FROM THE PASTOR

An extract from the “St. Paul’s Roman Catholic Church: Centennial of Faith and Service”

Bishop Quigley was impressed with the enthusiasm of the petitioners and immediately gave his approval of their plan. He directed the diocesan Chancellor, Father Sheehan, and several other priest to assist in the drawing up the plans and specifications for the church. After several meetings, two plans were submitted by Bishop Quigley, who approved of the one which involved building a larger church. He undoubtedly recognized the enthusiasm and dedication of these new parishioners. The choice proved to be the right one, given the rapid growth the little village would see in the following decades.

It’s Time for Your Flu Shot!!

St. Paul’s will be holding a flu clinic on Sunday, October 24 only, after 8 & 11am masses, in the Parish Hall. Parishioner, Pattie Kole Marquardt will be administering them as she has in the past. Please remember to bring your INSURANCE CARD.

St. John Paul II | Feast Day October 22

St. John Paul II was born Karol Wojtyla in the small Polish town of Wadowice. During World War II, when the Nazis invaded Poland, Karol secretly studied for the priesthood in an underground seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1946, appointed Archbishop of Krakow in 1964, and three years later he was made a cardinal. In 1978, he was elected the 264th pope, where he took the name John Paul II.

St. John Paul II made evangelization a key part of his papacy and made pastoral visits to all parts of the world. In 1981, he was shot twice in an assassination attempt. Following Jesus’ example of compassion, he later met with his would-be assassin in his prison cell, where he forgave him for what he had done.

St. John Paul II was well-known to be an active sportsman throughout his life, hiking and skiing well into his 60s. In 1992, his health began to decline, and it was later discovered that he suffered from Parkinson’s disease, a degenerative disorder of the central nervous system.

Near the end of his papacy, it became difficult for him to speak, and his poor health and physical suffering made public appearances difficult. Still, he continued his pastoral work. He died April 2, 2005, and he was declared blessed on May 1, 2011. He became a saint on April 27, 2014.

RCIA update.

Many thanks are due to the following generous volunteers who give their time and talents to weekly sessions of St. Paul's Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA): Fran Pangborn, Gary Shore, David Braunstein, Jamie McNett and Paul Hurley. Their engagement with those seeking initiation involves thoughtful conversational exchanges and free sharing of their faith in a confidential setting, during prayerful reading of each week's Sunday readings and discussion of a selected faith topic..

Currently, there are two "seekers," who have been meeting weekly since March and who are growing steadily, with God's grace, on the journey toward the sacraments of initiation to be held at the Easter Vigil liturgy next spring. They are Maya McGee and Travis Berube. Both are mid-20's singles and both are working in professional careers. Maya is a teacher in the Buffalo School System and Travis is a construction manager with Turner Construction Company, an international builder having projects in WNY.

At the 11 AM Mass on Sunday, September 12, Maya, who is unbaptized, was received in the Rite of Acceptance and Travis, who is baptized in the Lutheran Church, was welcomed in the Rite of Welcoming. Maya's sponsor is her father, Martin McGee, and Travis' sponsor is his fiancé Samantha Goetz.

Please pray for Maya and Travis as they continue to discern God's call to embrace the Catholic faith and join fully in St. Paul's community of faith.

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 17, 2021
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“What do you wish me to do for you?” Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It’s an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today’s Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God’s attention. That’s not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It’s a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God’s kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God’s Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words “thy will be done” will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God’s eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God’s definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It’s the positions of power and great authority that people often admire. We equate success with six figure incomes, high positions, management, and influence. We even go above and beyond to find favor with our bosses so that we can get a little extra recognition and maybe the next promotion when it comes up. This is the way of the world. Those who have their values set on earthly things are going to work by earthly rules. We forget that it doesn’t work that way in the Kingdom of God. Success is measured not from the place of status, influence, or prestige but from the place of humility, service, and sacrifice. The authority that one hopes to achieve is not an authority over others but an authority that comes from wisdom and developing one’s relationship with God. Jesus flips the tables on our priorities. Even the first disciples had a tough time understanding this. They really thought that they would somehow receive a privilege or bonus from being faithful. We often operate under that same illusion.

 GOSPEL

God wants you to help others. He does not want you to be a slave to others. If you are helping your friend clean his room, and he leaves watch television, it's ok to stop helping him. Your friend should come back and clean part of his room, too. But, if your friend is unable to clean his room, then it is a great gift for you to clean it for him. God rewards you for helping others.

 PRAYER

Lord, show me how to be helpful, but not a slave.
