ALL SAINTS CATHOLIC CHURCH

January 3, 2021
The Epiphany of the Lord

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Happy Epiphany! The word "epiphany" is a from a Greek word meaning "manifestation" or a "showing forth". It is for us the feast when we celebrate the event when Jesus was shown to be a manifestation of God. In modern times, this has been largely focused on the coming of the Magi to Bethlehem to pay homage to Jesus. In the ancient Church it was also associated with two other epiphanies: 1) Jesus' baptism in the Jordan River when the heavens opened up and the Holy Spirit descended with the voice of the Father declaring Jesus to be His Son; and 2) Jesus' first miracle at Cana, where His divinity was shown forth by His own power to do miracles. Taken together, we see these three events to be declarations (though somewhat indirectly) of who Jesus is. Jesus is not an ordinary prophet. He is God Himself.

In the ancient Church, today's feast was held as one of the three principal feasts of the year, along with Easter and Pentecost. Remarkably, Christmas was not one of the principal feasts of the year (it is now however). This history reveals the development of our faith throughout the ages, with it first being focused on the Passion, Resurrection and Pentecost, then moving toward a more comprehensive consideration of the life of Jesus Christ. I think it puts it into perspective for us, as we begin with experiencing salvation and then expand to live out the moral life of our faith in our daily lives.

The Epiphany is seen as a manifestation to the world of Christ's divinity because the star is seen and followed by those who are not Jews or in the immediate vicinity of Israel. They are Gentiles, non-Jews, who are beckoned by a seemingly natural phenomenon to Jerusalem. Once in Jerusalem they are advised to look in Bethlehem and then to return to report their findings to Herod's court. It is remarkable that no one in Jerusalem is concerned enough to go with the Magi to Bethlehem. Surely the birth of new and authentic king would be known throughout the land. But in the case of Christ, this was certainly not the situation. The Scriptures reveal to us that King Herod was "troubled" on hearing the news from the Magi; yet he and his court were not troubled enough to go with the Magi to Bethlehem. There is a certain apathy in their hearts. They know the scriptures well, but they do not love them enough to allow them to have an effect in their lives.

The Magi, on the other hand, are fascinated by this star and are eager to find what it means. They are "overjoyed" when they find the home where the Holy Family was staying. They gave gifts that give us insight into who this new King is.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Rooted in one baptism and many ethnic traditions, All Saints Parish celebrates, cultivates, and grows knowledge and faith to love and serve both God and neighbor.

Pastoral Council 2013

(Fr. Recker's letter Continued)

Gold, a gift fit for a king; Frankincense, a gift fit for God; and Myrrh, a gift symbolizing death and sacrifice (admittedly a strange gift for a new baby). In other words, this newborn Child is a King who is also God, who will offer His life for us.

It is no accident that these gifts coincide well with who Jesus is, as priest (myrrh), prophet (frankincense), and king (gold), for this is truly an epiphany, a manifestation and showing forth who He truly is.

We reflect on these things within the broader mystery of the Incarnation of Christ in this Christmas Season. The message of the Epiphany leads to beautiful resolutions. Like the Magi, we acknowledge Jesus as King, God, and Priest. This proclamation of faith leads us to honor His words as our sovereign Lord, to worship Him as our God, and also to unite our sacrifices with His ultimate sacrifice on the Cross. We are thus united as members of the Body of Christ.

God bless you,

Fr. Recker

HAVE YOU RECENTLY CHANGED YOUR ADDRESS, PHONE OR EMAIL ADDRESS

Attention parishioners if you have moved, have a new email address or no longer use a landline, please call the Parish Office to update your information. If it is easier for you to email the information, please email the Parish Secretary, Audrey, at acaligiuri@allsaintsrossford.com.

If you are a snowbird, and want to receive our mailings and newsletters, please notify the Parish Office. Remember if you move please notify the Parish Office.

AN INVITATION
COME AND SEE FOR YOURSELF

This invitation is opened to all those interested, especially those who have never been baptized, those baptized in another Christian Church, and also those who were baptized Catholic but never completed their initiation, (Eucharist and Confirmation).

It's not too late to join us. We also invite parishioners who would just like to refresh their faith through Adult Faith Formation. You are welcome to drop in any or all of the evenings, 7:00 p.m. in the Steinbauer Community Room.

This Thursday, January 7, topic will be "A CATHOLIC MORAL VISION: Virtue, Grace, and the Path to Happiness" presented by the RCIA Team. All are welcomed.

For more information call Sue VanHersett at the Parish 419-666-1393 or email at svanhersett@allsaintsrossford.com.

ROOTED IN FAITH, MOVING FORWARD WITH HOPE

The 2020 Annual Catholic Appeal Campaign is underway. The campaign goal is $3 million and our parish goal is $32,200.00. To date we have pledged $29,085.19, which is 90.33% of our goal. We can assure the continued existence of many important programs that help tens of thousands in our Diocese each year; education of our seminary students, care of the sick and needy are among them. Visit the Diocesan website at Toledodiocese.org/ACA.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Even the slightest flicker of a light helps to properly orient us when we find ourselves in total darkness. Being in darkness can be unsettling and even a bit unnerving. We lose our focus and struggle to find our bearings and achieve balance. On life's journey we may think we are walking in the light but are really lingering in darkness. We do not see the full picture, either because we are distracted, disinterested, or even apprehensive. Sometimes, we even choose to close our eyes when the light is readily available to illuminate our path. Do we really desire to know the truth of who we are? In Jesus Christ, a light has been given to those who dwell in darkness. God's revelation gives us the light to see where we come from, who we are and where we are going. It also tells us that this Good News is not meant for just a privileged few but is intended to go out to all the world. Is this something we want to see? ©LPi

LECTOR WORKBOOKS

Please pick up your 2021 Workbook for Lectors located in the working sacristy. (Please see the sacristan before or after Mass.) Please print your name on the sign out sheet when you pick up your workbook. Current lectors please remember to return your current lector workbooks.

