

OUR LADY OF CHARITY PRAY FOR US!

THE 24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 10/11, 2022

'When its waves mount up, you still them.'
(Psalm 89:9)

If there is one thing the past 21 years have taught us, it's that life can change in an instant. It sometimes feels like we're trapped in a figurative never-ending storm. While we long for calmness and tranquility, we often feel like we're drowning while being tossed around in every direction.

So, what does this have to do with Our Lady of Charity? As we recognize our parish's patroness with her feast day having fallen on September 8th, let's remind ourselves of her claim to fame: When three workers were out on a boat in a bay in Cuba, a huge storm came that was going to capsize and drown them. They prayed to the Blessed Mother for safety, who then appeared and the storm was calmed.

So, as we navigate our own personal storms in life, are we remembering to pray? As we try to navigate the rough waters of COVID-19, our Diocese, political division, gun violence, poverty, and discrimination, are we giving it up to God and asking for protection?

Being a follower of Jesus isn't always easy and smooth sailing. However, the reward is worth it in the end. Life might throw us some waves, but let's hang on for the ride... together.

Happy Feast Day!
And may God bless America.

FR. BILL'S CORNER

SIGNIFICANT HISTORICAL REMEMBRANCE

With September 11 falling on Sunday this year, we have an opportunity to reflect and pray as we remember the events of that fateful day. I recall that it was a Tuesday, and I was celebrating a funeral when someone passed me a note about an airplane hitting the World Trade Center.

Robert Daiglor's funeral was attended by a member of military personnel as he was a veteran. When I read this note just after Holy Communion and asked for prayers, my mind could not imagine what the news of the day would bring. I pictured a small single-engine plane whose pilot may have had some kind of medical emergency and lost control of his plane.

The furthest things from my mind was a terrorist attack-let alone several planes hijacked and full of innocent passengers. Just two years earlier I had been with St. Gregory's the Great's 8th grade class on their trip to New York City. Among our stops was the World Trade Center, and we had been to the top.

I clearly recall that the men and women in uniform gasped when I announced the news without any details, they sensed something much more horrible than what I pictured. Probably, experiences of combat and serious threats of terrorist attacks were part of their training.

The shock, fear and horror led many people to head to their parish churches to pray. I remember the huge crowds the following Sunday, as well as the daunting task of preaching that weekend while the crumbled buildings continued to smolder and the question of how to begin to deal with such a tragedy arose.

Twenty-one years later, we must continue to pray for our first responders as well as the family and friends of the more than 3,000 who died that day or soon after. If you have ever had to dial 911, or prayed in desperate need with a heartfelt call to Our Lord, September 11's impact is easily brought to mind. May God bless and continue to heal and re-unite these United States.

Peace,
Fr. Bill

Study of the Scriptures helps us to understand ourselves better, the world in which we live, and the God who calls us into life. # THE 24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Ex 32:7-11, 13-14

The LORD said to Moses, "Go down at once to your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt, for they have become depraved. They have soon turned aside from the way I pointed out to them, making for themselves a molten calf and worshiping it, sacrificing to it and crying out, 'This is your God, O Israel, who brought you out of the land of Egypt!' "I see how stiff-necked this people is," continued the LORD to Moses. Let me alone, then, that my wrath may blaze up against them to consume them. Then I will make of you a great nation." But Moses implored the LORD, his God, saying, "Why, O LORD, should your wrath blaze up against your own people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with such great power and with so strong a hand? Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and how you swore to them by your own self, saying, 'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky; and all this land that I promised, I will give your descendants as their perpetual heritage.'" So the LORD relented in the punishment he had threatened to inflict on his people.

The word of the Lord.

R/. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 51:3-4, 12-13, 17, 19

R/. I will rise and go to my father.

Have mercy on me, O God, in your goodness; in the greatness of your compassion wipe out my offense.
Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me. R/.

A clean heart create for me, O God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me.
Cast me not out from your presence, and your Holy Spirit take not from me. R/.

O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth shall proclaim your praise.
My sacrifice, O God, is a contrite spirit; a heart contrite and humbled, O God, you will not spurn. R/.

Second Reading

1 Tm 1:12-17

Beloved: I am grateful to him who has strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me trustworthy in appointing me to the ministry. I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and arrogant, but I have been mercifully treated because I acted out of ignorance in my unbelief. Indeed, the grace of our Lord has been abundant, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Of these I am the foremost. But for that reason I was mercifully treated, so that in me, as the foremost, Christ Jesus might display all his patience as an example for those who would come to believe in him for everlasting life. To the king of ages, incorruptible, invisible, the only God, honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

R/. Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Lk 15:1-10

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them he addressed this parable. "What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it? And when he does find it, he sets it on his shoulders with great joy and, upon his arrival home, he calls together his friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.' I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance. "Or what woman having ten coins and losing one would not light a lamp and sweep the house, searching carefully until she finds it? And when she does find it, she calls together her friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found the coin that I lost.' In just the same way, I tell you, there will be rejoicing among the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Gospel of the Lord.

R/. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
