NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

FIRST THREE STEPS TO A BLACK BELT IN HUMILITY!!

The first three steps to humility is a progression to a perfect love of God.

The three gifts of the Holy Spirit that correspond to the pursuit of selfless love of the Holy Trinity of persons are “Fear of the Lord”, “Reverence” and “Wisdom.”

The disposition of humility is set by a keen sense of our EQ and our desire to preform our CQ at Saintly proportions! (Please refer to last week’s bulletin for background.) This disposition awakens in us the above gifts of the Holy Spirit and beckons us to start the climb to humility. Imperfect love leads to selfless love and grows to an imitation of Jesus via obedience to His call to discipleship.

Placing ourselves at the foot of the ladder and lifting our foot is all the invitation that God needs to nudge us up the ladder to our black belt in humility. As each step is accomplished, perseverance will be sustained by the Holy Spirit and measured by the active virtues that are interiorly gained! So lets get started and climb.

WARNING: Do not look up for height of the climb and the challenge will breed fear and failure!!

Step 1. A first step is taken when one consciously obeys all of God’s commandments, never ignoring them but always holding within himself a fear of God in his heart.

Gift of the Holy Spirit: The fear of God means reverence for God; what we often forget is that by offending God, we offend ourselves. This gift enables a person “to avoid sin and attachment to created things out of reverence and love of God.” Primarily, this gift entails a profound respect for the majesty of God who is the supreme-being. Here, a person realizes a dependence upon God as the creator and never would want to be separated from Him, who is love. As such, this gift arouses in the soul a vibrant sense of adoration and reverence for God and a sense of horror and sorrow for sin.

Therefore, this gift motivates the person in three ways:

- ◆ to have a vivid sense of God’s infinite greatness
- ◆ to have a real sorrow for sin, even venial sins, and to do penance to atone for sins committed
- ◆ to be vigilant to avoid the near occasions of sin, to struggle against personal weakness and fight temptation.

The Virtues that follow:

⇒ The gift of fear brings to perfection the virtue of hope. A person respects God as God, trusts in His will, and anchors his life in Him. He believes in His promises of forgiveness of sin and eternal life in heaven.

⇒ The gift of fear also perfects the virtue of temperance, which seeks to use all things wisely and in moderation. Temperance is related to the gift of fear because one's respect for God, and one's awareness of being made in His image and likeness, and being redeemed by Christ motivate a person to give glory to God.

Step 2: Not my will, but yours O Lord (from John 6:38) This second step is achieved when one thinks not about pleasing himself but instead follows the mandate (way) of the Lord. This means that in order to be humble, we must avoid taking inordinate pleasure in our own wants and desires but always strive to do God's will before all else. Detaching ourselves from our own will (wants) frees us to be disposed to see with 20/20 vision of God's greater and more encompassing plan. Remember near-sightedness (self-centered vision) impairs our ability to see clearly from God's point of view.

The Gift of the Holy Spirit Reverence. Reverence is to have complete reliance on God out of the love for which He created us and directs us to His will which brings us to true joy. The posture of reverence is one of kneeling, bowing or prostration which makes us small and insignificant before what is all good and holy.

Three Dispositions of Reverence:

- Reverence is a loving submission to truth and knowledge that can only be blocked by our own desires and misdirected intentions.
- Reverence disposes one to a selfless love that depends on incorporating the attributes of Jesus.
- Reverence allows then to incorporate the love, forgiveness, patience, and desire to do the Father's will as it was embodied in Jesus.

The Virtues that follow the Gift of Reverence:

- Virtue of temperance allows one to quiet personal appetites for solace of God's Truth.
- Virtue of moderation that keeps the body longing for Jesus as the True sustenance.
- Virtue of meekness while self-pride and needs give way to the will of God.

Step 3. The third step is reached when out of love of God, one obediently submits to a superior in imitation of the Lord. A superior is a word we are familiar with in the religious life but not so in the secular life. A superior is the one, for the good of the soul, directs and assigns a religious to tasks and spiritual exercises. For the secular, our superior is dictated by our vocational call guided by the evangelical councils of obedience to the teaching of the church, poverty and chastity. It is in this obedience that we best live out our state of life as an image of Christ.