2021 CALENDARS

The 2021 calendars were donated by and are compliments of Walker/Sujkowski Funeral Home of Rossford. We are grateful for their generosity. Please pick up your calendar or if you know of a homebound parishioner who would like one, please take a calendar. They are located in the narthex.

Thank you to Walker Sujkowski Funeral Home for their generous donation.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The Epiphany of the Lord

"Where is that thing?" mumbled Bob as he searched frantically on his dimly lit desk for the current electric bill. "I know I put it right on top of these papers this morning!" Growing in frustration and bordering on anger, he flies stuff around, moves books and opines why simple tasks need to be so hard. Enter his wife, who calmly says, "Maybe it would help if you put the light on, dear." The desk light goes on and lo and behold, there is the electric bill right where Bob left it earlier. All it took was a little light!

We stubbornly refuse to turn on the lights! Either we are distracted, determined, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Or perhaps, we fail to do the obvious. We would rather live our lives with the dimmest of lights or even in total darkness. Why are we afraid to do something so that we can actually see? It might help us to find quicker and better answers to problems, the meaning of life, relationships, happiness, and what is ultimate truth. Yet, we stumble along, moving things from one side to the other, getting angry, feeling cheated, being unsettled, resigning ourselves to the agony of defeat once again.

"And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was." The light has come into the world in the person of Jesus Christ! We no longer have to fumble in the darkness. We have been gifted with the illumination we need to see our way through things and find what we really are looking for. All these years later, however, so many are still reluctant to accept him. Perhaps they are unconvinced, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Everyone has their own reason for not wanting to turn on the switch.

But there are so many answers to so many of our problems in this humble Child of Nazareth. A simple birth teaches us about God's tender wedded relationship with humanity. It speaks to the expanse of God's salvation across the globe, and the incarnate Divine wonders and blessings that are a part of our life moment to moment. It calls us to understand the design of world order God intended as found in the Beatitudes, the sacredness of every human life and all of creation and the meaning of things we struggle with most, like suffering and death. We have a lot of Good News to share, not just with a privileged few but with all the world. All races and creeds can receive God's healing word. God continues to manifest himself even now! Use the light to find what you are really looking for! ©LPi

SCRIPTURE STUDY

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR SUNDAY MASS?

All Saints Adult Faith Formation Team (AFF) hosts a weekly group session to prepare for Sunday Liturgy. For these sessions we use a variety of resources to meditate more deeply on the Sunday readings. Please join us on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 p.m. (usually in the Steinbauer Community Room -SCR). Some of these resources can also be used by individuals at home. For prayerful preparation at home during the week before Sunday Mass, visit liturgy.slu.edu.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Wise Men See God in the Simple Things

If you're on social media, you have probably seen a meme going around that features this quote: "God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace."

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God's and Herod's. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn't entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn't say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I'll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod's charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe.

The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it's enough to remember this: God's plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let's have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

While families come in all shapes and sizes and no two are the same, they all need a common focus and grounding. Families are intended to be pivotal in providing us with a proper social structure and understanding, a support system, lessons about relationships and communication and the unconditional acceptance and love we so desperately crave. In addition to all of these things, the axis of every family has to be centered on faith. It is here that we can learn about the virtues and discover the windows to God Himself in His gifts of faith, hope, and love. We can learn, modeling our experience after the Holy Family, how to use these as anchors in our lives so that we can live out the other virtues with greater integrity. Because our human families struggle with weakness and sin, we have to come back to the Holy Family often for inspiration and guidance. In the bond of love that they shared, they clung to the anchor of God Himself and endured challenges far greater than many we will ever face. ©LPi

PRAYER BLANKETS

Just a reminder to our parishioners that there are blessed Prayer Blankets in the Hospitality Room off the narthex for you to take and give to someone you know who is having a difficult time in their life. Please sign the recipients name in the book so they will be remembered in our prayers. Gifts of colorful fleece materials and donations for sewing supplies are always appreciated. Thank you.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Eucharistic Adoration is held on Wednesdays from 8:45 am to 9 pm in our church. Everyone is welcome. Use the main parking lot and front doors. "The only thing that we ever do in this world that is real participation in the life we hope to live forever is to worship with Christ in the Liturgy / Adoration. However humble the building, however limited the spirituality of the participants, when we are at the Liturgy of the Mass, Christ is there and mysteriously we are standing at the Eternal Supper of the Lamb." (Fr. Benedict Groeshel C.F.R.) That is why Jesus came to share in our humanity. Please come to Adoration.

Adorers are needed for Wednesdays during the hour of 12 p.m. (noon) and 1 p.m. If you are interested please call Marcia Staczek at 419-666-8106.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK—YOU'RE INVITED TO REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:
In late 6th century BC, the prophet Isaiah proclaimed an unimaginable future of glory for Israel in the wake of their return from seventy years of captivity in Babylon. What message of hope does our nation need today?

Second Reading:
Paul speaks of God's "revelation" to include Gentiles as "coheirs" and "copartners" with Jews in the divine promise fulfilled in Christ Jesus. How welcoming are you to those you consider outsiders?

Gospel:
The magi's visit to discover the "newborn king of the Jews" caused great anxiety for the religious leaders of Jerusalem, including King Herod. Why do you think some people are not open to the good news of Jesus Christ?
