Confessions in “Safe Mode”

As you know the Lenten penance services have always been a great opportunity for all of us to prepare for Easter. Well because we were in the “RED” phase we could not receive the Sacrament. Now that we move to the Advent Season we are still practicing “Safe Mode” but can have that sacred moment of God’s Mercy through the Sacrament during the “Week of Grace”. Instead of gathering 13 priests and 400 hundred people in the same place for a penance service during the pandemic we will do something a bit different .... Operation Safe Mode Style!!

Face to Face Confessions: If you thought it was going to be a “virtual confession” or “drive through” I am sorry to disappoint you!!! You will be able to come in the normal fashion for confessions but just with extreme caution to social distancing and Masked faces! Perhaps with the mask on Father Roniel and I will not recognize you!

Timing and Avoiding Crowds: We will hear confessions in the afternoon at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton for one and a half hours and two hours in the evening at Immaculate Conception. There will not be a prayer service at the start so you can come at anytime to avoid a crowd of penitents. So, come in that frame of time we will hear your confessions. We will be asking you to make your Act of Contrition on your own to speed up the process of each confession.

Safe distancing and practices: We will ask everyone who is waiting in line to remain six feet apart as indicated on the floor of the aisle. Also, we will ask you to sanitize your hands before and after confessions. Father Roniel and I will cleanse your souls and you take care of your own hands!!!! Spiritual Preparation: Please read the following article as a reminder of how important the sacrament is and use the examination of conscience below to be ready to receive God’s Mercy!!

CONFESSION PUTS YOU ON THE STRAIGHT AND NARROW

Penance, aka confession, is the sacrament of the forgiveness of sin. You can’t beat it for convenience. It’s available practically whenever. Tell a priest you want to go to confession and you’ll get his attention. One bishop I know was cornered on an airplane. Another passenger figured out what was going on and asked if he could confess too. It must have been an interesting game of musical seats. An interesting question for priests might be: Where was the strangest place you ever administered the sacrament of penance? The answers I’ve gathered include “in a sports bar, at a graduation party” and “on the golf course, walking up the fairway.” Confession has benefits. Here are ten:

1. Confidentiality guaranteed. There’s nothing like confessing your sins to someone guaranteed not to tell anyone else. Sometimes you need to talk in absolute confidence. Even under subpoena, a priest can’t tell anyone what’s said to him in confession. He can’t even hint at it. Now that’s confidentiality.
2. Housekeeping for the soul. It feels good to be able to start a clean life all over again. Like going into a sparkling living room in your home, it’s nice when clutter is removed – even if it’s your own.
3. A balm for the desire for revenge. When you have been forgiven you can forgive others. If the perfect Jesus forgives me, who am I to want to avenge the slights in my life. Think: “Why did they promote him over me?” or “Mom played favorites!”

4. Low cost therapy. It's free, which makes it cheaper than a psychiatrist for dealing with guilt.
5. Forced time to think. Socrates said that the unexamined life is not worth living. To examine our lives and acknowledge failings marks the first step of making things right with God, others and ourselves. Life can be more worth living when you ponder the meaning of your own life.
6. Contribution toward world peace. "Gaudium et Spes", the Second Vatican Council's Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, said that the imbalances in the world that lead to war and tensions "are linked with that more basic imbalance which is rooted in the heart of man." Peace of soul leads to peace of heart leads to peace beyond oneself.
7. A better neighborhood. Confession leaves you feeling good about yourself, thereby cutting back the inclination to road rage and aggressive shopping cart driving. With the grace of the sacrament you're energized to, as Jesus said to the woman caught in adultery, "go and sin no more."
8. Realistic self-perception. Confession helps overcome arrogance when you have to admit you're as much of a sinner as anyone else. It helps build tolerance for others' perceived shortcomings.
9. One more benefit of being Catholic. There are lots of benefits, including a sense of community, liturgical rites to help us encounter God in prayer, and the wonderful sense of humanity exemplified in the saints, from Mary, the loving Mother of God, to Augustine, the exasperating son of Monica. The sacrament that leads us to inner peace is among the greatest boons.
10. Closeness to God. Confession helps you realize that you have a close connection to God and receive his grace through the sacraments. What can be better than knowing God's on your team, or, to be less arrogant about it, that you are on God's.

