A Word from Today's Scriptures

Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you, but do not follow their example. For they preach but they do not practice. Matt. 23:3

Lord Jesus, please don't let religion become a matter of show for me. I want to live a way of life in imitation of you, a way that reflects the love and mercy of the Father. Lord, make me a better disciple today.

Mass Intentions

There are still Mass Intentions available for 2023 at many of our parishes. Masses are offered for many reasons, not only for those who have died, but for those who are here with us as well, for health, birthday or anniversary blessings. If you are looking for a specific date or Mass, the earlier you call, the better chance that it will be available.

Contact the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS all those who are in need of God's comfort and healing, including: Mackenzie Refermat, Theresa Kwiatkowski, Joe & Susan Hoiden, Nicholas Oddo, Tom Pasek, Dawn Duncan, Nicole Lindner, Terry Moore, Marlene Smith, Marian Butler, Gary Powers, Christine Mayer, Bill Chapman, Jim Nowinski, Marcia Kegler, Ken Warren, Catherine Boling, Marie Boller, Sharon Pfeiffer, Helen Poltowicz, Ron Soper, Gilbert Fries, Michael McNally, Theodore Langner, Beverly & David Pellittieri, Joe Adams, Sharon Kruzawski, Dan Labuzzetta, Jen Monroe, Walter Gabalski, Shirley Wheeler, Nicole M. Please let us know when your loved one can be removed from the sick list.

Offertory Envelopes – Reminder

All offertory collections will remain at the individual parish. If you happen to attend a Mass at a different Parish, drop your envelope in their collection, that parish will forward your envelope to the appropriate rectory. If your parish offers electronic giving, you may still take advantage of that option.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST WEEK OF OCTOBER 29, 2023
Weekend Collection	$ 6,162.44
WeShare Donations	$ 1,457.00

A reminder regarding flags placed in the Cemetery:

According to the federal flag code, American flags that have been irreversibly damaged or otherwise soiled must always be retired in a dignified manner. Please do not throw the soiled flags in the garbage.

Local Veterans organization and scout troops often have flag burning ceremonies to respectfully disposed of tattered flags. If you are unsure of where to take your flag, please bring it to the parish office and we will make sure it is properly cared for.

With Veterans Day coming up, you may want to place a flag on your loved ones grave. When the time comes, please keep in mind that you must properly dispose of the flag. Thank you.

Attention all Extraordinary Ministers and those who would like to be Extraordinary Ministers

We are developing a dedicated spirit-filled ministry of individuals who would like to provide the important sacrament of communion to the home bound. If you are interested in helping with this very important ministry, please contact your parish office (St. John the Baptist: Contact Rita Radder at 716-937-6689 or 716-507-2659.

SANCTUARY CANDLE INTENTIONS

The Sanctuary Candle is the red candle next to the Tabernacle, which signifies the real presence of Christ within it. Parishioners can dedicate the Sanctuary Candle in memory of a loved one, each week; the name is published in the bulletin so that your intention can be prayed for by everyone during that time. Please call the parish office to schedule a week, check availability and donation amount.