Gift of the Holy Spirit is Wisdom. Wisdom is simply to know as God knows! To be able to, once again, see the bigger picture and to remember that the road that leads into eternal life is the narrow way of a disciple. This vision reminds us that God's ultimate will for us is to follow His son Jesus with merciful and selfless love. This is not a matter of knowing our personal path or meaning of our life but a walking with Christ and being sent by Christ to spread the Gospel.

The Virtues that Follow the Gift of Wisdom:

- Virtue of Sincerity that gives genuine service as a disciple
- Virtue of Patience that gives the disposition to receive the least of our brothers
- Virtue of Generosity that allows our wealth to be given as alms

The following items are available, either in the back of the church or online, to help you make this your best Lenten journey:

- ◆ Audio CD's for "The Seven Sorrows of Mary" are available in the back of the church;
- ◆ Study copies of the DVD "The Chosen" are available in the back of the church;
- ◆ "The Chosen" can also be found on "YouTube"
- ◆ Extended hours and days for Penance Service will be available before Easter.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GATHERING SONG "The Glory of these forty days "

1 The glory of these forty days
we celebrate with songs of praise,
for Christ, by whom all things were made,
himself has fasted and has prayed.

2 Alone and fasting Moses saw
the loving God who gave the law.
And to Elijah, fasting, came the steed and chariots of flame.

GLORIA is omitted on Sundays during Lent

READING 1 2 CHR 36: 14-16, 19-23

In those days, all the princes of Judah, the priests, and the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the LORD's temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem. Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy. Their enemies burnt the house of God, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, set all its palaces afire, and destroyed all its precious objects. Those who escaped the sword were carried captive to Babylon, where they became servants of the king of the Chaldeans and his sons until the kingdom of the Persians came to power. All this was to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah:
"Until the land has retrieved its lost sabbaths, during all the time it lies waste it shall have rest while seventy years are fulfilled." (cont'd next column)

In the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD inspired King Cyrus of Persia to issue this proclamation throughout his kingdom, both by word of mouth and in writing:
"Thus says Cyrus, king of Persia:
All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD, the God of heaven, has given to me, and he has also charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever, therefore, among you belongs to any part of his people, let him go up, and may his God be with him!"

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. Be with me, Lord.

READING 2EPH 2: 4-10

Brothers and sisters:
God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ — by grace you have been saved —, raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come He might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

GOSPELJn 3: 14-21

Jesus said to Nicodemus:
"Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing "The Glory of these Forty days" (vs 4)

4~ Then grant, that we like them be true,
consumed in fast and pray'r with you;
Our spirits strengthen with your grace,
and give us joy to see your face.

Diocesan Lenten Appeal -
"Be the Light"

The 2021 Diocesan Lenten Appeal is offering parishioners throughout the Diocese of Greensburg an opportunity to support all those in our faith community. The Lenten season reminds us that as Christ is the light in our lives, we are also to "Be the Light" for those in need.

One way to participate is to show your support through our parish family. So far Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton is off to a good start. With 104 pledges to date, we have received $36,980 towards our Diocesan goal of $54,860. All monies received above our Diocesan goal comes back to our parish. Please take a few minutes to prayerfully consider a pledge/donation. Even a small donation can make a big difference. You can either drop off your pledge card at church or mail it to the office. Also, donations can be made on line at www.dioceseofgreensburg.org/BeTheLight. Thank you for your support and prayers during the pandemic.

Tired of COVID limiting your connection to your faith? Our Catholic faith is relational and is meant to be experienced with others. As men we will be coming together Saturday March 20th in the church hall to view “The Well” an online men’s conference sponsored by our diocese. It will start with Mass at 8:30 in the church and move downstairs to the hall, where from 9 to 11:30 we will view the conference together. It is available on Facebook and the diocese website if you are not ready to venture out into a group.

The theme of the event is “Jesus is Knocking, Open the Door!” Two dynamic speakers will be featured: Mike Aquilina of Bridgeville, an award-winning author of more than 50 books on Catholic history, and Benedictine Father Boniface Hicks, director of spiritual formation at Saint Vincent Seminary. Limited refreshments will be supplied. All men are welcome. Masks and social distancing will be observed. If you have questions contact Deacon Jeff at jcieslewicz@dioceseofgreensburg.org.