Through this examination, you will be better prepared for our penance service!

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

SONG "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" (vs 1 & 2)

~1~ O come, O come, Emmanuel,
And ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here,
Until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

~2~ O come, Thou Wisdom, from on high,
Who ord'rest all things mightily.
To us the path of knowledge show, and teach us in her ways to go.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

READING 1 IS 61: 1-2A, 10-11

The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me;
he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor,
to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to the prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the LORD and a day of vindication by our God.
I rejoice heartily in the LORD,
in my God is the joy of my soul;
for he has clothed me with a robe of salvation and wrapped me in a mantle of justice, like a bridegroom adorned with a diadem,
like a bride bedecked with her jewels.
As the earth brings forth its plants,
and a garden makes its growth spring up,
so will the Lord GOD make justice and praise spring up before all the nations.

READING 2 1 THES 5:16-24

Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing.
In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.
Do not quench the Spirit.
Do not despise prophetic utterances.
Test everything; retain what is good.
Refrain from every kind of evil.
May the God of peace make you perfectly holy and may you entirely, spirit, soul, and body, be preserved blameless for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
The one who calls you is faithful, and he will also accomplish it.

GOSPEL JN 1:6-8,19-28

A man named John was sent from God.
He came for testimony, to testify to the light,
so that all might believe through him.
He was not the light,
but came to testify to the light.
And this is the testimony of John.
When the Jews from Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to him to ask him, "Who are you?"
He admitted and did not deny it,
but admitted, "I am not the Christ."
So they asked him,
"What are you then? Are you Elijah?"
And he said, "I am not."
"Are you the Prophet?"
He answered, "No."
So they said to him,
"Who are you, so we can give an answer to those who sent us?
What do you have to say for yourself?"
He said:
"I am the voice of one crying out in the desert,
'make straight the way of the Lord,'"
as Isaiah the prophet said."
Some Pharisees were also sent.
They asked him,
"Why then do you baptize
if you are not the Christ or Elijah or the Prophet?"
John answered them,
"I baptize with water;
but there is one among you whom you do not recognize,
the one who is coming after me,
whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie."
This happened in Bethany across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing "The King Shall Come" (vs 1 & 5)

~1~ The King shall come when morning dawns,
And light triumphant breaks;
When beauty gilds the eastern hills,
And life to joy awakes.

~5~ The King shall come when morning dawns,
And light and beauty brings.
Hail, Christ the Lord! Thy people pray;
Come quickly King of Kings.

Home with the Lord - In the Spirit of Christian charity, your prayers are requested for the repose of the souls of Mary Watkins & Jeffrey Wintermyer. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

What should I do about attending Christmas Mass during the pandemic?

This has been an often-asked question by our parishioners and has many concerned on what to do especially with the raising number of cases in Westmorland County. Not having been able to attend Mass at Easter and the thought of not going to "church" for Christmas is a thought so hard to comprehend.

Here is what you need to know and what you can plan to do to make Christmas Mass possible.

The parish is adding two more Masses for Christmas

Christmas Eve: 4pm · 6pm · 8pm

Christmas Day: 8:30 am · 10:00am

The capacity of each of these Masses will be very limited to social distancing mandates.

Seating Capacity will be limited to 125 seating capacity down from the normal 300.

Masses to avoid completely: 4pm and 6pm

Masses best chance to attend: 8pm or Christmas morning

NOTE: THERE IS NO OBLIGATION THIS YEAR TO ATTEND IN PERSON

I am suggesting:

Watch the Christmas Mass on You Tube that will be posted at 4pm Christmas Eve if:

You have not yet ventured out to Sunday Mass since the pandemic.

You are vulnerable with compromised health situations

Have visitors from places that may be suffering greater risk

We are planning a special Mass that could be viewed with your family at any time after 4pm on Christmas

Eve. If you desire to receive communion for Christmas remember you can attend a daily Mass anytime between December 26 – until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on January 10, 2021.

What will happen when the church is full to its permissible capacity?

Ushers will post signs on the doors to inform you that the church is full and times of the remaining Masses.

This may help you to make the proper decision in regards what to do for you and your family.

I hope this helps to answer questions that you may have about Christmas Mass. I am as frustrated as you and will terribly miss the massive crowds that I am so happy to see to celebrate the birth of Christ.
