MESSAGE FROM FR. JIM

Dear Parishioners,

I was a little bit remiss at the end of the school year not wishing students, graduating seniors and teachers a blessed Summer and prayers for what they were planning for in the future. We find ourselves in the middle of the Summer right now so I want to wish everyone, especially our students and teachers a wonderful rest of the Summer.

Our teachers I am sure are well on their way in planning their classes for the Fall. Our students are enjoying the Summer but many are working jobs or doing volunteer work. I wish them a stable and healthy School year. They have had to deal with a lot of chaos in recent years, so they deserve a school year with some calm and peace.

Please pray for our students and teachers as they gear up for the 2022-2023 school year. May it be productive, calm, and safe for all educators and students.

Christ's Peace,

Fr Jim Kirkpatrick

THE TRAVELING MADONNA-OUR LADY OF FATIMA

Divine Mercy: Holy Obedience

One of the greatest safeguards against doing our own will rather than God's is holy obedience. Those in religious life are blessed to live this in a literal and external way, allowing the external practice to be interiorized so as to become certain that they are living the Will of God. But obedience must be lived in every life, not only religious. Obedience is achieved in many ways. It's achieved in family life when we submit our will to the preferences of others, subjecting ourselves in a form of obedience so as to foster love and unity. It's achieved in a profound way when we submit our will to the voice and teaching of our Church. We will never go wrong by living holy obedience to that which the Lord speaks through His church. When we live this obedience, the Will of God will not be imposed upon us from outside; rather, we will hear Him speak first in our heart and then it will be confirmed exteriorly (See Diary #932-933)

Do you hear God calling you, gently and subtly, to submit to the preference of another? You ought not submit to those things that are contrary to the Will of God, but there are numerous opportunities each day to die to yourself and “obediently” embrace the will of another. If you can do this always in regard to the Will of God spoken through His church, you will see the gates of Mercy opened and your humble submission will bring you great holiness.
