’t able to share and talk and laugh with them, our psychological and emotional health is damaged (this is why “solitary confinement” is viewed by many as a form of torture). So as awesome as coffee and donuts are in themselves, the opportunity to be with one another is all the more important. Enjoy! And thank a Knight!

Tithing Our Blessings: This weekend’s collections are the last of the month and the last to be tithed into our Parish Emergency Fund for those in need. We’ve already had quite a few requests for help this year. We’ve paid a young mother’s electric bill, we’ve provided lodging for some homeless folks, we’ve given food assistance to a man down on his luck. And more! Your generosity makes this possible. Thank you! In February, our parish tithe will go to support the Clarendon Veteran’s Center. You may have heard that the old elementary school in Clarendon is being repurposed to house homeless veterans. The work that is being done there is marvelous! Also, sadly, the need is great. Are you aware that some of our heroic veterans are now living in tents in the surrounding mountains? They are. Be certain, then, that our February tithe will be put to very good use!

You go St. Joe! We wish a very happy Catholic Schools Week to all of our students and staff at St. Joseph Catholic School. For the kids, this is a week of dressing in crazy clothes, enjoying sweet treats, and taking a breather from their studies. It’s a week of fun! May I say a word, though, about our SJS faculty and staff? They (and almost every Catholic school employee throughout the nation) are grossly underpaid. Yet they stay (often for decades) and they teach and they nurture and they form young disciples for the Lord. Why do they do this? Why do they sacrifice? Because they love the children and they are dedicated to the gospel mission. So please, if you run into a St. Joseph teacher this week, thank them for their service to our youth. St. Joseph is a wonderful place! I encourage our young families to consider sending their own children there.

Daily Mass: Those of us who are at Mass every day know that a genuine community forms among those who attend. A spiritual bond exists. Even on some of our recent inclement weather days, folks were still with us for the Eucharist. What a gift to me, as pastor, to have such dedicated parishioners! Maybe daily Mass is something that you might want to make a habit? We’d love to have you. It’s another one of those ways of putting God at the center of our lives. And if the early morning Masses are not a possibility for you and your family, remember that we have Mass on Thursday evenings at 7:00 pm.

God bless you all and have a grace-filled week!

Mary, Mother of the Redeemer – Pray for us!

St. Anthony – Pray for us!

St. Joseph – Pray for us!

Fr. Steve

What is the Synod on Synodality?

Pope Francis has asked the entire world to participate in a synod on the topic "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, Mission." The central question he asks of everyone is:

A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, "journeys together." How is this "journeying together" happening today in our diocese? What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our "journeying together"?

We invite you to participate in listening sessions at Holy Redeemer beginning Sunday February 20th 27th and Sunday March 6th from 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm. Please RSVP to Audrey Davis at 814-968-5918 or Virginia Baker at 814-968-5341 before February 13th. Participation in a synod should always involve prayer, listening, discussion, and above all, discerning the way that the Holy Spirit is guiding us.

Catholic Schools Week

St. Joseph Catholic School will celebrate Catholic Schools Week January 30th—February 5th. There will be a school-honored Mass on Sunday, January 30th at 10:45 am at St. Joseph Church with an Open House of the school from 12:00 pm -2:00 pm.

Marriage Moment

Love is patient, kind, truthful, hopeful, enduring...
Love is not jealous, pompous, inflated, rude,
quick-tempered, brooding. (1 Corinthians 13:4-8)
Tell your beloved which positive quality you think they are strong in.

Family Perspective

Mary and Joseph must have been proud when their village "all spoke well of Jesus and were amazed at his words." But they probably felt shame when the same people drove him out of town. Like Mary and Joseph, the highs and lows of parenting are our path to being a Holy Family.
