MESSAGE FROM FR JIM,

Dear Parishioners,

I preach almost every day at Mass. I enjoy preaching but I also enjoy listening to other people preach as well. This past weekend we had the opportunity to listen to both of our deacons as we celebrated the Feast of Corpus Christi. They both did a beautiful job of exploring the meaning of the Eucharist.

Deacon John Steiner reminded us of the fact that the Eucharist is the Body and Blood of Christ. He said when we look upon the Eucharist, we look upon Christ. He is absolutely correct. We receive Christ when we receive the Eucharist. Never forget that. It truly a shame so many Catholics don't believe this. Please remember who you receive when you receive the Eucharist.

Deacon Dan Brick reminded us of the fact that the Eucharist is nourishment for our life in Christ. As Christ fed those who were hungry, we are called to do the same. The Eucharist is a call to justice, to care for those most in need. He is absolutely correct as well. Keep in mind that we don't receive the Eucharist in a vacuum. Communion encourages us to take the opportunities to serve.

Thanks to Deacon Steiner and Deacon Brick for sharing these important messages with us last Sunday.

Christ's Peace,

Fr Jim Kirkpatrick

THE TRAVELING MADONNA-OUR LADY OF FATIMA

All Mothers are alike—save one:

Part 2

As we study His Divine Life, seeing Him as the first refugee persecuted by a cruel government, working as a carpenter, teaching and redeeming, we know that it all began when HE took on our human nature and became man. If He had never taken on our human flesh, we would never have heard His Sermon on the Mount, nor have seen Him forgive those who nailed His Hands and Feet to the Cross. But a Woman gave our Lord His human nature. He asked her to give Him a human life—to give Him hands with which to bless children, feet with which to go in search of stray sheep, eyes with which to weep over dead friends, and a body with which to suffer—that He might give us a rebirth in freedom and love.

It was through her that He became the bridge between the Divine and the human. If we take her away, then either God does not become man, or He that is born of her is a man and not God. Without her we would no longer have Our Lord! If we have a box in which we keep our money, we know that one thing we must always give attention to is the key; we never think that the key is the money, but we know that without the key we cannot get our money. Our Blessed Mother is like the key. Without her we can never get to Our Lord, because He came through her. She is not to be compared to Our Lord, for she is a creature and He is a Creator. But if we lose her, we cannot get to Him. That is why we pay so much attention her; without her we could never understand how that bridge was built between Heaven and earth.

Taken from “The World's First Love” by Fulton J. Sheen

If you would like a visit from the Traveling Madonna, Our Lady of Fatima, call Ann at 692-4396.
