Thoughts from Fr. Mike

This will be an exciting year in the Diocese of Buffalo. St. Joseph is the patron of our Diocese. Pope Francis, in response to the call of the Holy Father Francis, in his apostolic letter "Patris Corde" on the 150th Anniversary of the Proclamation of St. Joseph as patron of the Universal Church honored this year. Our Diocese will be holding a diocesan-wide consecration to St. Joseph. In a visit to Rome with Pope Pius IX in 1849, it was suggested to Bishop Timon that our Diocese have the patronage to St. Joseph and later St. Joseph Cathedral on July 1, 1855. Our new Bishop and Shepherd is encouraging all the faithful to join with him in unity to St. Joseph. We will begin on Monday, February 15 and culminate on the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Friday, March 19.

We will be learning a lot more about this consecration to St. Joseph. He is truly a great Saint of our Church. We are fortunate to have him as the Patron of our Diocese.

St. Joseph, pray for us.

Peace,
Fr. Mike

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

Greetings,

There will be a lot going on at the Center this week. Valentine's Day and President's Week, just to name a few. The children will be coloring hearts and hearing stories about Washington and Lincoln. It will be our last day before February break. Hopefully by now we know if that old groundhog saw his shadow or not. We really hope spring is around the corner. Each day we stand outside to greet the children as they come into the building (we are still not letting parents or grandparents in the building). It has been so cold, warmer weather would be a nice change. But I am sure it will be here in due time. Until then, Mrs. Neumeister, Miss Renee and I will just have to bundle up!

We are accepting registrations for September Pre K 3 and Pre K 4. Please call the office for more information. We would love to tell you all about our great Center! Thank you to Father Mike and the wonderful St. Francis Parish for the constant support and prayers. Even in this hardest of times, we are doing well and keeping everyone safe. Please do the same! Be safe and wear a mask!!

Peace & Love,

Sally Babcock ~ ECC Director

Many vendors, such as Amazon and Walmart, have e-gift cards which are available almost immediately when you pay electronically with PrestoPay or a credit card, and physical gift cards can be ordered as well. Help support St. Francis of Assisi Parish even as we must remain physically distant from each other.

ST. FRANCIS FAMILY CLOTHES CLOSET

A Clothes Closet for infants, children and adults is available in the St. Francis of Assisi Church basement (use entrance by the ramp). All clothing is free. Call the Outreach office at 693-6247 if you have any questions. Donations of gently used, laundered children's and adult clothing are appreciated. Please drop off your donations during regular hours.

LIFELONG FAITH FORMATION

- We continue looking at our "Top 10 Reasons for being Catholic!". If you missed last week, check the bulletin online!

Reason #4. Apostolic Tradition

Jesus proclaimed: "And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church. ...I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 16:18,19). We believe the Church was built on the witness of the first apostles and carried on by their successors and the Christian community through the ages. The pope receives his authority through an unbroken line of succession that began with Saint Peter. Each pope receives the keys of Saint Peter and thereby directly carries on the work of Jesus Christ. The pope, also known as the Bishop of Rome, and all bishops, are connected to this apostolic succession. The bishops ordain priests and deacons who serve the community and lead us in the celebration of the sacraments. As members of the Catholic Church, we are connected to Jesus and his Gospel through this apostolic tradition.

Reason #5. Mary, Our Blessed Mother

We love and honor Mary, our heavenly mother, just as Jesus did. We give her respect and reverence as the Mother of God. We listen to her son, Jesus, when he speaks from the cross: "Behold, your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home" (John 19:27). We take Mary into our hearts. We do not worship Mary (she is only human), but we do honor her for saying "yes" to the Holy Spirit, for her closeness to her Son, and for being Jesus' first and most faithful disciple. We recognize Mary as the Mother of the Church - mother of salvation - for guiding the Church and leading each of her faithful into a closer relationship with her son, our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Reason #6. Scripture & Tradition

