MINISTRIES FOR THE SICK

If someone is having surgery and would like the Sacrament of the Sick, please contact the rectory to make arrangements with one of the priests. In an emergency please do not hesitate to call the rectory day or night.

CALL TO HOLINESS

It is a great help to progress in the spiritual life, when you possess a friend who is privileged to point out to you your failings.

St. Ignatius of Loyola

There is a saying that I like to use when seeking a spiritual path... "ducks need ducks". We all need people in our life that are courageous enough to tell us what we need to hear. An individual who is like us - one seeking the spiritual life. A spiritual partner who is striving to follow the Lord.

A cow can teach a duck very little, ducks need ducks! We all need a friend; a spiritual voice that is not concerned about the repercussions of pointing out our failings and is willing to drag us along, when we fall behind. Do you have someone in your life that loves you enough to put before you a concern they have that may be leading you away from the Lord; someone close, that you would trust to be your guide; a holy man or woman who is not afraid to journey the spiritual life with you?

St. Ignatius intercede and help us find our spiritual partner.

CONFIRMATION MEETING

For all who have not received or are planning to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, the next meeting will be on November 21, at 6:30pm in St. Benedict's Church.

PRE CANA

RCIA

We all know someone who is searching; maybe the RCIA process will bring them direction for their spiritual journey. Our RCIA Group will meet on November 16 at 6:30pm at St. Leo the Great. If we all accept our responsibility to become disciples of invitation, the Lord will bless us with renewed faith and animate our parish community!

GENERATIONS OF FAITH

Generations of Faith is our Religious Education Program. We meet 9:00am in the school cafeteria once a month on Sundays and a few extra times throughout the year. It is an inter-generational gathering. (Our next meeting Nov, 14). Anyone in the parish, young families, those with special needs, all who want to receive the sacraments or attend faith formation, please contact Andrew Pitisi.

✦ Any questions regarding the religious ed programs, please email Andrew at apitisi@saintbenedicts.com.

MEN'S PRAYER GROUP

BELLS RING OUT

Have you heard our new bells? We recently upgraded to a brand new electronic carillon bell system! The sound of the bells is very bright and crisp, and makes our presence known in the neighborhood! The new bells ring on the hour and half-hour between 8am to 8pm. They will also ring specially as a reminder to pray at 12pm and 6pm, the time the Church traditionally prays the Angelus. To see what the bells look & sound like, check out our video tour of the bells on our Youtube Channel & Facebook page!

The Angelus Prayer

If you'd like to join in praying this universal prayer of the Church:

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary,
R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, full of grace...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.
R. Be it done unto me according to Your Word.

Hail Mary, full of grace...

V. And the Word was made flesh,
R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary, full of grace...

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech You, O Lord,
Your Grace into our hearts;

that as we have known the incarnation of Christ,
your Son by the message of an angel,

so by His passion and cross

we may be brought to the glory of His Resurrection.

Through the same Christ, our Lord. Amen.

SAINT OF THE DAY

ST. ROSE DUCHESNE, NOVEMBER 20

Born in Grenoble, France, of a family that was among the new rich, Rose learned political skills from her father and a love of the poor from her mother. The dominant feature of her temperament was a strong and dauntless will, which became the material—and the battlefield—of her holiness. She entered the Visitation of Mary convent at 19, and remained despite family opposition. As the French Revolution broke, the convent was closed, and she began taking care of the poor and sick, opened a school for homeless children, and risked her life helping priests in the underground.

When the situation cooled, Rose personally rented the former convent, now a shambles, and tried to revive its religious life. The spirit was gone... soon there were only four nuns left. They joined the infant Society of the Sacred Heart... In a short time, Rose was a superior and supervisor of the novitiate and a school. But since hearing tales of missionary work in Louisiana as a little girl, her ambition was to go to America and work among the Indians. At 49, she thought this would be her work. With four nuns, she spent 11 weeks at sea en route to New Orleans, and 7 weeks more on the Mississippi to St. Louis... The bishop had no place for them to live and work among Native Americans. Instead, he sent her to what she sadly called “the remotest village in the U.S.,” St. Charles, MO.. With characteristic drive and courage, she founded the first free school for girls west of the Mississippi.

Though Rose was as hardy as any of the pioneer women in the wagons rolling west, cold and hunger drove them out—to Florissant, Missouri, where she founded the first Catholic Indian school, adding others in the territory. “In her first decade in America, Mother Duchesne suffered practically every hardship the frontier had to offer...poor lodging, shortages of food, drinking water, fuel and money, forest fires...” (L. Callan, R.S.C.J., Philippine Duchesne). At age 72, retired and in poor health, Rose got her lifelong wish. A mission was founded at Sugar Creek, KS, among the Potawatomi and she was taken along. Though she could not learn their language, they soon named her “Woman-Who-Prays-Always.” ... Rose Duchesne died in 1852, at the age of 83, and canonized in 1988.
