

THE HOLY FAMILY

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. - Lk 2:46-47

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Merry Christmas! Christmas is one of the holiest feasts of the year, as we celebrate the coming of Christ into the world. As Jesus is born of the Virgin Mary; God is revealed to the world as a baby boy. He is both God and man. God humbles Himself in becoming a little child, and so the work of our salvation begins. It will culminate on the cross, as the sacrifice of Christ in atonement for our sins is completed. In the midst of all of our busy preparations, don't forget the true meaning of this feast. The following is a poem, written by a priest, mystic, and Doctor of the Church, St. John of the Cross, to help us in our meditation on the mystery of Christmas:

The Incarnation

Then He summoned an archangel,
Saint Gabriel: and when he came,
Sent him forth to find a maiden,
Mary was her name.

Only through her consenting love
Could the mystery be preferred
That the Trinity in human
Flesh might clothe the Word

Though the three Persons worked the wonder
It only happened in the One.
So was the Word made incarnation
In Mary's womb, a Son.

So He who only had a Father
Now had a Mother undefiled,
Though not as ordinary maids
Had she conceived the Child.

By Mary, and with her own flesh
He was clothed in His own frame:
Both Son of God and Son of Man
Together had one name.

St. John of the Cross
(translated by Roy Campbell)

May you and your family have blessed Christmas celebration. May God protect you if you're traveling. And may these feasts bring you closer to God and His Son, Jesus Christ.

God bless you, and Merry Christmas!

Fr. Recker

Dear Lord,

Bless our family. Be so kind as to give us the unity, peace, and mutual love that You found in Your own family in the little town of Nazareth.

Saint Joseph,

pray for the head of our family. Obtain for him the strength, the wisdom, and the prudence he needs to support and direct those under his care.

Mother Mary,

pray for the mother of our family. Help her to be pure and kind, gentle and self-sacrificing. For the more she resembles you, the better will our family be.

Lord Jesus,

bless the children of our family. Help them to be obedient and devoted to their parents. Make them more and more like You. Let them grow, as You did, in wisdom and strength and grace before God and man.
Amen.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - TO REFLECT AND HOW DO WE RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Hannah, the mother of Samuel, and Samuel's father are portrayed as parents of deep prayer and great faith. How would you describe the faith of your mother or father?

Second Reading:

John teaches us that if we believe in Jesus and love one another, "we may be called children of God." How do you show gratitude for being part of this holy family?

Gospel:

Luke is the only Evangelist to preserve a story about Jesus from his youth. In this account, Mary and Joseph are filled with "great anxiety" as they searched for Jesus who they thought was lost. How do you seek God's help for the anxious moments in your family? ©LPi

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too. ©LPi

CANCELLATIONS AND WINTER EMERGENCIES

Now that we are in the season of winter conditions, please be advised that whenever Wood County is under a Level Three Emergency, all Masses (including Sunday) will be cancelled. If it is a Level Two Emergency, Mass goers should use good judgment about travelling in such conditions. In those situations, our snow removal team will normally clear the Steinbauer (small) lot and entrance first. During a Level Three Emergency, the Parish Office will be closed, but when possible, the office will be open during a Level Two. Whenever school is cancelled, other activities that day and evening are also cancelled.

CATECHISTS NEEDED FOR CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLW) is a special time during Sunday Mass when Fr. Recker invites all the children to gather in the atrium. Together, children listen to and reflect on the Gospel reading. We are in need of catechists to lead CLW during Mass. This is a great opportunity to get involved with Mass and help children grow their relationship with God. Please contact Allison Switzer for more information at allisonswitzer@gmail.com

GOSPEL

Imagine Jesus goes to your church today. After church, Mary and Joseph find him on the altar telling stories from the Old Testament to the priests and the Sunday School teachers. Mary and Joseph would be amazed. They would want Jesus to come home. Jesus would love his parents so much that he would go home with them. He will stay with them until he grows older, wiser, and stronger.

PRAYER

Lord, teach me your Bible stories so that I can teach them to others.

Join us for our Parish Mission: Our Restless Journey

Sunday, Monday & Tuesday: February 6, 7, & 8, 2022 at 7:00 p.m. in the church

We are excited to welcome back Fr. Tom McCarthy, O.S.A.! He will share his insights on "Our Restless Journey"

We are on a constant "Restless Journey" towards God, united in mind and in heart.

Am I fighting or embracing the journey?

The Restless Journey is not about just getting by but doing unbelievable things.

Restlessness is about moving us forward.

St. Augustine said: "You have made us for Yourself, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You."

If you attended one of our recent Missions with Fr. Tom, you will remember intriguing and spiritually uplifting presentations.

Father Tom is an experienced teacher, administrator, retreat director and parish mission preacher.

He is currently in his 12th year as Vocation Director for the Midwest Province and is the Director of St. Rita of Cascia Shrine Chapel in Chicago, IL. Father Tom is also the Prior of the Pre-Novitiate Community of St. Clare of Montefalco Friary in Chicago.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It was the best of times and it was the worst of times. Our families can bring out the best and the worst in us. This is true of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our church, our society, and the like. In all of our family experiences, what stands out as our most challenging memory? Everything human can be found on the pages of family life. But there is also a Divine story to be discovered as well. When life gets difficult and perplexing, today's Feast of the Holy Family stands to remind us that it is not just by human effort that we tread treacherous waters. We have to remember and learn from the Divine effort too. We need this perspective if our love lessons are going to be learned completely and well. We are all works in progress and we all come from homes that are broken by imperfection. In whatever life brings us and in whatever family we find ourselves, may the promptings we feel toward faith and hope lead us to greater love. ©LPI
