School News

Dear Friends of SJV

As we reflect on the many blessings in our lives, I am filled with gratitude for the incredible Saint John Vianney family. This Thanksgiving was a special time for our school community, as we came together to celebrate the spirit of gratitude and unity. Our Thanksgiving celebration was a beautiful reflection of the love and support that defines SJV. We had many parent volunteers join us and prepare a Thanksgiving feast that all of our students were able to eat together and enjoy. Father Greg joined us as well to offer the blessing and show his support for our wonderful school. Our Thanksgiving celebration was a testament to the sense of community that defines SJV. The warmth and camaraderie shared during this special time were truly heartwarming. It is in moments like these that we are reminded of the strength and unity that binds us together.

As we move forward, let us carry the spirit of Thanksgiving with us every day. Let us continue to be grateful for the gift of education, the support of our community, and the boundless potential of our students.

Wishing you all a blessed and joyful season ahead,
Andrew Woodrow, SJV Assistant Principal

Faculty SPOTLIGHT

I have to admit that I did not always know I wanted to be a teacher. I went to school to be a physical therapist, at first. After playing sports my entire life, I had always been fascinated by the rehab process for athletes. I thought I was going to move to Buffalo and eventually work for the Bills and rehab knee injuries. Well, turns out I did not like my science classes! But I LOVED my history classes. When I officially changed my major there was an overwhelming feeling of being exactly where I was always meant to be. So, I ended up getting my bachelors degree in history and my masters in Adolescence Education! I became NYS certified in 7-12 Social Studies.

When I am not at school I am following my own kids' sports all over WNY. You can find me at some basketball court or a baseball field in the area most days! My oldest daughter is a freshman at St Mary's High School and an SJV alumni, my middle son is a 6th grader at St John Vianney and my youngest son is in Pre-K! I enjoy my morning bootcamp classes, my comedy podcasts, OBX, and the Bills!

We have been parishioners for many years and when the opportunity came to be part of the staff I did not even think twice about it! When you love what you do, you'll never work a day in your life, right? SJV is a truly special place to spend each day! I thank God everyday for the gift of being able to do what I love everyday in a place like SJV!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE - 1st Sunday of Advent

Lately I've been listening to a science-based podcast on healthy daily living. The host frequently discusses the wide range of health benefits of sleep. So, each night I'm trying to get more, and better, slumber, and it's helping me feel energized. So, why in the world should we follow Christ's advice this week? "Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house will come ... lest he find you asleep." Isn't sleep, especially at midnight and cockerow, a good thing?

Of course, it is. But the wakefulness the Lord calls us to is a deep, personal orientation to Him. A nightly vigil is therefore a metaphor for this, but it's not just that. We should give up real sleep in order to pray, too. This difficult practice is a time-tested way to foster wakefulness of heart. When we give up sleep to pray, it focuses us. We learn that life is not an endless series of days. You and I belong to the Lord — awake or asleep, in life and in death. Sooner or later, even our need for our physical sleep will pass away. And our attentiveness to God — that is, whether we are awaiting Him to meet us — will be all that matters.

May I challenge us this week and this Advent to intentionally give up at least one hour of sleep each week for prayer? Stay up later, wake up in the middle of the night, or an hour earlier, and pray. Will we be a bit more tired the next day? Yes. But we'll be amazed at the spiritual wakefulness that results, too.

— Father John Muir
