Memory of the Benedictine Sisters

I worked at the convent for 10 years as one of the nurses caring for the older sisters. We helped them shower, gave out their medication, and took them to doctor appointments and shopping. These became my greatest days as a nurse. They were nothing like the strict nuns you remember as a child (ruler in hand). I hope everyone can forgive and forget those nuns. They had been taught that the only way children listened was by being tough. The sister's I cared for were kind and loving.

I remember the day that I was helping one with her shower and we were singing loud and clear. Another sister ran up and said, "Mass is going on and your singing is louder than the organ!" We couldn't help but to laugh.

I fell in love with every one of them. Each were prayerful and loving to me. I made a promise to each sister that I would be there when God called them "home"; and I kept that promise even at 3 o'clock in the morning if the need arose. Now when I feel like I need a little help, I just go over to the Convent Cemetery to pray and they always help me.

I once witnessed a miracle caring for the nuns... For a few years I brought communion to the 2nd floor. I was told not to give it to the sister with advanced dementia, because she wouldn't understand. I really didn't think that was a good reason to refuse her communion, so I asked the Bishop one day at lunch what he thought of sister receiving communion. He said that if she could chew and swallow, it was fine with him. By this time, she was just staring into space most of the time. We told her that Jesus was coming, so she opened her mouth and had the most beautiful smile on her face. She definitely still understood Holy Communion. Jesus is greater than dementia.

THE LORD BE WITH YOU!

Dear people of St. Mary's,

The 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, casts the spotlight on JESUS [GOD's word become flesh]. We are being shown that the divine plan found in the Torah [the Law & the Prophets, and other writings of the Old Covenant, is becoming the mission of JESUS—GOD's Son whom He promised would bring a time of favor—as accounted by the prophet Nehemiah [Chapter 8] in the first reading, today.

The Book of Isaiah has been called the fifth Gospel, so often do saints Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John quote from it to proclaiming JESUS as Christ, the long-awaited Messiah and Son of GOD. In today's Gospel, JESUS begins to move through His home territory of Galilee "in the power of the Spirit" [Luke 4:14]. This is the same Spirit that descended on JESUS after His baptism. JESUS then goes to His hometown of Nazareth and to the synagogue on the Sabbath.

A hush must have fallen on the room as JESUS to read from the Torah, the passage from Isaiah. They had been hearing about His time in Galilee and how all had praised His teaching. What would He say to them? JESUS chose GOD's words spoken through Isaiah [61:1-2a] about one anointed by the Spirit who would preach good news to the poor, bring liberty to captives, and, at the heart of these lines, exercise a ministry of compassion—also spoken of by Isaiah [42:6b].

This three-part mission continues to be the work of JESUS through His church which He established on His apostles. Today His church preaches the Gospel, works for social justice, and reaches out to people with compassion. As JESUS began, He announced to those listening, that this work was being fulfilled by what He Himself was doing [identifying Himself as the messiah in their midst]. The Spirit works to continue the mission of JESUS today through us [as members of JESUS' body, the church, each of us doing his/her own part of that work].

There is an important question which we should be asking ourselves: How am I personally engaged in this "work of Christ JESUS" each and every day of my life—by my words, my deeds, and the way I live?

Let us pray—Loving GOD we are followers of your Son, JESUS Christ—we are Christians—help us to be busy about the work He has given us. Bless us for we want to be Your faithful followers! Help us realize that we gain the strength and courage we need from the Holy Eucharist and other Sacraments JESUS gives to us through His church.
