PSALM 98: THE LORD HAS REVEALED

Timothy R. Smith

The Lord has re - vealed to the na - tions, sav - ing pow'r, sav - ing pow'r, sav - ing pow'r.

- Sing a new song, all you lands, of the marvelous deeds of the Lord. Salvation is born of God's right hand and holy arm.
- The saving power of God has been revealed to all the lands. His kindness and truth forever faithful to the house of Israel.
- All of the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of God. Shout to the Lord, dance for joy, sing your praise.
- Play out your song on the harp, create a melodious song. With trumpets and horn acclaim our King and our God.

2nd Reading 1 John 4:7-10

Gospel John 15:9-17

Apostle's Creed— I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life

Communion Remembrance

Oh, how could it be
That my God would welcome me into this mystery
Say take this bread, take this wine
Now the simple made divine for any to receive

By Your mercy, we come to Your table
By Your grace, You are making us faithful

Lord, we remember You
And remembrance leads us to worship
And as we worship You
Our worship leads to communion
We respond to Your invitation, we remember You

See His body, His blood
Know that He has overcome every trial we will face
None too lost to be saved
None too broken or ashamed, all are welcome in this place

By Your mercy, we come to Your table
By Your grace, You are making us faithful

Lord, we remember You
And remembrance leads us to worship
And as we worship You
Our worship leads to communion
We respond to Your invitation, we remember You

Dying You destroyed our death
Rising You restored our life
Lord Jesus, come in glory

Lord Jesus, come in glory
Lord Jesus, come in glory
Lord Jesus, come in glory

Lord, we remember You
And remembrance leads us to worship
And as we worship You
Our worship leads to communion
We respond to Your invitation
We respond to Your invitation, we remember You

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

The Collection for International Needs provides us with opportunity to broaden our charitable horizons by reaching out to our suffering brothers and sisters throughout the world.

This annual collection, to be taken up in the Diocese of Erie the weekend of May 15 and 16, is a combination of the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, the Catholic Relief Services Collection and the collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. It offers a concrete way for us to reach out to those who live in lands and cultures far from our own.

- It helps build churches and train and educate seminarians, clergy, and lay leaders in Central and Eastern Europe;
- It provides for the victims of war and natural disasters, and aids the Church suffering under persecution;
- It provides needed material assistance to the Church in Africa, which is growing rapidly, but has few resources.

I ask you to please give generously to the Collection for International Needs on May 15-16. Just as importantly, please include those in need in your prayers. Be assured of my prayers for you, your families and your parishes.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Lawrence T. Persico

The Most Reverend Lawrence T. Persico, JCL
Bishop of Erie

Mother's Day Carnations

Mother's Day carnations provided by People for Life will be available after Masses this weekend, May 8-9. Celebrate Mother's Day by selecting some beautiful carnations for that special mom in your life. Your donation of two dollars per carnation will help support local pro-life educational programs and activities right here in northwestern Pennsylvania.

Thank you to all parishioners who have been sending in, dropping off their offertory envelopes or going on-line to support Holy Cross Church. It is greatly appreciated.

Happy Mother's Day to all mothers!

The Lanyard

The other day as I was ricocheting slowly off the blue walls of this room, moving as if underwater from typewriter to piano, from bookshelf to an envelope lying on the floor, when I found myself in the L section of the dictionary where my eyes fell upon the word Lanyard. No cookie nibbled by a French novelist could send one into the past more suddenly—a past where I sat at a workbench at a camp by a deep Adirondack lake learning how to braid thin plastic strips into a lanyard, a gift for my mother. I had never seen anyone use a lanyard or wear one, if that's what you did with them, but that did not keep me from crossing strand over strand again and again until I had made a boxy red and white lanyard for my mother. She gave me life and milk from her breasts, and I gave her a lanyard. She nursed me in many a sick room, lifted teaspoons of medicine to my lips, Laid cold facecloths on my forehead and then led me out into the airy light and taught me to walk and swim and I, in turn, presented her with a lanyard. Here are thousands of meals, she said, and here is clothing and a good education. And here is your lanyard, I replied, which I made with a little help from a counselor. Here is a breathing body and a beating heart, strong legs, bones and teeth and two clear eyes to read the world, she whispered. and here, I said, is the lanyard I made at camp. And here, I wish to say to her now, is a smaller gift— not the worn truth That you can never repay your mother, But the rueful admission that when she took the two-tone lanyard from my hand, I was as sure as a boy could be That this useless, worthless thing I wove out of boredom would be enough to make us even. —“The Lanyard” from The Trouble With Poetry: and Other Poems by Billy Collins
