OUTREACH

The Outreach Ministry would like to thank the parishioners who donated school supplies or monetary donations to buy supplies. As the supplies were delivered to our local schools, we were thanked with much gratitude, as they were very much needed. Your kindness and compassion for our children is deeply appreciated. Please continue to pray for our parents, teachers and students. May God Bless You!

MESSAGE FROM FR JIM

Dear Parishioners,

October is probably my favorite month of the year. This year there is so much going on that I am certainly looking forward to it. It is a month dedicated to the Blessed Mother. It is the month that holds the patronal feast day of our parish, the Feast of Ss Simon and Jude on October 28th. It is the month we usually have Confirmation, which we will this year as well. It is also the month we look forward to All Saints' Day and Thanksgiving.

I hope you all have an opportunity to enjoy it. Enjoy hunting and camping if that is what you like to do. Enjoy the colors of the leaves. Enjoy Halloween if you like that holiday. Enjoy the beauty of this month's celebrations of our faith. Remember that God is with us through all of it.

I would give a suggestion to you in anticipation of All Saints' Day next month. Read a book on the life of a saint, whichever one you would like. Pray on their journey and see how it parallels with your own faith life. It might not at all, but it gives us the opportunity to see how a saint became a saint.

Christ's Peace,

Fr Jim Kirkpatrick

Our Lady of Fatima, the traveling Madonna

Freedom from Wrath—The antidote for wrath is mercy and forgiveness. There are two things to understand in this. First, to forgive means to no longer hold against (as in a loan) a person their debt/trespass/sin for future reference. It does not mean to condone or rationalize evil done to you. Mercy is to render to another person what is needed, whether they deserve it or not. In many homilies, I have referred to mercy and forgiveness as the ultimate acts of self-preservation. Wrath can ruin us on every level of our being. Mercy frees us from such a cross of iron.

It is incredibly important that we forgive. Our eternal life in heaven hinges on our ability to do so. In the Our father we pray, "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us!" In other words: "God, forgive me as I forgive others." That little prayer tucked into the Our Father can either be a blessing or an eternal curse depending upon our ability to forgive and our ability to stem wrath in our lives. After giving us the Our Father, Jesus warns us, "For if you will forgive men their offenses, your heavenly Father will forgive you also your offenses. But if you will not forgive men, neither will your Father forgive you your offenses" (Matthew 6:14-15). We entertain wrath and revenge at our own peril. We run the risk of the wicked servant in Matthew 18:23-35 who, because he was unwilling to forgive the much lesser debt of a fellow servant after he himself had a huge debt forgiven by the master, was now thrown into prison. It ends with the rather ominous "So my Father will do to you if you do not forgive your brother from your heart." Wrath can have no hold in the life of a follower of Christ. "Let Freedom Ring" by Fr. Bill Peckman

The traveling Madonna is still available to come to your home. If you have had her before and would like to invite her once more, please call. If you have never had her, I will be happy to deliver her to you. Call Ann 692-4396.

VOCATIONS

A Vocation View

Jesus taught many things in the Bible that are hard to accept, things our society would rather not listen to. It takes courage to preach an unpopular message.

PUBLIC SQUARE ROSARY

America is at a historic crossroad. God is more offended than ever as people ignore Our Lady's maternal request to "stop offending God." As a result, America is suffering from a pandemic, rioting, looting and murder, as well as moral and societal collapse. It is urgent that we heed Our Lady's request and stop sinning if we hope to enjoy God's blessings and to avert His wrath. He will hear us, if we pray through the intercession of His Blessed Mother. That's why we're doing the Public Square Rosary Crusade. Please join us on Saturday, October 16th at 12 noon in front of our Church. Call Bobbie 731-3943 if you have any questions.

St. Louis de Montfort said, "Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy, and Holy Mother Church, guided by the Holy Spirit has always advocated public prayer in times of public tragedy and suffering."

AREA ANNOUNCEMENTS

OLC— 64 Center Avenue, NT—St. Joseph is Coming! Pull up a seat at His Table. Let's prepare a Table for Him. Please join us on October 16th following the 4:00 pm Mass. You will hear the life story of St. Joseph through a live theatrical one-man presentation played by Michael Sacilowski entitled "God's Son. My son". Accompany St. Joseph as he fulfills his call to be a human father to Jesus. From a turbulent and exciting beginning with Jesus and Mary, to living a simple hidden life. The presentation is free and open to all ages. Come and see St. Joseph tell his story!

OLC—on October 13, 1917, Our Lady revealed herself as Our Lady of the Rosary and asked that it be prayed daily. On Saturday October 9th we will hold a procession while praying the rosary following the 4:00 pm Mass. We are asking the children of Faith Formation to attend, if possible. We would love to have them lead the rosary. All are welcome.

Our Lady of Pompeii Parish, 129 Laverack Ave., Lancaster presents Rev. Robert Owczarczak on Monday, October 18th to speak on "Physician-Assisted Suicide: Coming to America Soon?" It begins at 7:00 pm. All are welcome.

EWTN—Join Fr. Chris Alar, MIC, from the Divine Mercy Shrine, who will host a brand new 30 minute program each Wednesday, beginning at 6:30 pm, about Living Mercy.

Buffalo Academy of the Sacred Heart—3860 Main St., Eggertsville, NY 14226 will host an Open House for prospective 7th and 8th grade girls and their families on Sunday, October 17th from 10 am—3:30 pm. This is a great opportunity to tour the school, meet students, faculty and staff, coaches and learn about academics, athletics and extracurricular activities at Sacred Heart. They are also hosting Shadow Days for 8th grade girls. For more information contact the school at 834-2101 ext 311 or visit their website www.sacredheartacademy.org