We believe our faith is built on both Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition. For years, the Christian faith was passed on through oral tradition. "So then, brethren, stand firm and hold to the traditions which you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by letter" (Thessalonians 2:15). It was much later, at the Council of Carthage in 379 A.D., when the Catholic Church declared which writings were divinely inspired and selected for the canon of Sacred Scripture, the Bible, which inspires our doctrine, our prayers, and our way of life. Even so, the oral tradition continued in addition to the written Scriptures. This tradition, which can be traced back to the apostles, is called our Sacred Tradition. We believe the Church continues to be guided by the Holy Spirit through the teaching authority of the Church (the communion of Bishops, known as the Magisterium), which addresses the issues of our time and speaks the Truth in one voice. The Catechism of the Catholic Church contains our sacred teachings.

Stay tuned for Reasons 7-10 next week!

- Check out the "Friends of St. Francis of Assisi" Facebook group or @st francis tonawanda Instagram live broadcast with Michael and SueAnn Saltarelli at 8 p.m. on Wednesdays during Lent (2-17 thru 3/31). GOSPEL MEDITATION*5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If I only knew then what I know now, how different life would be. This sentiment, expressed in myriad ways, is found on every human being's lips at one point or another. Life may have brought us to a vulnerable place where we see some of the poor choices we made and the effects they are having. Perhaps we fell into some destructive and dysfunctional relationships or behaviors and are finding how they held us captive. Our zeal and passion for life may have drifted away and we are waking up to the reasons apathy has taken hold. Life can be hard. In fact, some would describe their lives as a drudgery. They walk through each day with an anxious unsettledness, wondering when their restlessness will cease. There is a temptation to believe that what I see is all I will get. Mortality and hopelessness await the dawn. If I could only have known what would come in the future, I could have made better choices and avoided all of this misery!

Really? While we can certainly give into weakness, sin, impulsiveness, and idiosyncrasies that cause us to stumble over ourselves, life is really a journey. If we don't make the mistake of wallowing in the mire of self-pity and realize the new life God is calling us to, then there are thrills, adventures, surprises, and soul-searching graces we can surely miss. We are not tethered to our past nor are we bound to the ills life can bring upon us. We are never hopeless or helpless. The problem is that our myopic vision only allows us to see the misery and misfortune that is before us, not the potential that can come from choosing healthier and more life-giving options. Jesus came that we might have fullness of life. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet.

We need to allow God into our pain and heal our past. We have to wrestle with our histories, agonize and search and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. Job could not see how his story would end or trust the guidance of the God who called him. We live in that same blindness and suffer from the same lack of confidence. Once we allow ourselves to be touched by God's healing power, we begin to see that all of the pieces of our lives are necessary parts of a greater whole. Along the way of our lives, God uses our omissions and failures to create new things and possibilities. When doors close, others open and we can be amazed by the joyful and unexpected surprises we receive. Once we know the power of God's creative, healing, life-giving, forgiving, and dynamic presence, it is no wonder we want to put ourselves at the service of others and show them what life can be.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP*The Audacity of Holiness

Do you know a holy person? I'm not talking about piety — that's important, too, in its own way. But right now, I'm speaking of holiness.

St. Therese of Lisieux called holiness “a disposition of the heart that makes us humble and little in the arms of God, aware of our weakness, and confident — in the most audacious way — in His Fatherly goodness.”

The holy person sees a storm on the horizon of life, and rather than give themselves over to fear and despair (natural and understandable reactions), regards the gathering winds as an opportunity to rely more fully on God. The holy person takes a bad situation and sanctifies it with charity and understanding that defies our fallen human nature.

Peter's mother-in-law was still in the throes of a fever when Jesus grasped her hand. It wasn't until she took his hand and allowed him to help her up that “the fever left her and she waited on them.” Before the fever could leave her, she had to commit to holiness — to put her trust in him in a most audacious way. She had to find it within herself to lift her weakened hand to grasp his — and as soon as she did, she was rewarded. Her bodily health restored, she gave thanks, and attended to his needs.

God's hand is always outstretched to us. Will we take it, even if the fever of sin and pride and worldly concerns rages in our souls? Will we muster the strength? Will we be audacious enough to have confidence in His Fatherly goodness?
