CALL TO HOLINESS WHAT IS PRAYER ?

Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta says: "Prayer is not asking. Prayer is putting oneself in the hands of God, at his disposition, and listening to His voice in the depth of our hearts." All of her life, she was able to surrender herself at the most critical moments, fully trusting that whatever came her way, she could say in the silence of her heart a simple "fiat" - "let it be done." Mother was confident that the divine dwelling place of her heart could be entrusted and surrendered to God. It got her off a train in India; He allowed her to set out all alone into the poverty of Calcutta; feeding, healing, teaching, the lessons she had learned in her prayer time with the Lord.

When we stop asking and start listening, allowing ourselves to rest in the silence of our heart with Christ, we may find ourselves taking a journey. A journey far beyond our comfort zone and our childlike asking, to the place and people the Lord needs us to care for in His Name.

"Oh Lord, we commend ourselves to your will and we place ourselves in the silence of our hearts where you speak."

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Every first Saturday of the month, (November, 6 after the 5:00pm mass), the Sacrament of the Sick will be celebrated for anyone wishing to be anointed. In the Sacrament of the Sick, a person who is ill, preparing for surgery or suffering physically or spiritually can be anointed. Anointing with oil is intended to strengthen the individual in the face the illness and to assure them of the prayers and support of the entire faith community in their time of need. Let us together, raise up in prayer all of our brothers and sisters who are in need of healing, that the Lord will make His presence known and healing of body and spirit.

LUMINOUS MYSTERIES.

Should Pope St. John Paul II have “changed” the Rosary by adding mysteries?...

...In June of 1917, Our Lady appeared to three children at Fatima and asked them to add a prayer after every decade of the Rosary. “Oh my Jesus, forgive us our sins . . . ” It seems then that the Rosary can be changed for the good of the Church. The Luminous Mysteries not only draw the mind to important moments in the earthly life of Christ, but also to the most important moments in a Christian’s earthly life: namely, his or her reception of the Sacraments.

Christ’s Baptism in the Jordan reminds us of our own rebirth in Christ. The Miracle at Cana recalls the sacrament of matrimony. Christ’s Preaching of the Kingdom and call to conversion bring to mind three sacraments: confirmation, which strengthens one to witness to the Gospel; reconciliation, which follows on conversion; and anointing of the sick, which was conferred by the Apostles in their first preaching mission (Mark 6:13). The Institution of the Eucharist reminds us not only of the Eucharist, but also the sacrament of holy orders, which Christ instituted that same evening. The mystery of the Transfiguration summarizes all seven sacraments, as they are meant to transform us by grace unto eternal glory...It could be said that: (1) While no one may add to the number of Psalms since the Psalms are a part of Scripture, Hail Marys may be added to the Rosary, even as most Catholics add three to the beginning of the Rosary for an increase in faith, hope, and love. (2) Our Lady delights in nothing more than drawing our attention to her Son.

SAINT OF THE DAY

SAINT ALPHONSUS RODRIGUEZ, OCTOBER 30

Tragedy and challenge beset today’s saint early in life, but Alphonsus Rodriguez found happiness and contentment through simple service and prayer.

Born in Spain in 1533, Alphonsus inherited the family textile business at 23. Within the space of three years, his wife, daughter, and mother died; meanwhile, business was poor. Alphonsus stepped back and reassessed his life. He sold the business, and with his young son, moved into his sister’s home. There he learned the discipline of prayer and meditation. At the death of his son years later, Alphonsus, almost 40 by then, sought to join the Jesuits. He was not helped by his poor education. He applied twice before being admitted. For 45 years he served as doorkeeper at the Jesuits’ college in Majorca. When not at his post, he was almost always at prayer, though he often encountered difficulties and temptations.

His holiness and prayerfulness attracted many to him, including Saint Peter Claver, then a Jesuit seminarian. Alphonsus’ life as doorkeeper may have been humdrum, but centuries later he caught the attention of poet and fellow-Jesuit Gerard Manley Hopkins, who made him the subject of one of his poems.

Alphonsus died in 1617. He is the patron saint of Majorca.

Reflection

We like to think that God rewards the good, even in this life. But Alphonsus knew business losses, painful bereavement, and periods when God seemed very distant. None of his suffering made him withdraw into a shell of self-pity or bitterness. Rather, he reached out to others who lived with pain, including enslaved Africans. Among the many notables at his funeral were the sick and poor people whose lives he had touched. May they find such a friend in us!
